

EPSTEIN: OTHER WORLDS AND UNDERWORLDS

By September of 2023 Epstein survivor Juliette Bryant and I had been speaking for a while, but I had no idea of the bombshells she would be dropping in her first appearance on my Classified show on ickonic.com. Juliette is an incredibly brave lady who is often misunderstood. She has a wicked sense of humour about all of this and I think she frightens the cult because she knows how to channel the chaos that Epstein left her in. I am not claiming to know everything about what Juliette knows, and I am sure there are things she has not told me, which is her right of course. I respect Juliette for allowing me to share her story and the research we have done together over the past two years. Everything you read here was researched first by either myself or Juliette, and because she lived it and I have spent decades researching the occult background to all of this, we are able to put this information in a context that I believe no other people can. The conclusion that I have come to is that Epstein was part of something much bigger and much darker than you can ever imagine. Ask yourself this question, if Epstein was simply trafficking young girls to others and recording them for leverage on the individual, then where are all the victims and all the clients? Also we have to ask why is Ghislaine Maxwell in prison if she was involved with trafficking young girls to nobody? It makes no sense at all. Unless the trafficking of young girls was more for Epstein and his mates and catching the odd politician in a comprising act, whilst the darkest of his crimes were going on underground. I don't just mean underground in terms of taking place in the shadows, I mean literally underground.

I first released this research on my Substack 'Some May Conspire' in January 2024. I had been putting this information together for a fair few months at that point and in regular conversations with Juliette. I had mapped out the geological connections between the following facilities in New Mexico.

DULCE UNDERGROUND BASE

Tremontina: The Church of Spiritual Technology (Scientology)

The Trinity Site (Manhattan Project)

Site of the 1947 Roswell Incident

Los Alamos National Laboratory

Manzano Base

Kirkland Airforce Base

The fact that these facilities are all so close (some only a two hour drive away) to Epstein's Zorro Ranch rang alarm bells with me. I had recently recorded an interview with Juliette where she has said that she had woken up naked and paralysed on a laboratory table whilst staying with Epstein at his Zorro Ranch in New Mexico. Many of the locations sited above have underground facilities. These include Dulce Base, Tremontina and Los Alamos National Laboratory. Straight away it occurred to me that these facilities could be connected to each other underground. Perhaps the most famous of all of these, at least in conspiracy circles, is Dulce Base. There are numerous accounts of sub-contracted workers saying that they were taken through underground tunnels to work at some of these underground facilities. Some claim that they were hoodwinked, with black sacks being placed over their heads when taken to the site to do their job. When the work was done they were treated to same black sack routine and returned to a neutral site. One of the more famous accounts linked to Dulce Base is of Thomas Edwin Costello, who may have been a fictitious or composite character. He was said to have been a security guard or photographer at Dulce, depending on which account you look into. Some photo's have been spread around researchers of what look like humanoid beings in vats, that were said to have been taken by Mr Costello. My personal belief is that these are taken from a movie, but I also think there have been a lot of muddying the waters, mixing truth with pure nonsense in order to cover up what is going on underground in New Mexico. A chap called Mike from the Dimensional Walking Youtube channel said that he had spent time in New Mexico speaking with locals and no-one had ever met this Thomas Edwin Costello, he believes it was a composite character (66). Mike did believe this was based on a real person but was a fake name or a composite name. Mr Costello disappeared pretty soon after the photographs were made available. There are others involved in this mess, such as Tal LeVesque (Thomas) who promoted information on Hollow Earth, The Shaver Mystery and Dulce Base. According to author Adam Gorightly, LeVesque admitted he had fabricated his information on Dulce Base "as a form of creative writing". LeVesque authored the book "The Dulce Base" in 1987 under the pen name Jason Bishop III. Under this pseudonym he wrote:

"Centuries ago, Surface People (some say the Illuminati) entered into a pact with an "Alien Nation" (hidden within the Earth). The U.S. Government, in 1933, agreed to trade Animals and Humans in exchange for High Tech Knowledge, and allow them to use (undisturbed) UNDERGROUND

BASES, in Western USA. A Special Group was formed to deal with the Alien Beings. In the 1940's, 'Alien Life Forms (ALF)' began shifting their focus of operations, from Central and South America, to the USA." (67)

WHAT WE DO KNOW IS that this base does exist in New Mexico. John Lear, the son of Learjet founder Bill Lear, was a conspiracy theorist and aviator. He was estranged from his father who left him out of his will. He flew planes for the CIA between 1967 and 1983. In 1987 Lear posted some information on a early bullet board system claiming that the US Government had close contacts to extraterrestrials and were putting out big Hollywood films to brainwash the public into accepting them as "space brothers". From this information came all the talk about a mysterious Majestic 12. Later on John made statements claiming that the government had sanction alien abductions, implants, and Alien-Human hybridisation programs. These hybridisation programs were said to be taking place in the lowest levels of Dulce Base in New Mexico. These are the seven levels of hell that are said to have been at Dulce.

1. Security and Communications
2. Human Staff Housing
3. Execs and Labs
4. Mind Control Experiments
5. Alien Housing
6. Genetic Experiments
7. Cryogenic Storage

THESE SEVEN LEVELS are accessible by a central elevator shaft which separates each floor into wings, a left wing and a right wing. Another fascinating point to make here is that level 7 is where the Cryonics or Cryogenics storage facilities are. Now let's add to this information that the "farther of cryonics" Robbert Ettinger wrote short stories such as 'The Penultimate Trump' which is story about a wealthy man who has himself cryogenically frozen for 300 years. When this man is brought back to life 300 hundred years later, he is informed that although he paid for the entire operation, he must go through a redemption process of experiencing everything evil that he done to others in a process that took place on Mars, which had been renamed as "Hell". Also, we know that the Trementina site owned by Scientologies Church of Spiritual Technology is exactly that, a cryogenics storage facility for L Ron Hubbards works. Perhaps these "works" include the results of the Babalon Working ritual he performed with Jack Parsons decades ago? My feeling is that there has been an operation by some of these characters who claim to have been involved with Dulce Base to muddy the waters. There are so many questions left unanswered by some of these individuals that none of it stands up to much scrutiny. I believe this has been done on purpose, because there is something going on under the soil of New Mexico and it does involve genetic experiment. I also believe that many of these secretive military bases are connected to each other by shuttles and tunnels underground, and that includes Epstein's Zorro Ranch. If what Juliette Bryant is telling us is true, then this has been going on for decades. So how do we know what sort of "human" Epstein even was? Nothing would surprise me any more, and I certainly do not think it is too much to ask that there be an official investigation into what may have been going on underneath Zorro Ranch and Epstein's private island.

ZORRO RANCH IS a 30 minute ride outside of New Mexico's capital city. A "no trespassing" sign is now on the large double gates to the ranch. These are the same gates that Juliette once traveled through. The property is situated on around 10,00 acres of land which sits inside land once owned by New Mexico Governor Bruce King. In August of 2019 the New York Times ran a headline that read "Epstein Reportedly Hoped To Develop a Super Race of Humans With His DNA". This may sound absurd and of course we cannot take the NYT on face value, but I would suggest that the themes may well be true. Though I think calling it a new "super race of humans" is a bit much, I do believe that he was harvesting eggs at Zorro Ranch for use in genetic experiments and cloning. The Guardian reported on the same thing, saying there was little evidence that the scheme ever progressed beyond a fantasy, but that is because they have no idea what they are looking for. The evidence that this took place is staggering, and we also have Juliette's personal account as well as one other account of a girl that said similar in private, allegedly she is no longer with us. On the 24th December 2025 a release of a batch of Epstein files revealed that in 2019 a women contacted a group called 'Hope For Justice' and said that she had been "taken to an underground location" where Epstein raped her. She said that she was blind folded and taken and that the place had "steps that went down". She said that there were "other men there that raped me" and that she was "kept in a stall so men could look at me". Remember this was from an email that was sent in 2019, and backs up what Juliette told me in 2023. It is not clear from the information released to the public where this event allegedly took place, it could have been at the Island, the Ranch or any one of his properties. We also have the paintings of Epstein survivor Maria Farmer, one of which is called 'Setiles' that clearly shows an underground hell, on what appears to be Epstein's Island. I did actually find a place in Spain located in the province of Guadalajara, Castile-La Mancha, called the Setiles, which looks a lot like the landscape of Maria Farmer's painting. Complete with the tall church like building on the far right of the painting. The Setiles in Spain has a tiny population of just 86 people so who everyone would know everyone else.

ACCORDING to the New York Times, Epstein had told scientists and businessmen about his plans to use his New Mexico Ranch as a base "where women would be inseminated with his sperm and would give birth to his babies"(68). This is pretty much what Juliette described to me, so why has nobody investigated what is going on under Zorro Ranch and the Island? A Guardian article says Epstein's trials were labelled as "transhumanist but were really an updated version of Eugenics"(69). What the author of that article does not understand is that transhumanism is eugenics and was rebranded as such by Julian Huxley, brother of Aldous Huxley (Brave New World) and grandson of X Club founder Thomas Huxley. Epstein was funding genetic research through his little known Epstein VI Foundation. In roman numerals VI is six and in the biblical narrative god created human beings on the sixth day. He also created some beings that he never finished who became demons. One of the scientists he was funding was George Church who has collaborated with Transhumanist James Clement. Mr Clement was researching into something called "Super-centenarians" which is the study of those who lived to over 100. James Clement was looking at genetic factors behind longevity, which is a common thread of interest for the cult. In my article "Epstein And The Moon Children" published on my Substack page on 30th November 2024 (70), I mapped out the distance from Epstein's Zorro Ranch to the underground facilities in Dulce, which is about a three hour drive. This might not sound that close but that is by car. These guys had access to private jets, helicopters and perhaps underground hyper shuttle systems, like the one that Dulce employee Phil Schneider said he saw whilst working at Dulce. Phil Schneider claimed that he had a shoot out with large grey aliens that his team had accidentally disturbed whilst drilling underground at Dulce. Phil said that he had been shot by one of the aliens which opened him up like a tin of soup, as well as blowing off several of his fingers in the process. Dulce is said to have seven levels, which is the Cabalistic number for completion and the Rosicrucian model for their map of human evolution. Whatever you believe about the information that Phil Schneider gave in his various lectures, the fact that all of this correlating information keeps cropping time and again shows that New Mexico and Epstein Island need investigating on a mass scale. If there is nothing hidden underground then why not investigate the possibility so that you can at least rule it out?

GOING DEEPER UNDERGROUND

Another facility that I highlighted in my article "Epstein And The Moon Child" is the Trementina base, owned by the Church of Spiritual Technology which is an arm of Scientology. This base is even closer to Zorro Ranch than Dulce, around a two and half hour drive away. Could these two facilities be connected via an underground hyper shuttle system? The official purpose of the Trementina Base is said to be a vault where all of L.Ron Hubbards works are safety stored in extremely low temperatures, meaning Cryonics. We already know that Hubbard was working with Jack Parsons on the Babalon Working ritual, that allegedly involved the Manhattan Project as well as the first atomic bomb detonation, which took place in New Mexico at the Trinity Site. The Trinity site is located near Fort Craig which is a three hour drive from Zorro Ranch. As I am writing this and looking over my old notes it has just occurred to me that Epstein's Zorro Ranch is about three hours drive from most of these facilities. Could Zorro Ranch be an entrance point or a central station to all of these locations? Take a look at some photos of Zorro Ranch for a moment, do they not look a bit like a film set to you? they certainly do to me. Now take a look at the facade embedded into the mountain side that is the Trementina Vaults. It has clearly been made to look like a house from a distance. Just a glance at the front of the Trementina building makes it pretty obvious that it's not what it is being made out to be. Another point I would like to add about the Trementina Vaults is that it has the classic blue roofs which correspond with the Kabbalah belief that blue is the colour of Shekhinah. They believe that this colour protects them from the evil eye, and is also connected to the Tekhelet blue dye that is said to have protected the Arch of the Covenant when it was being moved. This is the same colour as the roofs of the buildings on Epstein's Island.

THE LOS ALAMOS NATIONAL LABORATORY is another fascinating facility that is haunted by rumours of underground laboratories and secret projects. Los Alamos is a member of the Large Hadron Collider Experiment and now has voting rights on how these experiments are carried out as well as what the aims and objectives of the project are. The largest LHC can be found in Geneva Switzerland at CERN, and in total there are seven Large Hadron Colliders in the world, notice the seven again. It is alleged that the experiment is about answering the question of why the universe has far more matter than antimatter, at least officially. I would suggest that it is about opening up portals into other dimensions with traffic going both ways. Los Alamos National Lab was established in 1943 as 'Project Y' with the Y being a symbol of one timeline splitting off into two distinct alternative timelines. This was a top secret project designed for researching nuclear weapons under the Manhattan Project. Yes, the same Manhattan Project that rocket scientist and Crowley acolyte Jack Parsons was working on whilst also performing the Babalon Working rituals. The official story is that after WW2 ended Los Alamos turned its attention to national security, space exploration, nuclear fusion, renewable energy, medicine and nanotechnology. Do we really believe all our tax money is being spent on useless renewable energy systems, or is that a smoke screen to hide the fact that the money is going into black budget projects. Projects that involve opening up portals and contacting entities from other dimensions? This would all be part of a larger messianic agenda for a new world order. In 2012 the Albuquerque New Mexico channel KRGE reported on a deep underground tunnel that had been "discovered" underneath the town of Los Alamos. Locals believe that gold was probably kept there, or a train that went deep into the New Mexico mountains. For over sixty years locals reported hearing strange noises coming from the location of the tunnel. In 2013 the KRGE crew were permitted to film inside the vault which opens up into a large tunnel system. Called the "invisible tunnel" it is said to be at least 230ft below ground level. Hilariously the tunnel is marked today by a McDonalds, oh the strange world we live in hey. The tunnel was created as the Cold War begun in 1948, when the entire town of Los Alamos was off limits and was considered a secret city. Visitors needed a pass to even enter the city. The official story says that the tunnel was built as a safe haven incase of nuclear war, but in the meantime scientist work down there in secrecy developing the first atomic bomb. Parts for the bomb were flown into Edwards Air Force Base which is a base that comes up time and again in information about secret military projects. The parts were then driven straight to the tunnel hidden underneath the canyon. These weapon parts are still classified today, so my question is, if they can build a secret tunnel like this back in the 1840's and keep it hidden for over sixty years, even from many of their own staff, then who is to say that there are not tunnels underneath the vast land of New Mexico linking them all together ? My gut feeling says that there are and they connect to Epstein's Zorro Ranch.

WHEN IT COMES to Kirkland Air Force Base, one look at the logo screams Baphomet through the canyons of New Mexico. The site itself has several entrances that go deep underground that can be seen on Google maps, but to be fair it's exactly what you would expect at a facility like this. There are been numerous reports of UAP sightings near Kirkland Air Force Base. One of the more famous and controversial names associated with the base is Paul Bennewitz. In 1996 Bennewitz required the rights to a humidity sensor from Sandia National Laboratories. He then founded Thunder Scientific, a small family run business with his wife Cindy. In the 1970's Paul joined a local UFO group and was investigating the phenomenon as well as the rise in cattle mutilations that were happening in New Mexico. At one of the local meetings Paul was introduced to local highway patrol officer Gabe Valdez. Later on Valdez referred a case to Paul involving a women claiming to be named Myrna Hansen. Her story involved inter planetary, or perhaps inter dimensional beings and cattle herds. Hansen traveled to the home of Paul Bennewitz with her son and described what she had seen as "two Goodyear blimps hovering over a meadow" in Eagle Nest, New Mexico. Hansen and Bennewitz got together with Leo Sprinkle who was a psychologist and professor at the University of Wyoming. Under hypnosis Myrna Hansen recalled being abducted and taken to a base with bodies floating in vats. Many researchers believe this is where Phill Schneider got his Dulce Base incidents from. I don't know if Phil took his cues from the Bennewitz incidence, but there are so many facilities of interest in such a small area that I believe there is a lot of truth here. When I add these older accounts to the experience of Juliette Bryant at Zorro Ranch, I can only conclude that there is something very dark going on underground in New Mexico, and that these facilities may connect to each other via underground tunnels. In another hypnosis session Hansen revealed that she had been implanted with some sort of technology by the aliens. This all affected Paul Bennewitz to the point that he began to arm himself with a gun in fear that he was being influenced by the aliens. Bennewitz later turned to hypnotist James Harder who was infamous for his work with Travis Walton who experienced his own alien encounter. Both Bennewitz and Harder both believed Hansen was "under the influence of alien beams". The son of Gabe Valdez later said this about the incident, according to the Wikipedia page.

"It is a possibility that the Myrna Hansen story was also part of the disinformation campaign... I will go out on a limb here and say that the story of Myrna Hansen was probably a well-orchestrated hoax because of a very important fact: the listening devices found in my dad's house. The government heard all the conversations on the phone between my dad and [Bennewitz], so such a hoax would be relatively easy to accomplish... Myrna Hansen came into the picture in May of 1980 and the Air Force did not even acknowledge contact with Paul until November of 1980... Although this evidence can barely be viewed as even circumstantial, it would explain a lot of things and how and why they transpired during the 1980s based on what we currently know"(71)

PAUL BENNEWITZ later claimed to be in contact with aliens via his computer. He also spoke of alien colonisation and an alien agenda to take over human kind. Paul later accused is wife of being under the control of the aliens. He went as far as buying sandbags and barricading himself in his house. His family eventually admitted him to a psychiatric clinic. In 1988 information was released about the Majestic 12, a secretive organisation alleged to be involved with aliens. On July 1st 1989 William Moore, a fellow UFO researcher and author admitted he had fed false information to Bennewitz in order to cause him to have a break down on behalf of the Air Force Office of Investigations. All of this chaos is designed to muddy the waters so that nobody can tell what is real. The fact is that anyone who does this line of work must be honest with themselves and accept that they maybe being used in something they do not really understand, myself included. That is the mark of a true researcher, someone who lets the information lead them, whilst using their intuition. You have to accept that you could be being used in a game they do not entirely understand, and have the humility to know you know nothing for sure unless you were there to experience it yourself.

ESCAPE FROM ROSWELL

One thing I wanted to briefly touch on here is another famous incident that happened in New Mexico, that being the Roswell crash. In 1947 (that year again) debris of an alleged crashed alien craft were recovered in Roswell New Mexico. These incidents were mixed in with a hoax crash at Aztec New Mexico in 1948, where it was claimed that alien bodies were recovered. These two stories were mixed together which of course muddled the waters further. Remember they do this on purpose, they mix in some obvious bollocks with the truth which serves to spoils the pot. It is a pretty simple technique which is what I believe has happened with the Dulce Base information. This technique is all about causing chaos in the mind of the public whilst discrediting the real information. So, just for the record my belief is that the Roswell crash in 1947 was some sort of advanced craft, but my gut feeling is that these beings did not crashing down to earth. I believe that they were the result of some of the genetic experiments going on underground in New Mexico, who were trying to escape these horrific programs. The Roswell crash was in 1947 so these experiments would have been in their very early stages. From 1942 to 1946 the Manhattan Project was being worked on in New Mexico at the Los Alamos National Laboratory, headed up by Nuclear physicists J Robert Oppenheimer. The first explosion took place at the Trinity Test site on the 16th July 1945, at White Sands Proving Ground. This is what is said about the test on July 16th 1945 on the Wikipedia page:

"At 05:30 on 16 July 1945 the gadget exploded with an energy equivalent of around 20 kilotons of TNT, leaving a crater of trinitite (radioactive glass) in the desert 250 feet (76 m) wide. The shock wave was felt over 100 miles (160 km) away, and the mushroom cloud reached 7.5 miles (12.1 km) in height. It was heard as far away as El Paso, Texas, so Groves issued a cover story about an ammunition magazine explosion at Alamogordo Field involving gas shells" (72)

OPPENHEIMER LATER CLAIMED THAT, while witnessing the explosion, he thought of a verse from the Hindu holy book, the Bhagavad Gita(XI, 12):

"If the radiance of a thousand suns were to burst at once into the sky, that would be like the splendour of the mighty one...
"Now I am become Death, destroyer of worlds" (73)

WHAT IF THE vehicle that crashed at Roswell in 1947 wasn't an alien craft at all, but a craft of genetic experiments that were being held underground in New Mexico during the fall out of the Trinity blast? What if they were trying to escape the underground laboratories and crashed before they could get into orbit? Whatever we believe about these various incidents and reports, what cannot be argued is that all of these facilities exist close to each other, and all of them have some very strange goings on and alleged purposes. That alone is enough for me to keep digging into this, because I believe that Epstein is weak link in this global conspiracy that could blow this entire scam apart.

BUTTERFLY'S BLUE

This part of the Epstein scandal absolutely fascinates me and is one that I still don't feel I have gotten to the bottom of. Several of Epstein's more prominent survivors use the symbol of the blue butterfly in some way. This was an obvious correlation to me and one that still has not been really explained. This is how some of Epstein's survivors have used the blue butterfly as a symbol.

JULIETTE BRYANT : Used a blue butterfly on the front of her diary from her Epstein years

Virginia Giuffre Roberts : Used the blue Morpho butterfly as her company logo

Virginia Giuffre Roberts : Has a blue butterfly tattoo

Sarah Ransome : Has a blue butterfly tattoo on her wrist

Jeffery Epstein : Founded the Butterfly Trust to pay off his victims

HOW CAN anyone in their right mind believe this is all just a coincidence? We can now go back to the 'Moonchild' novel written by Aleister Crowley, whose work inspired the Babalon Working ritual. In the Moonchild story, the place that the young female victims were taken to was called the Butterfly Nest. Perhaps the most famous butterfly in conspiracy land is the Monarch butterfly. This butterfly is a symbol of the mind controlled slaves created in the CIA's MK Ultra projects. King Charles even had a Monarch butterfly painted onto a recent portrait of him, which looks like something straight out of hell. The Monarch Butterfly sits over his right shoulder. The painting by Jonathan Yeo shows the newly crowned King coming out of a red mist that resembles hell. I asked Montauk Project survivor Stewart Swerdlow about this symbology and he said the Monarch and the blue butterfly are old programming. He told me that they now use a green luminous butterfly. So I did some digging and it didn't take long to find several images of the singer Billie Ellish surrounded by luminous green butterfly's. Billie seems like a nice lady, but has all the hallmarks of someone with a personality disorder. People with Borderline personality disorder (BPD) often split their minds into compartments. This is where they store different personalities that are called as alters. The symbolism of a shattered mirror is often used to portray this "splitting". The Monarch Butterfly was chosen as the symbol of MK Ultra mind control programming for a number of reasons. One of the main reasons is that the Monarch butterfly has been proven to be able to pass on information down their bloodline epigenetically. We know this because the Monarch Butterfly will travel in groups from one location to another where they will die after giving birth to the next generation. Somehow this new generation is able to return to the first location without ever having been there themselves. This implies some sort of genetic memory that is passed down through the generations. I believe this is what is happening with those who are being abused in these mind control programs. What is interesting is that these "genetic memories" are triggered by environmental signals, which maybe why some assassins cannot remember the incident or remember it in a completely alternative way to how it actually happened. A very strange piece of information snuck its way into an NBC News Article, saying that Robert Kennedy's alleged killer Sirhan Sirhan had known about 9/11 before it happened because he "began wearing a towel around his head" and "obtained a TV" having no previous interest in Televisions, well that's enough evidence to convince me!... Sirhan Sirhan had said that he thought he was going to shake Robert Kennedy's hand on the fateful night, but then saw that he had a gun in his hand and realised that he had shot him (74).

DAVID ICKE WRITES in The Biggest Secret that Sirhan Sirhan was on a "mind expansion course with the Rosicrucians when he began to hear messages telling him to kill Kennedy"(4). David expands on this story in ... And The Truth Will Set You Free (75) where he explains how Sirhan had met a friend for dinner on the night of the murder and intended to go to a Rosicrucian meeting. His friend gave him a newspaper in which Sirhan saw an ad for a parade celebration the anniversary of an Israeli military victory. This ad said the parade was that evening but David writes that "he had somehow been given a copy of the next day's paper". Because Sirhan didn't know that the parade was actually the following day, on June 5th, he changed his plans to go to the Rosicrucian meeting and went to the parade instead. When he arrived he saw that nothing was going on, according to Sirhan he felt "lonely" and remembered that a girl he knew from high school might be at the Ambassador Hotel. This was where Robert (Bobby) Kennedy was giving a speech. After having a bit too much to drink he decided to go home around eleven o'clock. Under hypnosis it was revealed that Sirhan got into his car but realised he was too drunk to drive home. He then noticed a gun in his car and thinking it might be stolen he put it in the belt of his trousers. He then returned to the hotel and had a coffee with a dark attractive woman, who was never identified. On the way to buy another coffee he said he found himself suddenly in a maze of "dazzling lights and mirrors". I have seen this depicted in many mind control victims art work, such as Michael Jackson who put it in the sleeve of his last album Invincible. This image symbolises the process of splitting and fragmenting the mind into compartments, so that information can be stored there without the other parts of the victim (alters) knowing anything about it. Feeling "dazed and bewildered" the Mirrored doors led to the hotel kitchen. He said he leaned on a table as he was feeling sleepy, then looked up to see Robert Kennedy and a group of people coming towards him. In his conscious mind Sirhan said he went to shake Robert Kennedy's hand but in reality he had pulled out a gun and shot him three times. Robert Kennedy had wanted to walk through the crowd but his minders insisted that he leave through the kitchen. David writes that it was "Frank Mankiewicz" who was most adamant that Kennedy leave through the kitchen. Mankiewicz was a political advisor and member of the Anti-defamation league (ADL) of the B'nai B'rith. He would later go on to be the head of publicity for the Oliver Stone movie JFK, which pins his assassination on the CIA, deflecting any involvement from Israel. This was the level of mind control back in the late 1960's, imagine what they are capable of today underground in New Mexico...perhaps at Zorro Ranch.

I have spoke at length with Juliette about the blue butterfly and what she thinks it is all about, and she has conducted her own research into the subject. Another quick thing I should mention is that Juliette's grandfather was in NASA, and died just a few hours before her birth, could this be a case of soul transference or something similar? There are a couple of pieces of information that myself and Juliette came up with in regard to what the blue butterfly symbology might mean. My take on it was that the blue butterfly could represent Lilith. She is the shape shifting first wife of Adam in the Garden of Eden. In Jewish mysticism Lilith is believed to be the other half of Samael, who is often called the "Angel of Death". Samael was known as the "venom of God" or "poison of God" and was seen as both a destructive force and a necessary evil. Christians will see Samael as the snake in the Garden of Eden, and the tempter of humanity. Whilst Lilith would be the evil first wife of Adam that he could not control. To the Gnostic, this snake was seen as the one who set humanity free by giving them knowledge from the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

THE NAME LILITH connects in with the names Elizabeth, Lilly and Lilibet which is the name of Prince Harry's daughter, who is also the granddaughter of King Charles II. In the Jewish Talmud Lilith is seen as the original she-demon and was banished from the Garden of Eden for disobeying Adam. The Kabbalists actually call Lilith women 1.0 and Eve women 2.0, which is why they now want to upgrade Adam to Adam 2.0. In Hebrew the name Lilith or Lilit translates as "night creatures" as well as "screech owl". Some commentators say Lilith was a woman who stole babies in the darkness. I am not suggesting that Lilith is definitely the meaning of the blue butterfly symbol when it comes to the victims of Jeffery Epstein. In fact the more I look into this the less convinced I am that it as simple as having a singular meaning. I do believe however that whatever it means it is being passed on down the bloodlines of these women via epigenetic. If this is the case, could it be that these women are carrying some sort of cypher within their DNA?

PSYCHE

Juliette brought to my attention the mythical character of Psyche, who was also depicted as a blue angel with butterfly wings. She was the immortal wife of Cupid, which is fascinating considering the main topic of this book is the death cults eternal quest for immortality. In the ancient Roman novel 'The Golden Ass' (Metamorphosis) Psyche violates the trust of Cupid and must endure many trials from her mother Venus to win him back. At the end of her story she is reunited with cupid and given immortality as a reward. Psyche has greek origins and is commonly translate as soul, life or spirit as well as the 'mind' in modern day psychology. She is also associated with the terms "to breath" or "to blow" or "life breath". In mythology, Psyche is the most beautiful daughter of a king and queen of an unnamed land. Some saw her as a new earthly Venus, and began to reject the old statues of worship to the original goddess Venus. This pissed old Venus right off so she decided to take revenge on the young and beautiful Psyche. Venus called upon Cupid to use his arrow to make her fall in love with a hideous and impoverished man. However she remained unmarried and sad, so her father decide to consult the Oracle of Apollo, today we use Google. He received a prophesy that psyche would marry a non-mortal and a terrible serpentine monster. I mean can we get any closer to Epstein shape shifting into a reptilian like alien being! The Ancient Greek myth of Psyche, the goddess of the soul, is seen by some physiologists as an allegory of the human journey through trials to become divine. Whilst modern psychology likens Psyche to "internal struggles against demonic forces" within oneself. This could be seen as a more feminine example of the shadow side of Bruce Wayne, and his struggles to overcome his own inner demons, becoming Batman instead of The Joker.

IN MY CHATS WITH JULIETTE, she appears to be as intrigued by the fact that they all use the symbol of a blue butterfly as I am. Another possibility is that the symbol of a blue butterfly taps into their subconscious, and represents metamorphosis in some way. I think we need to get passed the urge to want to get a fixed theory on what some of these things mean. In reality we do not know what this symbol definitely means to these women and in the context of Epstein's crimes. Having said that I believe it involves the manipulation of DNA, Human Cloning, carrying messages or codes via DNA, transhumanism and the playing out of biblical end times events. If the body is a Stargate as author Wayne McRoy believes, then could they be working on a type of human body that would be perfect for a being from a lower dimension? Again, I am in noway saying these women are aware of or involved in any of this, they would be victims of this entire program which they may have been born into. Another possible decoding of the blue butterfly symbol in regard to Epstein's crimes is the Atlas blue butterfly which has the most Chromosome pairs of all living creatures. The Atlas blue butterfly has 229 pairs of Chromosome's compared to human beings who have just 23 pairs. Could this make the Atlas blue butterfly the perfect vessel in which to store information or Kompromat?

ISLAND'S In The Stream

Now we come to perhaps the most famous homes of Jeffery Epstein, his private island in the Caribbean. This island was known to his survivors as "Pedophile Island" but officially it is called Little St James. This island is located south-east of St Thomas Island in the Caribbean. Another island of interest that is close to Epstein's is St Barthelemy (St Barts) which is southeast of St Martin Island. It is my belief that some very dark things have taken place on these islands, and that they maybe connected via underwater tunnels and facilities. We know that many of them have access ports for submarines, which would provide the blue sea protection of Shekhinah from the "evil eye" of public exposure.

EPSTEIN PURCHASED this private island in 1998 and lived there right up until his second arrest for child related crimes in 2019. The island covers around 78 acres of land and is close to yet another island of interest called St James Island. In April of 1998 a company called LSJ LLC purchased Little St James for $7.95 Million, this company was controlled by Jeffery Epstein. The Island is connected to the nearby St Thomas Island by fiber optic cables for internet and IT access. Since Epstein's death his island has been purchased by billionaire Stephen De-koff under his investment arm SD Investments. Perhaps the most fascinating aspect of the island was the cubed shaped temple that once stood high up on a hill. This cubed shaped building was white with blue stripes going around the entire body of the building. There were seven blue stripes around the white building, which may have represented completion in the Kabbalah or the seven levels of hell below. It also had a mosque style golden dome on top at one point, which was destroyed by a storm. The building closely resembled the Hammam Yalbugha which is a public bath in Syria, that according to author Leo Zagami in his book 'The Rise And Fall of A Frankist Monster' was once a local meeting place for Sabbatean Frankist's (76). No one truly knows what this temple was used for, but the faux doors and set like feel reminds me of the facade that hides the Trementina vaults of the Church of Spiritual Technology in New Mexico. Just a few months after the FBI raided the island, conspiracy researcher Luke Rudkowski of

We Are Change raided the Island with Jeff Berwick. After having a bit of a snoop around the island they were frightened off by security, but they did manage to film the front of what looked to me like an entrance to some sort of underground facility. Could this have been a similar facility to the one that Juliette Bryant said she woke up in at Zorro Ranch, something like a laboratory? Or could it have been the entrance to a Submarine port? as many of the surrounding islands use mini submarines for tours and travelling. We also know that Epstein's accomplice Ghislaine Maxwell had a submarine licence, and had posted pictures of her in a submarine with Professor Steven Hawkins.

JULIETTE HAS SHOWN me pictures that she took of the island when she was taken there in the early 2000's. Juliette had managed to find a bag of disposable cameras on the island and began to secretly take pictures of her surrounding. One of the strangest photos is of Juliette as she sits with her back to camera at the edge of what looks like the cliff tops, someone had to have taken that photo of her on the disposable camera. Juliette first met Jeffery at party in South Africa, Cape Town when she was introduced to him by African American model Naja Hill. In what seems like a whirlwind of action Juliette was quickly taken to see Jeffery to show him her modelling portfolio at the Cape Grace Hotel. Not long after, she was being given her own apartment in New York by Jeffery and his team. She barely had time to settle in when she received a phone call from Jeffery's assistant Sarah Keller, telling her to shower and pack a bag, they were off to Jeffries private island In the Caribbean. Because it was all done in such a rush Juliette was not able to get a phone or money together, so she was completely reliant on Jeffery and his team, which was likely by design. She bordered Jeffrey's private plane at Teterboro airport. After a while Epstein motioned Juliette to come sit up front with him, as the plane took off he began to touch Juliette. She writes in her own book "The Apple and The Butterfly" :

"I was terrified, naive about sex, and feared for my life. I realised I had to comply to survive. My name wasn't on the flight log, so if something happened, my family would never know. We landed in the Caribbean, and I was relieved to see two South African staff, Miles and Cathy Alexander, who were kind and tried to care for me and the other girls. They seemed scared of Epstein and Maxwell, and I sensed many staff were trapped and terrified"

JULIETTE WAS THEN LED to a small chalet with "disturbing art work of a sea creature attacking a girl". She was then summoned to Epstein's private room where she says she was forced to undress. She writes in her book that she had been "abducted, petrified and abused". Juliette did not speak about what happened on the Island or at Zorro Ranch for twenty years. She was actually one of the older girls taken there, being in her early twenties at the time. Whilst being held captive on the Island she was summoned to his room several times a day. Before being sent back to South Africa Epstein told Juliette that he worked for the CIA and that he had connections. Juliette said he had "ruined the life" of one of the girls who had accused him of rape. Juliette was too frightened to tell anyone about what happened. She was taken to all of his properties including New Mexico, Little St James and his New York home, which she describes in her book as having "a hollow middle section with a gold dome that seemed mysterious and ominous". She says that out of all of the properties that she was taken to Zorro Ranch was the most frightening, and where "terrifying things happened". I highly recommend that you get Juliette's original book "The Apple and The Butterfly" to hear about what happened to in her own words. (The book has since been taken off sale. I was fortunate enough to have been sent a PDF copy by Juliette, allowing me to quote these sections for this book)

IT WAS whilst being held captive on his private island in the Caribbean that Juliette says she saw Epstein "transform into a creature-like being, like a dragon alien, with black eyes, horns, and a green scaly body, saying "It was like a hologram". This is the event that Juliette spoke about for the first time in public on my Classified show. Remember this happened in 2002, and correlates with what David Icke has written in many of his books regarding human to reptilian shape-shifting. She says that she looked away and then back again and Jeffery had changed back. She also told me that he transformed at the moment of climax. In demonology it is believed that a demon will stare straight into the eyes of its victim at the moment of climax. This was a ritual performed to imprint the demonic spirit in the Child who is yet to be born. What was really going on under that island? and where did that hatch lead to that was found by Luke Rodkowski and Jeff Berwick when they snuck onto the Island? If you think this is all a bit over the top, I complete understand where you are coming from. But just three weeks before Epstein's private Island was "raided" by the FBI, Epstein ordered a cement truck costing $50,000 to be delivered to the island as quick as possible. The truck was ordered on November the 7th (7 is Completion in Lurianic Kabbalah) 2018 under an Express Bill of Lading, which according to a report in the Daily Mail (77) is an extremely expensive yet fast way of getting the machine. Just three weeks later the Miami Herald (78) published its expose of Jeffery Epstein on November 28th 2018. What was he filling in? And how was a man who was clearly on the radar of the FBI allowed to order such equipment to his private island without raising alarm bells? Was he tipped off by contacts within the intelligence services? Which gave him three weeks to fill in whatever he was covering up with cement. The Daily Mail also wrote that Epstein had sent a dentists chair to the island with all the parts. We saw a similar looking chair in the photographs released from his Palm Beach Florida home. The chair in those images is sitting next to what looks like a bath, that sits on top of a Masonic black and white tiled floor. Could Epstein have been using these chairs to put his victims under anaesthetic? which is a drug that is used to induce temporary loss of awareness. There was clearly something very strange taking place on that island, and he has literally covered it up with cement. I will also add the cloning Laws in the Caribbean may not apply to anything that is situation under the sea, as the laws of the land are not the same as the laws of the sea which come under the 'Public International Law Of The Sea'. We know that Epstein's accomplice Ghislaine Maxwell founded an NGO called TerraMar, which was focused on the 64% of the ocean that lies outside any single country's jurisdiction. Could it be that the cloning operations were going on under the sea near his private island in the Caribbean, whilst the transhumanist genetics technology was being developed underground in New Mexico? My gut instinct tells me that this theory is at least in the ball park of the truth.

AS WITH ZORRO RANCH, I began to look into the islands that surround Little St James to see if anything came up. One of the islands that really stood out was St Barth'elemy which is commonly known as St Barts. This island is located just a shot fifty minute flight (commercial) from Epstein's own private island. St Barts first appeared on my radar when it was seen as the location of a bit of a shopping spree between Jeffery and his long time friend and associate Peter Mandelson. Peter Mandelson was recently sacked as the UK's ambassador to the US due to his involvement with Jeffery Epstein. If the entire demonic structure of global politics wasn't already extraordinarily obvious, it was Keir Starmer who appointed Mandelson in that role as the person in charge of creating links with US President Donald Trump. The same Donald Trump who was also a well publicised long time friend of Jeffery Epstein. St Barts is a prime location for many of the worlds most rich and famous, and is where movie producer and record executive Dave Geffen parks his oversized Yacht which he name the 'Rising Sun', a clear nod to Horus. Geffen has been pictured holding parties for some of his famous friends, such as Paul McCartney and friend of John of God's Oprah Winfrey, who is a member of something called the "Mega Club". St Barts was also a regular haunt for Puff Daddy who is now serving a 4 year prison sentence for two prostitution-related crimes. Puff Daddy's crimes appeared to have taken place in many locations, included the Island of St Barts. Puff is believed by researchers to have been in a similar role to Jeffery Epstein, but in the music industry instead of the modelling industry, science and politics. He also appeared to be as equally interested in men as he was women in regards to his crimes. What many will not know is the Puff Daddy actually has a small financial interest in Elon Musk's X platform. This connection led me to some fascinating information that has shed new light on Musk's transhumanist and occult objectives.

ELON MUSK TOOK one of his sons to the Island of St Barts for a new year's eve celebration in 2023. But Elon's connections to the island go far deeper than that and may connect in with the Babalon Working ritual of Aleister Crowley, Jack Parsons and L Ron Hubbard. In September 2024 a young lady named Ashley St Claire (Elite Bloodline name) said she had given birth to Elon's 13th child. Ashley said that the child was conceived on the Island of St Barts in a whirlwind romance between the two (79). It was not until months later that Ashley revealed that they had chosen to name the child Romulus, after one of the twin brothers who were said to have been raised by a she-wolf and then went on to found Rome. The young and beautiful Ashely St Clair took a photo of herself looking in the mirror, which is symbolic of an alter-ego. In the picture she is wearing a back dress with an open back, on the hip of her dress she has a silver crescent moon. This is a symbol of the she-wolf and Shekhinah, which fit in with the possibility that we might be looking at an occult ritual here. As bizarre as this all sounds we can add to this information that it was the Epstein funded geneticist George Church who claimed to have been able to resurrect a species of Dire Wolf. George Church and his team were able to resurrect the extinct species with the birth of twin brothers. He and his team named the new born wolves Romulus and Remus. I will come back to Epstein and George Church later in this chapter as the entire transhumanists agenda goes to crazy town with that information. But let's take stock for a moment, we have a a transhumanist technocrat in Elon Musk who I believe is deeply involved with the modern day X-Club, a club that was founded by Aldous and Julian Huxley's grandfather Thomas Huxley. We have a child conceived on an Island in the Caribbean (St Barts) which is the location of much controversy, including trafficking of minors. We then have this child being named Romulus after one other the twin brothers raised by a She-Wolf who then went on to found Rome, with his brother Remus. The mother of Elon's 13th child Ashley St Clair takes a photo of herself wearing a black dress with a Silver moon on her hip. There are few photos of Elon and Ashely together, one of which was posted in an article on the New York Times website on April 16th 2025 (79). Elon can be seen with Ashely wearing a T-Shirt with a silver wolf on the front, they always tell you, they have because it is part of the Karmic contract with the those beyond the veil.

ST BARTS ISLAND is only a short distance from Epstein's private island where I believe genetic experiments may have taken place in yet to be investigate underground facilities. Add to this that the Island of St Barts run their own submarine trips around the various islands on a real life yellow submarine (not joking) named after the Beatles famous song. The Beatles were followers of Aleister Crowley, even putting his head on the cover of their Sgt Peppers Lonely Hearts Club album. We also have possible submarine ports located on Epstein's island and we know that Ghislaine Maxwell had her own submarine licence. To add to this we have an abandoned Rockefeller estate on this North West shores of St Barts island, which could have been easily accessible via an underground submarine port perhaps. There is a great video on the Cruzan Mongoose Youtube channel filmed by a young couple who take us on a tour of this now abandoned Rockefeller estate. If things were not weird enough the couple stumble across a stuffed white rabbit left in one of the rooms (80). This is a classic symbol from Alice in Wonderland and suggests a "rabbit hole" or conspiracy to follow and uncover. I uncovered this information myself and wrote about it in 2024 on my Some May Conspire Substack page, as well as in articles for ickonic.com. There is so much more to this topic, information of which you can find in those articles. Other islands of interest include Water Island, which was purchased by the United States for $10,000 in 1944 to protect the Submarine base on the nearby St Thomas Island during WWII. The fact is that there are submarine ports and bases all around Epstein's private Island and you are expecting me to believe that no intelligence agency as thought to investigate if any trafficking of minors was going on deep under the sea? My gut feeling is that there are facilities under many of those islands in the Caribbean and that they are part of a transhumanist programme that the likes of Epstein and P Diddy may well have been part of. My research has also led me to believe that they are working on something similar to the Babalon Working and Moonchild rituals, to bring about an Anti-Christ that will be given its place on the thrown in the new temple of Solomon on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. Whilst everyone is looking above ground at the Kompromat activities of Puff Daddy and Jeffery Epstein they have completely ignored what lies beneath.

TAKE Me Too Church

These dark occultist are deeply entrenched in symbology, this is the language that they communicate through and their Tower of Babel coded system of communication. Once you begin to decoded this language, which is a mixture of ancient Greek, Roman and Egyptian mythologies with Hermeticism, Alchemy, Satanism and Religion, then you are able to shed some light on their entire Mes-sianic agenda. A major, if not ultimate goal of the cults is to achieve some sort of immortality, even if that means transforming themselves into something entirely inhuman in the process.

SO IT DIDN'T TAKE much dot-connecting to connect the themes of Romulus and Remus to the work of Epstein funded geneticist George Church. Much of this initial information came from the outstanding work of my good friend Wayne McRoy of The Alchemical Tech Revolution. George Church is an American geneticist and molecular engineer as well as a pioneer in personal genomics. Through his Harvard Laboratory he has co-founded around 50 biotech companies. Church was born in 1954 on MacDill Airforce Base in Tampa Florida. One look at the MacDill Airforce Base logo will likely bring up some creepy Baphomet vibes. George Church is a striking looking man, with a full head of white slicked back hair, white beard framing his piercing blue eyes, he looks like a really nice Cronus.. George Church said that he met Jeffery Epstein in 2006, saying that he had six phones calls and meetings with Epstein in 2014. I am of the belief that these numbers are codes, that is why they are so absurdly specific about these things in the information that is released. In this case the "Six" may be code for the sixth day of creation, which is the day when god was said to have created man. George Church was reported to have also met Epstein "Several times" each year since 2014. When George was asked what interest Epstein had in his work he replied "I don't think he picked me. So in that sense he may not have been that interested" (81), I would beg to differ. Epstein made donations to Church's lab for "cutting edge science and education" from 2005 to 2007. Church said that Epstein's donation went to "a general account used to get new projects going before we have enough preliminary data to warrant a formal grant application" (81). Jeffery Epstein was convicted of his first sex offence related to minors in 2008, so George Church would have known that Epstein was not someone he might want to associate himself or his lab's with. In 2012, whilst Church was still in contact with Epstein, he and colleagues at Harvard University published an article which revealed that they have been able to encode digital information within human DNA. The information that was stored to a strand of DNA included a HTML draft of a 53,400 word book, eleven JPEG Images and one Java Script Program. This proved that besides other functions DNA can be used as type of storage medium, such as a hard drive or magnetic tapes. Let's remind ourselves of the Star of David/Seal of Solomon symbology of so above as below. It is my view that whilst everyone is looking for Epstein's little black book, the real kompromat that he held against some of the world's leading figures may have been stored to his actual DNA! I was the first person to suggest this in early 2025 and I believe that it is at least worth investigating. Whilst law enforcement are searching above ground for the evidence of Epstein's criminal enterprise, what they are not doing is looking underground/sea at Epstein's Island or under the soil his New Mexico Zorro Ranch. It may well be that the truth is hidden deep within Epstein's DNA itself where the likes of George Church may have been able to provide the technology to store his deepest darkest secrets. Let me be clear, I am not suggesting that George Church or his team had anything to do with this actually conduct, but we do know that they were able to prove that storing information to an individual's DNA is possible.

What better place to hide Epstein's darkest secrets than stored deep within his DNA itself?

THE CONNECTIONS to George Church and his work do not stop there either. Church is one of the founders of Colossal Biosciences Inc. This is an American biotechnology and genetic engineering company that has been working to de-extinct several animals, including the Woolly Mammoth, the Tasmanian Tiger and the Dire Wolf. I am sure you would have noticed by now that the dots connect back to Elon Musk and the 13th child that he is believed to have conceived with Ashley St Clair. What are the chances that this child was conceived on the Island of St Bart's and then named Romulus, the brother of Remus who together are the mythological brothers who founded Rome, after being raised by a She-Wolf? Colossal Biosciences Inc was founded in 2021 by George Church and billionaire entrepreneur Ben Lamm. It was Wayne McRoy who put the connections together between the second fall of Rome and the symbology of George Church using the names Romulus and Remus for the two now de-extinct dire wolves. I then connected this to the information regarding Elon Musk's 13th child and the genetic work of George Church. In 2018 Church co-founded Nebula Genomics, this is a personal genomics company that deals with whole genome sequencing. The company said that he was developing its own blockchain, giving people the possibility of having free genetic sequencing in exchange for their personal data. DNA is a personal identifier which is often used to prove the guilt or innocence of a subject in a criminal investigation. Could this be part of the cults immortality and social credit score agenda?. We know that DNA can be used to genetically replicate a persons physicality, which could be seen as a cloning process. Of course this "clone" might be a physical replica of the person but would lack that persons memories and personality, at least that is what we have been led to believe. But what if they could infuse the memories (DATA) of that original person into this new "Clone" that looks and functions like the original? Would you not have a copy of the original human? at least on the surface level. Of course this totally disregards the soul and the spirit whilst dragging humanity down to a material level, which would be Malkuth (Kingdom) on the Kabbalah Tree of Life. Simply put, this is not evolution, this is devolution satanically inverted.

SO WHAT DOES all of this mean?

It is my belief that Epstein may have been tasked with the harvesting of his victims eggs, to be used in genetic experiments that have been conducted in underground laboratories and secret facilities in places like Little St James, St Barts Island and under the surrounding oceans. The New Mexico based facilities like Zorro Ranch maybe connected via supersonic underground subway systems, the likes of which have been reported by those who have claimed to work at facilities like Los Alamos National Laboratories and Dulce Base. It is my belief that the eggs and genetic materials that have been taken from Epstein's victims may have also been fertilised by the sperm of some of the male models caught up in the sordid games of Puff Daddy and perhaps even the former CEO of Abercrombie and Fitch Michael Jeffries. Mr Jeffries was charged with sex trafficking and engaging in interstate prostitution, some of which was alleged to have taken place on St Bart's Island and largely involved males. Michael Jeffries has denied the charges and is reportedly in the later stages of dementia. I am not suggesting that the likes of Michael Jeffries, George Church or even Puff Daddy knew how deep this went, because the entire operation is usually extremely well compartmentalised and I am certainly not accusing any of them of any criminally. There is no evidence that they had anything to do with Epstein's operation at all.

I DO BELIEVE Epstein had a better level of understanding of what was going on than most, and at his level and above they know that these elements all come together to add to the transhumanist arm of a global agenda that involves the playing out of biblical "prophecies". I also believe that Epstein himself may have been a result of some of these experiments. He was raised in Sea Gate which is not far from Long Island where the Montauk Project took place and where a Tesla Tower was located. Perhaps I am completely wrong and I would like to think that I am. But until the authorities decide to take a look into what Jeffery Epstein was filling up with cement three weeks before his private island was "raided" and conduct an extensive exploration of Zorro Ranch and its grounds, then the only conclusion that I can personally come to is that Epstein was involved in genetic modification, transhumanism and cloning, which all play a role in the death cults search for the Philosophers Stone and immortality.

AS I WAS EDITING this chapter another horrific account about Epstein's abuse surfaced from the latest released of Epstein files. On January 1st 2026 the vt-foreignpolicy.com website published an article in which it detailed a written statement by a women who claimed that she had been "blindfolded, and taken to an underground location" then "raped by Jeffery Epstein and other men when she was 17 years old" (82). The women said she had been kept in a "stall so that men could look at her". The alleged victim said that they stopped in the Virgin Islands where she was blind folded and "taken to an underground location" that had "steps that went down". This information matches the fact that we know Epstein ordered a cement truck to fill in something on the island before he was raided. All in all one would hope that the authorities would at least investigate the possibility of underground facilities in all of Epstein's properties, because there sure seems to be a lot of smoke bellowing out of this fire pit, and no matter how much Donald Trump attempts to distract the world, the Epstein files and crimes are not going to go away.

CHABADDY BADDIES

The mainstream media attempt to make you believe that the Jewish faith is a catch-all label for an entire "race" of people. In fact "Jewish" is not a race at all, it is simply a faith, the same as the other two Abrahamic faith's, which are Christianity and Islam. For the background to the invention of the narrative of a Jewish "race" I would highly recommend the work of Gershom Sholem, a Jewish philosopher and historian. He was appointed the first professor of mysticism at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and is considered the founder of the modern academic study of Kabbalah. The Kabbalah is also not a catch-all term, as they are various version of the Kabbalah and even spellings which dictate different ways of interpreting the information. One of the sects of Jewish mysticism that I believe have a large influence on world politics are Chabad Lubavitch, who have their HQ in Brooklyn New York. I have mentioned this sect several times in this book already, but in this chapter I would like to concentrate on what it is that they believe, and my concern about their connections to some of the worlds leading politicians. Of course we know that these politicians are merely puppets for the Triple Crown Corporation (Death Cult) but the beliefs that they hold are most evident with the likes of Chabad Lubavitch and the Lurianic Kabbalah. Although they are currently located in Brooklyn New York, they have tentacles in countries all over the world including the UK, where they have at least 74 Chabad centres in places such as Leeds, Bournemouth, Birmingham and London. I am not suggesting that all of these groups are involved with the cults agenda to bring about their World To Come (Olam Haba) that would be silly. As I have repeatedly stated, this cult is compartmentalised to the point of extreme paranoia. I would suggest that the upper most levels of Chabad are actually Sabbatean Frankist's, but the vast majority of them are likely honest and decent people who believe in their faith. This is how the cult operates, they create a shell of well meaning individuals to hide behind and use as a Qliphoth (shell) shield that to take the flack for their dark agenda.

CHABAD Mind

The name "Chabad" is made up from a combination of the top three Sefirot on the Kabbalah Tree of Life. This is a composite of Chochmah, Binah and Da'at. These three Sefirot sit just below Keter which is the crown at the top of the Tree. The word Binah means 'to understanding' which is where I believe Elon Musk's Grok gets its name. The Grok logo is also a symbol for a Black Saturn, black hole. Chochmah, also spelt Chokmah, is the Hebrew word for 'wisdom' which is seen as Shekhinah in many Jewish traditions. Then we have 'Da'at' which is the eleventh hidden Sefirot that, as I explained in an earlier chapter, means 'knowledge' which I have decoded to mean it's anagram DATA in today's parlance. This also functions as a portal or doorway to the other side, which they call the Tree of Death.

CHABAD-LUBAVITCH is an ultra orthodox sect of Judaism. It is one of the world's best known orthodox and Hasidic movements. Founded in 1775 by Rabbi Shneur Zalman of Liadi, also known as Baal Hatanya. He wrote many works, but is best known for writing the Tanya which continues to be a source of inspiration and learning for Chabad followers today. These are followers of the Lurianic version of the Kabbalah which is why they have stationed their Head Quarters in a place called Crown Heights in Brooklyn, the crown being Keter on the Tree of Life. The fact that Chabad was founded in 1775 and what many call "The Illuminati" was founded in 1776, should not be overlooked. Here you have an extreme Hassidic sect of Judaism forming the year before the likes of Adam Weishaupt formally formed the Illuminati. At the same time Weishaupt was joining forces with the Jacob Frank (Sabbatean Frankism) and the House of Rothschild. I mean it really doesn't take a genius to work all of this out does it? This period of time was the beginning of what the dark occultist call the "opening of the gates of knowledge" to the world, so you could say it was a coming out party. Let us not forget that this is also when the bloodlines scammed the United States into believing they were "independent" from the Crown in 1776. None of this was by accident, it was a specifically timed agenda to fit in with so called "Biblical Prophecies".

THIS IS what the Chabad.org website says of that period in time:

"Meanwhile, in Belarus, in the fall of 1789, Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi began to compose a spiritual manual for the common man. Not another guide for the scholar, the intellectual, the enlightened soul. Those had all been written already. This guide was for the everyman, to discover within his or her soul the love and awe the Baal Shem Tov claimed were hiding there. (83)

He called it Sefer Shel Beinonim. We call it the first book of Tanya. The Tanya was published in 1796. In 1798, Rabbi Schneur Zalman was arrested and brought for interrogation to St. Petersburg. The charges, trumped up by his detractors: sedition, conspiracy against the government and high treason. With royal heads rolling in the streets of Paris, the Czar wasn't ready to take any chances. The rabbi was to be treated as a revolutionary." (84)

YES RABBI LIADI WAS ABSOLUTELY A "REVOLUTIONARY" in that he spun the handle that opened the "secrets" of the Kabbalah to the rest of the world. The knowledge was allowed out into the wider world but the deepest occult meanings of that knowledge and why it was being allowed out at that time was kept to a tiny few. This knowledge contributed in large part to the New Age Movement and the works of the likes of Helena Blavatsky in her teachings of Theosophy. I am not suggesting that these teachings were malevolent or evil, they most certainly were not as knowledge is neutral, but the interpretations and the reason for spreading them in this manner were malevolent. On the outside the Chabad movement appear to be a welcoming and open minded bunch and I have absolutely no doubt that the vast majority of them are a group of well meaning people who believe in what they are teaching. Like the husk of the Kelipot, Sabbateans must hide themselves within the shell of a well meaning group, they literally use it as a shield. This is why the blue lodges of Freemasonry do so much charity work. This work absolutely benefits the towns and villages they operate in, and these mostly good and decent people. It is the upper levels of the Freemasons who weaponise this as a front for their occult beliefs. So the vast majority of those in Chabad will likely have no idea what a chosen few at the top are doing behind their backs. The dark occultist at the core of groups such as Chabad and the Catholic Jesuits find joy in telling you this, encoded within their own writings. This is from the Chabad.org website, have a look and see if you can read the subtext.

"The approach of Chabad today mirrors that of the Baal Shem Tov in his time: Look past the outward person and trust in the soul deep inside. You may disapprove of everything he does, and his outlook on life may be the opposite of everything you believe. Don't argue with him. Instead, be one with him. Unconditionally. You enjoy Shabbat—enjoy it with him. You find solace and counsel in the wisdom of Torah—talk to your holy brothers and sisters about that wisdom in their own language, on their own terms. And if he or she does not change one iota, that is irrelevant. You have done your job of love. Two Jews became one and that is all that matters." (85)

IN MY OPINION it is given to us in the first line "Look past the outward person and trust in the soul deep inside". Knowing what I know, this is a nod and a wink to the Kelipot husk of the outer shell that their true agenda hides within. I know it might sound a bit mental, and it literally is, but like any cult that hides within an unsuspecting group, they have to communicate in subtle ways. The above quote implies that the Chabad follower must talk to others in a way that allows them to preach the Torah (Tulmad/Zohar) but in a language that hides the origins of the teachings. But let me be clear, I do not believe the vast majority of those in Chabad have any idea what the inner core are up to. These are my beliefs as of this writing, but ask yourself this one question: If a text tells you that the only way for the world to survive is for you to kill or cast out those who do not believe in the same god as you, then is that coming from a place of love or a place of hate? The Chabad website basically reframes brainwashing in a lovely way. Here is what they say about attending a Chabad meeting at a Chabad House:

"When you leave a typical Chabad class, you don't go away with just knowledge, you go away with a whole new way of knowing, a new pair of eyes. That's one of the main reasons for Chabad's popularity — Chabad teachers are able to provide meaningful answers to critical questions, because Chabad is all about how you use your mind." (86)

WHEN YOU LEAVE one of these meetings you are given a "new pair of eyes" and a "whole new way of knowing". That sounds a lot like brainwashing to me, and they even tell you that "Chabad is all about how you use your mind". What they are not telling you is that it is they who are using your mind not you. This is the same "mind" that has infected the likes of Vladimir Putin, Benjamin Netanyahu and Donald Trump, all of whom are deeply connected to Chabad Lubavitch in one way or another. It was Carlos Castaneda who infamously said:

"In order to keep us obedient and meek and weak, the predators engaged themselves in a stupendous manoeuvre stupendous, of course, from the point of view of a fighting strategist. A horrendous manoeuvre from the point of view of those who suffer it. They gave us their mind!" - Carlos Castaneda

ALTHOUGH PUTIN, Netanyahu and Trump are merely puppets dangling off strings held by the Crown Corporate Death Cult, they are seen as world "leaders" in the minds of the masses and perception is everything. With this in mind let's have a look at how the inner core of Chabad have gotten their claws into these three political puppets.

BENJAMIN NETANYAHU (BIBI)

Benjamin Netanyahu is the current Prime Minister of modern day Israel. Born in 1949 in Tel Aviv his father's real name was Benzion Mileikowsky who later changed his last name to Netanyahu which means "God has given" or "Gift of God". His father (Benjamin's grandfather) Nathan Mileikowsky was a writer and Zionists activist. Nathan was also a Rabbi who toured Europe and the United States making speeches supporting the political movement of Zionism. It was Benzion (Bibi's father) who became a revolutionary Zionist, which meant that he and his mob broke away from traditional Zionism believing it was too conformists to the British authorities governing Palestine at the time. Basically they were fed up with waiting for the Messiah to do something, so they took matters into their own hands. This is the mentality in which Benjamin was raised, which makes a lot of sense when you see the 70,000 plus Palestinians who have been murdered by his political party and the IDF since October 7th. Need I remind you that it was Netanyahu who propped up and armed Hamas to begin with to take over from the Palestinian Liberation Organisation. As we covered earlier, Zionism is a Rothschild created political movement, but the outer shell of political Zionism only serves to cover the more extreme inner core of what David Icke calls "Ultra Zionism" or "Rothschild Zionism". Remember, we have to keep in mind that this cult has a system and they always, and I repeat always, hide within a shell of an organisation as cover. Sometimes they hide themselves within shells of a shell of organisation which they have taken from the teachings of the Kabbalah. Before he reached adulthood Benjamin was already steeped in extreme Zionist brainwashing, and by the time he had worked his way up (allowed in) the political ladder, he was greeted by those smiling Men In Black from Chabad Lubavitch. Bibi was raised in the United States and returned to modern day Israel in 1967 to join the IDF where he served in the special forces. He rose to fame as the chair of the Likud party in 1993 where he was the leader of the opposition (there is no opposition, it is simply two prongs of the same pincer movement). He claims to descend from the Vilna Gaon who was a Lithuanian Talmudist and Kabbalist who wrote glossaries on the Babylonian Talmud. Although Bibi's claim of a DNA link to the Vilna Gaon maybe nonsense, it does reveal a deep affiliation with the teachings of the Talmud and that of the even more extreme Babylonian Talmud. This Crown Corporate death cult is really the cult of Babylon rebranded.

WITH ALL OF this madness in his mind, Bibi came into contact with the seventh (completion) and last Rebbe of Chabad Lubavitch Menachem Mendel Schneerson in 1984, shortly after he arrived in New York. This was while he was serving as Israel's ambassador to the United Nations, a stalking horse for the global death cult. The meeting between the two took place at 770 Eastern Street in Crown Heights, the same place where young Chabad followers were caught "digging" tunnels underneath the building in 2024 (87). Montauk Project survivor and Chabad supporter Stewart Swerdlow told me in an interview in 2024 that there was absolutely no way that those kids dug those tunnels, and that those tunnels had been there for a long time. At this meeting Schneerson is alleged to have told Bibi that the UN was a "hall of darkness" and advised him to "light a candle of truth" in his diplomatic mission, the Kabbalah coding is pretty surface level there isn't it. Bibi recounted this experience many times over the coming decades and said it had a profound and lasting impact on him. I bet it did as well, a visit from the Men In Black always appears to. The next publicly recognised meeting between Bibi and Schneerson was in 1988 when Bibi was newly elected to the Knesset. Whilst firmly shaking Bibi's hand Schneerson says "I am much satisfied with your first speech". Netanyahu looking like a giddy child replies "I saw and heard your message" to which the Rebbe says "May you continue in this path, God helps those who wish to elevate others, how much more so when one begins with himself " all very Kabbalah coded for the cameras. Netanyahu acknowledged the public nature of this communication between the two and then says "I intend to continue precisely on this path, I have heard the Rebbe's message well". With this in mind, I do not think it is too much of a stretch of the imagination to suggest that Netanyahu is doing exactly what he promised the Rebbe today. Netanyahu is expanding the Greater Israel Project, decimating Gaza and the Palestinians and pushing forward the Messianic madness of their beliefs. In January of 2026 Trump pledged to support Israel's attacks on Iran, perfectly inline with the Greater Israel Project.

THE LAST PUBLIC meeting between Bibi and the Rebbe was in 1990 where the Rebbe looked aged and tired. With the Men In Black surrounding him, a greying Netanyahu shakes the hand of the Rebbe who says "I haven't seen you in a long time", Netanyahu says he has "come to ask [for your] blessing and help" to which the Rebbe replies "Since we last met many things have progressed, what has not changed however is that the Moshiach has not come, so do something to hasten his coming". Netanyahu looking a little afraid says that he is "doing, we're doing" to which a clearly annoyed and elderly Rebbe replies "clearly it's not enough, since many hours have already passed today and he is still not here. But there are still a few hours left in the day, so try still for us". The Rebbe then hands over a single portion to Netanyahu which is the coding behind a one dollar bill. The encrypted message by the giving of a single dollar bill is that the individual will be given a portion in this world. If the individual is given two one dollar bills then they are promised a portion of this world and the next (Olam Haba). What was very interesting was that Netanyahu appears to have only been given one portion, and with the tone of the exchange being one of a father telling off his lazy son, I would suggest that this was a warning to Netanyahu to get his arse in gear. This is what you are seeing today in Gaza, it is Netanyahu getting his arse in gear and pushing the Messianic agenda of the Crown Corporate Satanic Death Cult that hides within all of these "shells" unbeknownst to the vast majority of it's followers. One last bit of decoding, I noticed that smack in the middle of the newly named Netanyahu family, you will find the word "Tanya" which is the name of the central book in Chabad teachings.

DONALD TRUMP (DRUMPF)

Most of his supporters believe that Donald Trump is best described as an Evangelical Christian. One look at those who he has invited into his administrations over his two terms will tell you that this is utter bollocks. Trump was always going to be put in this position (if he behaved) after he was bailed out by a group of money men who answered to the Rothschild's in the early 1980's. This was organised by the Rothschild's head of Bankruptcy Wilbur Ross who is Jesuit educated, as is Trump. Remember this cult works within the shells of all secret societies not just the Messianic arm of Judaism. Of course the internet will tell you that Trump was not bailed out by the Rothschild's, but that their representative Wilbur Ross helped arrange a deal to bail him out, so the same thing. Donald Trump's connections with Chabad Lubavitch appear to have come as a result of his daughter Ivanka's marriage to Jared Kushner. Having said that, we do know that Donald's father Fred Trump donated a plot of land where the Beach Haven Jewish Centre was built in Brooklyn. Journalist Ariel Kahana writes in an article for Israelhayom.com that Fred Trump "affectionally referred to Rabbi Israel Wagner as 'My Rebbe'"(88). This shows that Donald and his family (previously the German Drumpf) had close ties to the Jewish community in Brooklyn going back decades. During a relationship that lasted over 48 years Fred Trump would attend meetings with the Jewish community at the Beach Haven Jewish Centre each year. This centre is not a Chabad centre, but a hub for all of those of the Jewish faith to meet and discuss their beliefs. By all accounts the Beach Haven centre was a positive thing for those of the Jewish faith in Brooklyn and helped many Polish Jews who were fleeing the horrors of World War Two. Donald's daughter Ivanka converted to Judaism in 2009 just before her marriage to Jared Kushner who is deeply involved with the Chabad sect. The website thejc.com (Jewish Chronicle) ran an article in August of 2022 covering the fact that Jared Kushner had wrote in his memoir that Donald had "grilled him about his daughters conversion to Judaism" saying it was originally "questioned by her father"(89). I find that hard to believe when he has since given Israel everything they have wanted in the Middle East and had a nice Jewish prayer at the grave of Rebbe Schneerson on the one year anniversary of October 7th, swaying from side to side as those of the Jewish faith do. In April of 2025 Donald invited Chabad to the Oval Office to sign in "education and sharing day" which was created to celebrate the work of the late Rebbe Schneerson on his birthday, which was April 5th 1902. Donald Trump wrote the following on Whitehouse.gov:

"His memory remains a blessing to the world.
NOW, THEREFORE, I, DONALD J. TRUMP, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim April 9, 2025, as "Education and Sharing Day, U.S.A." I call upon all government officials, educators, volunteers, and all the people of the United States to observe this day with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities "- Donald Trump (90)

IT IS my personal belief that this alleged "struggle" to get Trump to accept Ivanka's new found Judaism is nonsense. Donald and his family clearly had a long standing relationship with the Jewish community in New York and Brooklyn going way back. But Donald needs to keep up the pretence that he is an Evangelical Christian so that the likes of Alex Jones and InfoWars can keep hoodwinking their followers into supporting Donald Trump, who is doing everything to make sure that Zionism and the cult get what they want in the Middle East. All the evidence clearly suggests that Trump is a Lurianic Kabbalists deeply embedded in the Sabbatean Satanic core of the cult. There are no borders to the cult, they specialise in infiltrating all areas of society and turning them on their heads from within. This was the modus operandi of Sabbatai Zevi when he "converted" to Islam. Jacob Frank did same with Catholicism. On another point the term "anti-semitism" is illogical as semitic simply refers to a group of languages largely Arabic. This is totally absurd when you think this actually applies to Palestinians and not those of the Jewish faith who came from Europe who largely speak Yiddish. Jews in Brooklyn largely speak English, Russian and Yiddish, though they do use Hebrew for liturgy and text. In January of 2025 Trump signed an Executive Order to combat Anti-Semitism, whilst supplying Israel with the funding to go on murdering women men and children in Gaza.

VLADIMIR Putin

Whilst Netanyahu is clearly a solidier of Chabad and Trump is fairly obvious in his allegiance to the Messianic sect, Vladimir Putin is rarely connected to them. When I mention that Putin is involved with the Chabad, the standard reply I get is that Putin is a Russian Orthodox Christian. This is why people need to understand that, yes whilst on the surface he is an Orthodox Christian this is why they are known as Crypto Jews. Vladimir Putin is known to be close to Berel Lazar who is an Orthodox Hassidic Chabad Lubavitch Rabbi who began his service in Russian in 1990. Since 2000 Lazar has been the chief rabbi of Russia and the chairman of the federation of Jewish communities of Russia, which essentially means that Chabad run the Judaism show in Russia. Born in Italy in 1964 Lazar came from a family who were some of the original followers of of the Rabbi Schneerson. Around 1992 Lazar was introduced to some wealthy businessmen, one of which was Roman Abramovich. After some digging I found out that Abramovich owns a 70 acre estate on the Carrabian island of St Barts, yes that St Barts. An article on Forbes.com published in 2022 said that Abramovich was well received by the 10,000 people living on St Barts and they would "embrace his return". Other locals are quoted as saying "The island loves him, he has only been good to the Island" (91). Abramovich has paid for local contractors to upgrade his Gouverneur Beach home, and a lady called Patrice Abderrahman who runs a local catering business says that Abramovich is a "beautiful person", talk about get yourself in with the locals. The other accounts from islanders quoted in the article give me the impression that they maybe somewhat intimidated by him. Abramovich later became a major benefactor of the Maryina Roshcha synagogue in Moscow, the Rabbi of which since 1990 has been Berel Lazar. Interestingly in 2022 Berel Lazer called for Russia to withdraw from the war in Ukraine.

ANOTHER INTERESTING FACET of Putin's connections to the Chabad Sect is that Russia currently refuses to hand over some old books that belonged to Rebbe Schneerson that have been in Russia for a while. The Brooklyn sect of Chabad argue that the books should be sent to Brooklyn where Schneerson resided for the best part of his life. They were left behind after Schneerson emigrated to the US from Russia in 1928. In 2013 Putin handed over the books to a Russian Jewish museum and now considers it a "dead issue". This would suggest to me that Putin is holding onto a few cards and doesn't entirely trust Lazar and the Chabad sect. As a child Putin wrote in his own book 'First Person' that he had Jewish neighbours that he got on well with and that his parents had a great deal of respect for. This has been embellished by some websites to suggest that Putin was raised by them, which simply is not true, in his book Putin writes:

"A Jewish family—an elderly couple and their daughter, Hava—lived in our communal apartment. Hava was a grown woman, but as the adults used to say, her life hadn't turned out well. She had never married, and she still lived with her parents.
Her father was a tailor, and although he seemed quite elderly, he would stitch on his sewing machine for whole days at a time. They were religious Jews. They did not work on the Sabbath, and the old man would recite the Talmud, droning away. Once, I couldn't hold back any longer and asked what he was chanting. He explained about the Talmud, and I immediately lost interest" - Vladimir Putin (91)

WHO AM I to say that this is not true, he may well have and still have contempt for the writings of the Talmud. He is also an astute politician that likely knows all this religious stuff is bollocks, but can see how he can use that to position himself in a place of power in the New World Order, whatever that may look like. Out of all three I believe Putin is the by far the more intelligent politician who has total control over his emotions. Don't get me wrong I think he's a total maniac, but he is in control of that lunacy which is far more dangerous than the likes of Donald Trump who loves the spotlight. Putin made a public display of his allegiance to Chabad when in 2023 he fired one of his top officials for describing Chabad Lubavitch as a "supremacist cult" (92), which I personally believe is a pretty accurate description to be fair to the guy. Russian Security Council Aleksey Pavlov was removed from his role and given another position. No reason was given by Putin for this action but it is believe that it was caused by Pavlov's comment about Chabad "The main principle of the Lubavitch Hasidim is the superiority of the supporters of the sect over all nations and peoples," Pavlov wrote. Again after studying these lot for the past few years I would have to agree with Mr Pavlov on this one. A 2018 YouTube video shows Putin being given "the tour" of Jerusalem by the Chabbaddy Baddies led by Berel Lazar, where they are explaining their vision for Jerusalem. This visit included Putins third visited to the Western Wall which is known as the "Wailing Wall" and is alleged to be the remnants of the outer protective wall of the Second Temple. The fact is there is no evidence that this wall has anything to do with a Temple on Temple Mount and there is no evidence of a second temple. It is more likely to be a remaining part of an old Roman fort. This is the same wall that the cults minions run to on their state sponsored visits to the "Holy Land", desperate to give it a lick and show their masters that they are good little cult assets.

ANOTHER LICK In The Wall

First off let's be clear, they don't actually lick the wall, they pop a prayer on a strip of paper and place it in-between the bricks. They either lean against or touch the wall, but licking the wall makes myself and Gareth Icke laugh more, so we are going with that. Other's who have been summoned to lick the wall include the current President of Argentina Javier Milei who just seems to cry at everything. Another stooge for the cult that licked the wall in 2025 was US Secretary of State Marco Rubio, who was behind the US sending the Israeli military $4bn in March of 2025 for Donald Trump. Joining these two cult assets was US Ambassador and all round genocidal maniac Mike Huckabee. This is nothing new of course, we had Bill Clinton giving it a lick, as did George W Bush and Barack (Barry) Obama. This is because the cult has owned the United States since its inception and as I pointed out in the Triple Crown Inc chapter, the Cult have always owned the United States as a branch of their global corporation. And when we are talking about the Crown Corporate cult we are talking about the nobility bloodlines who married into the banking families, the prime family of which are the Rothschilds who founded modern day Israel.

IN SEPTEMBER of 2025 the largest ever group of US lawmakers arrived in Israel for a bit of a brainwashing top up. The US sent 50 delegates, one from each state to listen to the madmen of Israel. Prime Minster Benjamin Netanyahu and Foreign Minister Gideon Sa'ar both addressed the delegates at an event called "50 States One Israel" perhaps implying that Israel is now the 51st State. Israel would probably be more accurately described as the 5th column in the US than the 51st State. The Crown Cult are having a field day watching researchers believe that the US is controlling Israel, or that Israel is in control of the US when all along it is being orchestrated by a faction of ancient bloodlines largely living in Europe running Sabbatean Frankist plays according to the Lurianic Kabbalah, mixed in with a dash of Satanism for good measure. All 50 law makers were in Jerusalem, a place that only the US and Russia actually agree is the capital of Israel, to be given the lick the wall tour. This was a gaggle of cult stooges pledging their allegiance to the cults agenda, of which modern day Israel is merely a prominent aspect. All 50 delegates took turns to plant a tree (Kabbalah Tree of Life) in Ofakim park (say that quickly). Whilst these guys don't appear to have gone on to lick the wall, the tour is all part of an initiation into the cult that if attended, will see you bumped up the political ranks when you get home. This is when the grooming process begins that will result in the signing of a black magic contract with the cult. In October of 2025 Englands very own Tommy Robinson, real name Stephen Yaxley Lennon, was invited to take the tour by member of Netanyahu's Lukid party. The founder of the English Defence League (EDL) which is described as an "extreme far-right street protest movement" was invited by Diaspora Affairs Minister Amichai Chikli of Likud. The invitation was denounced by many leading Jewish groups in the UK, many of which appose the Zionist regime in Israel. Arriving at Ben Gurion Airport, the Times of Israel reported that Tommy said he was "here to show solidarity with the Jewish people and the Israeli people"(93) . The problem with that Tommy is that many English people do not share your views. In fact most English people know that there is a vast difference between people of the Jewish faith and everyday Israeli citizens, and the genocidal Israeli Zionist government. But that's the point isn't it, people are supposed to lump all Jewish people together to create a shield or husk for the death cult to hide behind. Fortunately this scam no longer has the power that it once did, and after 70,000 plus Palestinians have been murdered by the IDF and Zionists regime, people have started to learn to separate those of the Jewish faith and the citizens of Israel from the Zionist government of Rothschild created modern day Israel that has fuck all do to with the biblical and mythical tribes of Israel...the world knows that they are not the same. Tommy was sent over because the UK Government finally agreed to recognise a Palestinian state, which must have pissed Tommy and his mates right off. Plus he had just had his legal fees paid by Elon Musk who is in the pocket of the cult.

THE TIMES of Israel article went on to quote Tommy as saying that he "Sees it as an ally, as a partner... this is a beacon of freedom and democracy, of rights, of all the things that we as British people hold dear, and all the places surrounding this are human rights violations [sic], terror states and jihad states" (94). Speak for yourself lad, I have nothing in common with those Zionist lunatics. They are simply the other polarity to the Jihad terrorists you speak often of. If you go deep enough into the cult you will find they are controlled by the same inner core. Case in point, Netanyahu propped up and funded Hamas for years. They are extremes of the same alchemical spell, and pincers of a cult that divides and polarises people, then uses them in an agenda they do not understand. As I will cover in a later chapter, they are both created by the same crown cult who use them to set the boundaries of the arena of chaos, out of which a new world can be born. Tommy's invite sparked anger amongst the leading Jewish groups in the UK because this has nothing to do with supporting those who genuinely follow the Jewish faith, as they have every right to do, but it is about conflating Judaism with Ultra Zionism and Messianism in the public's mind. Tommy is well known for focusing his campaigns on what he calls Muslim extremist, and of course in many ways he has a valid point, they do exist and as with the Rochdale grooming gangs it is clear there is a genuine issue in the UK that needs to be addressed. But to blame this on all Muslims is as absurd as blaming the IDF's genocide of over 70,000 Palestinians including 20,000 children on everybody of the Jewish faith. This is dualistic and black and white thinking which is another symbol of the chessboard used by freemasonry. I know a few people who have worked with Tommy over the years and it does seem he is genuinely upset and concerned about child grooming by Asian gangs in the UK. In fact I don't actually believe Tommy does blame it on all Muslims and he appears to have Muslim friends, and at times his words have been taken out of context and twisted to make him look bad. In many ways I believe he is a victim of the Zionist machine himself. His visit to Israel has been a strange event to watch as he appears to have been treated in derogatory ways whilst interviewing some Israeli officials on screen. All in all Tommy is a dad and a husband and it seems that he might be starting to realise that these dark occultists do not give a shit about him either. I would also just like to add that I was working with Maggie Oliver at the time that much of the Rochdale grooming gang cover up was being exposed by Maggie, herself a former Detective Constable with Greater Manchester Police. I was sitting with her and another cameraman in the back of a taxi on our way to another Television interview, when she said to me that while she agreed with some of what Tommy was saying at the time, she didn't agree with how he was using it to push a certain anti-Muslim agenda. So what is it all about? Why are the English being pushed into a civil war with Muslims by the likes of Tommy Robinson and Elon Musk?, both of whom have taken holidays to Israel at the request of those affiliated with Netanyahu. In my view all three Abrahamic faiths are being set up to destroy each other before the Crown corporate death cult's new world is ushered in. Some call it Olam-Haba, others call it the New World Order or the Messianic age or even the Golden Age of Saturn. It is all the same thing, and I don't believe that any of the Abrahamic religions are supposed to get a special seat at the table. The Abrahamic's are a trinity of elements being used in an alchemical marriage to create a one world religion. In the next chapter I would like to explain my theories as to why I think this is.

The mainstream media attempt to make you believe that the Jewish faith is a catch-all label for an entire "race" of people. In fact "Jewish" is not a race at all, it is simply a faith, the same as the other two Abrahamic faiths, which are Christianity and Islam. For the background to the invention of the narrative of a Jewish "race" I would highly recommend the work of Gershom Sholem, a Jewish philosopher and historian. He was appointed the first professor of mysticism at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and is considered the founder of the modern academic study of Kabbalah. The Kabbalah is also not a catch-all term, as they are various versions of the Kabbalah and even spellings which dictate different ways of interpreting the information. One of the sects of Jewish mysticism that I believe have a large influence on world politics are Chabad Lubavitch, who have their HQ in Brooklyn New York. I have mentioned this sect several times in this book already, but in this chapter I would like to concentrate on what it is that they believe, and my concern about their connections to some of the world's leading politicians. Of course we know that these politicians are merely puppets for the Triple Crown Corporation (Death Cult) but the beliefs that they hold are most evident with the likes of Chabad Lubavitch and the Lurianic Kabbalah. Although they are currently located in Brooklyn New York, they have tentacles in countries all over the world including the UK, where they have at least 74 Chabad centres in places such as Leeds, Bournemouth, Birmingham and London. I am not suggesting that all of these groups are involved with the cults agenda to bring about their World To Come (Olam Haba) that would be silly. As I have repeatedly stated, this cult is compartmentalised to the point of extreme paranoia. I would suggest that the upper most levels of Chabad are actually Sabbatean Frankist's, but the vast majority of them are likely honest and decent people who believe in their faith. This is how the cult operates, they create a shell of well meaning individuals to hide behind and use as a Qliphoth (shell) shield that to take the flack for their dark agenda.

ARMAGEDDON OF THE BRAIN

Putting the information for this chapter together has been perhaps the most challenging of the book for me. This is because the entire scenario of the biblical armageddon can be manipulated to function in three parallel realities at the same time. I know this sounds ridiculous, but what I mean by that is that the same scenario is set to take place in our 3D reality, but can be perceived in a trinity of different ways, depending on which one of the three Abrahamic religions you subscribe to. Let me be clear, I am not suggesting that the Old and New Testaments and the much later Quran were purposely written to be literally played off against each other in this way. But that I am suggesting that when it comes to the Armageddon showdown, this is the chaos that can be caused when all three world views collide and I believe that the death cult have recognised this. This concept stands inline with something called Narrative Transportation Theory (NTT) which describes the psychology of a person or group who have become so immersed in a story that they become detached from reality. It is my belief that NTT can be applied to anyone who takes these biblical fables and mythologies as literal. Also keep in mind, I am not a believer in any of the three Abrahamic religions so I hold no card in this game, I think it's all bollocks. The best way I can explain it is like this.

IMAGINE you and two others are all about to play a virtual reality game called Armageddon. One of you is Christian, another is Muslim and the third person in the room is Jewish. You all put on your VR headsets and strap on your sensory bands, so that the game feels as real as it can. As soon as the Armageddon game boots up you all start from different locations in the same VR World, and you are all given one mission: Get to the mountain, destroy the bad guys, Create a New World. All three of you are shown the same AI controlled main characters that you will interact with during the game. What you are not told is that these same main characters are given different roles in each version of the story, depend on your religious point of view (perspective). You are all looking at exactly the same characters but the commentary and narrative that you are being fed through your headset makes it seem that the good guys from one perspective are the bad guys from the other players perspectives. The twist is that none of you are told this before you start, and you are advised that one of the aims of the game is for the others to convince you that your version of the "truth" is a trick of the devil. You are programmed not to trust each other from the outset. If you are still following me, then we can begin the game.

REMEMBER your aim is to get to the mountain for the final battle of Armageddon and defeat the "bad guys" and create the New World. What none of you have been told is that all three of you have been fed different perspectives on what is supposed to take place at the final battle. And what's more, all three of these perspectives interact with each other so that only chaos reigns supreme. The actions of the main characters will make sense to all three players initially, but they will mean completely different things to you all, depending on your perspective (religion). This is what I call Armageddon of The Brain. This can be seen as a multiverse virtual reality experience that plays on the perspectives of each of the three gamers, these are called the Abrahamic's.

PLAYER 1: Christian Programming (Christianity)

Player 2: Muslim Programming (Islam)

Player 3: Jewish Programming (Judaism)

So ARE you ready players 1,2 and 3? Then Let the Chaos begin...

WHILST THIS IS NOT an exact science I do not believe it needs to be. There is enough crossover between the three Abrahamic religions main characters during the end times, that the vagueness of it acts as an essential ingredient that holds the chaos together. It is from this chaos they these dark occults can decide on what order they provide to you depending on how they need you to react. The sad reality is that all three players (religions) in the game are being played off against each other, by the Satanic death cult in the shadow. Allow me to give a quick example:

IN JUDAISM, Jesus is seen as a teacher but not a prophet, and certainly not the Son of God. In Christianity, Jesus is seen as the Son of God and the Messiah who saves the world. In Islam, Jesus is called Isa and is seen as a prophet, but not the Messiah, and his role is to help the Muslims defeat the Anti-Christ, who just so happens to fit the description of the Messiah in the Jewish faith (who is not Jesus remember)

SEE....MIND fuck! Imagine the confusion at Armageddon.

THE ANTI-CHRIST

This one is absolutely fascinating, and how it is not abundantly obvious to those who are able to take a balanced view of the three Abrahamic religions is beyond me. So, the Anti-Christ in christianity is the opposite of Jesus, he is either an individual figure who apposes Jesus at the Armageddon event, or the collective of those who do not believe Jesus to be the son of god. From the Islamic perspective the Anti-Christ is called Dajjal which translates as "the deceitful messiah". Muslims believe Dajjal to be an evil figure that will emerge before the day of judgement and pretend to be the Messiah. This will surely piss off the Christians who will automatically see this being as the Anti-Christ as well. Then we switch our VR headsets to the POV of the Jews, they will see the Dajjal as their actually true Messiah who acts as the charismatic leader of the Jews. This will be a physical person here on earth who's arrival will be seen by 150,000 Jewish zombies who will rise from the dead when his "feet will stand on the Mount of Olives east of Jerusalem".

JESUS/ISA

From the POV of the Christian VR headset the man descending from the clouds is absolutely 100% Jesus Christ, the son of god. Whilst the Christians are looking up in amazement at the man in white floating down from the clouds, those wearing the Islamic VR headset are thinking "here he comes, old Isa to help us kill off the Anti-Christ". Once his feet touch the ground I am guessing there will be a moment where all three religious tribes are waiting for their given outcome to take place. Those wearing the Jewish VR headset (plus 150,000 zombies risen from the dead) may think this character is either a false prophet or Armilus, a monstrous anti-messiah figure.

THE Mahdi

Inside the Islamic VR headset there is another apocalyptic battle that takes place north of Israel in the land of Magog. This would be during the reign of the final caliph, the Mahdi. The Mahdi is a sort of like the Pope of Islam. What is absolutely fascinating is that the Mahdi is expected to turn up riding a white horse and wearing a crown. I know what you are thinking, that sounds an awful lot like the first horseman of the apocalypse in the Christian Book of Revelations!...and you would be right. From the Islamic perspective this Mahdi is expected to be joined by Isa/Jesus as they gang up on the Dajjal who is the Messiah to those of the Jewish faith.

TRINITY TRAUMA

As I said, this is not an exact science but in my view the utter confusion of three different perspectives being led into a singular moment in time, where they all expect some of the main players to do something different, will be a playground of chaos and confusion. When all three players in this VR kabbalah drama are standing on the mountain, all hell will break loose and it will be an Armageddon of the brain! No-one will truly know what the hell is going on. My gut feeling tells me that this will result in one of two outcomes. Either they will all annihilate each other or they will all be so shocked and confused that they will simply freeze, unable to act at all. Then they will be left helpless as the death cult takes them all out in one go. This Armageddon of the brain is a basic alchemical spell, where you take three opposing forces and clash them together to create the chaos from which a new world order can be born. This is what psychologists call "triangulation" but in this case all three points in the triangle (religions) are being played off against each other by something higher up that is watching over them, perhaps the evil creator god? I know that those of the Jewish faith do not have a clear concept of an actual event called Armageddon and that those of the Islamic faith call it The Greatest Battle. Yet when you look at the Messianic timeline you can see where all three of these perspectives could come together at a single crossroads in time. In fact the writers have given themselves a seven year window in which this event could happen. It is my belief as I sit here writing this on the 31st October 2025 (yes Halloween) that all three Abrahamic faiths are being set up to take each other out by the Crown Corporate death cult who are at their core Satanists. On a human level I do not believe these three religions were designed to be played off against each other, at least not in such a concrete way, but I do believe that the death cult have seen that there is an opportunity here for this end times event and are now pushing the world towards it. What we must understand is that all three religions want to shape this new world in their own image. By this I mean that all three have a vision for how this new world we play out and what the global populations role in it will be. Because of these we simply have three different versions of the future that can be played off against each other, which is how alchemy works.

3 NEW WORLDS

Before we look into all three of these promised outcomes of the "end times", let's just take a second to realise that all three of the Abrahamic religions require the others to be either killed off or banished to a burning inferno for the rest of their days for not believing in their version of god or for not abiding by a set of given rules and regulations in the new world. If this is the case then all followers of the three Abrahamic religions are cognitively deciding to skip over the bit where their god is a raving murderous psychopath! The fact is that Christians are taught that non-believers will go to hell if they don't sort themselves out before the Messiah returns. Muslims believe the same in that everyone will be sent to hell if they do not convert at the end. Those of the Messianic Jewish faith were a little smarter in that they hide their intent in the small print at the bottom of the contract. This small print goes a little something like this. Gentiles who refuse to follow the 7 Noahide Laws will "not get a share in the world to come" which means they will be killed off or locked out of the transhumanist Smart Grid that is being built around us as we speak. Yes, people are still buying into the nonsense in the year 2025?! Let's have a look at what these "new worlds" are promised to be like for those who believe each of the three Abrahamic religions.

CHRISTIANITY

The Christian version of the new world is a dream like utopia which stirs up images of a perfect place where no evil exists, nobody experiences sickness, illness or even death. Straight away we get into the theme of Immortality in this physical world. These are the generic themes across the board, there are many arguments about what the Christian heaven will look like within the faith itself. In fact all three religions don't seem to be able to agree on what this new world will be like within their own faiths, which is a bit hilarious really. This Christian version of the new world order is described as "a new heaven and a new earth" which is a term that has found its way into Christian tinged New Age books such as Eckhart Tolle's 'A New Earth'. During the one thousand year reign of Christ all things will be fucking lovely, Satan will be bound, the earth will be restored and even animals will take on another form, whatever that means. At the end of this period, Satan is let out to stretch his legs for a "little season" before finally being defeated, which will usher in the time of the final judgement of all. Most Christians hold on to the notion that this does not lead to total annihilation of the earth, which is comforting, and that a restoration and renewal of earth will commence. God will now live on earth with all of humanity, well all those who haven't been brutally murdered during the seven year tribulations that is. The world will return to an Eden like environment where someone is bound to eat from that fucking tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil and kick it all off again. But the best bit is we are going to get a New Jerusalem (because the IDF has probably obliterated the old one by then) which will float down to earth in the shape of a solid white or golden cube. In this massive cube the redeemed will live in perfect harmony with god. But what becomes of those who have not been "redeemed" ? Well, they will be sent to hell because...well do unto others as you would have them do unto you, and stuff! As a side note, this hell maybe in the form of a black cube, which is symbolically represented in the biblical text as the Land of Nod or the City of Enoch.

ISLAM

The Islamic version of the new world goes a little something like this. After what they call The Greatest Battle, which is essentially Armageddon, we see similar outcomes to the beliefs of the Christians. It will be a time of peace and abundance, but in this version of the VR Abrahamic game, this time of peace and abundance will take place under the leadership (rule) of the Mahdi, who is a bit like the Muslim Pope but looks like the first horseman of the apocalypse, arriving on a white horse and given a crown. How bloody confusing is this going to be for the Christians when this fella turns up on a pale white horse wearing a crown (or given a crown) and the followers of Jesus have been programmed to believe this Mahdi is actually the first horseman of the apocalypse. The Muslims will be saying that this is their Mahdi who has come to help the Christian Jesus, who the Muslims call Isa, to defeat the Anti-Christ who is actually the Jewish Messiah. What a crap bag of chaos hey!

AFTER THE GREATEST battle those of the Islamic faith expect to have the world to themselves. Remember this is not an exact science, but it is close enough for tennis if you know what I mean. After a period of peace, which is clearly the one thousand years of the Christian Messiah and the Sabbath of the Jews, it all kicks off again for the Muslims. This correlates perfectly with the Christian concept of Satan's little season. After it has all kicked off again, instead of all Muslim believers spending eternity with their version of god Allah here on earth, it is said that a fragrant wind will blow from Yemen causing all believers to die peacefully, WTF! Only the wicked non believers will be left alive on earth. Then idolatry, disobedience and hedonism will return and the Quran will be taken back to Allah (I hope he kept the receipt) with no-one left to remember its teachings. Then the Sun will rise from the West at which point it will be too late to repent. Then if that isn't enough the Beast of The Earth will speak to people making them believers or disbelievers. Then a massive fire will erupt from Yemen driving the last people to their final place of gathering, then here comes a fella's with some trumpets which will signal the death of everyone who is left. This is then followed by a resurrection on the Day of Judgement (Yawm-al Qiyamah). In the end the Muslim outcome is a slow moral decline into a state of disbelief before the world comes to an end. It sounds like they are just making this shit up as they are going along doesn't it.

JUDAISM

After that bit of good news from the Islamic perceptive let's see what Judaism has in store for the post end times new world, which they call Olam-Haba. This version of the VR Armageddon game takes those who have chosen the Jewish avatar to Olam-Haba, which kicks off with the resurrection of the dead, zombie style. 150,000 Jews will rise from the dead on the Mount Olives with refined bodies, one of these guys will be Robert Maxwell who is buried there. This will include the return of Jews to the land of Israel, which by then will probably include Scunthorpe in England. Instead of the duo of the Mahdi and Isa (Jesus) the world will come under the rule of the Jewish Messiah who will come from the line of David and be real physical person here on earth. This is where it all connects in with the black nobility, Noah, Adam, Solomon, Jacob/Israel, Jesus and the Mervian holy grail legends. The important part to remember is that in the Jewish version they believe in immortality in THIS WORLD and NOT the afterlife. Although there are somewhat diverse beliefs on what happens when you die, the Jewish faith concentrates on Olam Haba being a place on earth. This is crucial to understanding how the transhumanist agenda plays into the end times scenario. The seventh Chabad Rebbi Schneerson said "our job is not get to heaven but to bring heaven down to earth"(95). So orthodox and even mystical Judaism is not so much a death cult, as it is attempting to live forever in this world but in "refined bodies". But they are being used by a Satanic cult that has hijacked that belief and connected it to transhumanism and technology. What is also interesting is that in a system of polarities there are two schools of Jewish thought on Olam Haba. One view is that this immortality takes place in this physical world, the other states that the soul (Spark) does return to the God head but the purpose of that spark falling to the 3D Earth realm was for it to upgrade itself for when it returns to the God Head. In the physical world version, once all the Jews are gathered back to Israel and the third temple is built and the dead have crawled out from their graves on the Mount of Olives, these true believers will live here on earth with their Messiah. You can clearly see here how Christians have been duped into helping to build the Jewish Olam-Haba as the New Jerusalem, or Zion which is that massive white/golden cube I mentioned earlier. The new humans accepted into the New Jerusalem will be able to perceive other levels of reality that will merge with this one. Basically they will be able to see the "gods" that we used to be able to see before the flood. This is what is meant by the demons hiding in the shadows, they have hidden themselves beyond the visible light spectrum for now. In my opinion this new human will be the transhuman model that the likes of Elon Musk, Ray Kurzweil and George Church are working towards. This is how the Chabad.org website put it:

"In other words, Rambam holds that after the Resurrection of the Dead, people will still die and inherit their ultimate reward in the World of Souls. The other authorities maintain that after death all souls abide in the World of Souls until the Resurrection, at which time they are finally enclothed in a body and in that state are granted their ultimate reward" (96)

THE NEW BODIES that these resurrected souls will be "enclothed" in will be the transhuman shells of Human 2.0 and Human Enhanced models. Yes they actually believe that those Jews who have already died will be returned to their physical bodies. As I mentioned a moment ago, Mossad agent Robert Maxwell (father of Ghislaine Maxwell) was buried on the Mount of Olives. So if the future isn't fun enough we will have a zombie Robert Maxwell wobbling about, hopefully clothed this time. In 2024 and 2025 Chabad stooge and US President Donald Trump repeatedly used the phrase "golden age" as a catch all term for his new version of the United States. This is because he is pushing this Satanic agenda which will lead the world back to Saturn. Saturn is the first sphere of seven in the Rosicrucian conception of the Cosmos and the place they believe we return to after the seven spheres are completed. Researcher Wayne McRoy suggests that the transhumanists and technocrats are attempting to hijack humanity as it moves towards the next stage of evolution (Jupiter in the Rosicrucian cosmo conception) and plug us into what Rudolf Steiner called "The Eighth Sphere" which is the world of shells. This could be seen as the equivalent of the gnostic conception of the Matrix or a digital shell that I would say is today's Smart Grid and internet of all things.

WHAT WE MUST REMEMBER IS that this is our world not theres. This beautiful place, whatever and wherever it might be was a gift to all of us, and none of this has to happen. The world to come will not be for us, it will be an Indian cast system, so dystopian that George Orwell could write a library about it. Authors and researchers such as David Icke and Jordan Maxwell have spent decades exposing how the festival of Saturnalia was the foundation for today's Christmas festivities, and philosophers such as the Neoplatonist Porphyry of Tyre saw Saturnalia as a festival of liberation who's purpose was the "freeing of souls into immortality". Saturn is all about inversion, everything this cult claims to stand for is turned on its head, and this is what the promise of a new Golden Age will be. An inverted hell hole ruled by these Messianic lunatics. All of this is only made possibly by creating chaos in the human mind...The Armageddon of the brain.

Here abandoned in my fame
Armageddon of the brain
KGB was doggin' me
Take my name and just let me be
Then a begger boy called my name
Happy days will drown the pain
On and on and on it came
And again, and again, and again...
Take my name and just let me be
- Michael Jackson (Stanger in Moscow) (97)

TO CONCLUDE, I am not suggesting that this was the purpose of the three Abrahamic faiths and the Armageddon narrative, I think that is taking the conspiracy way too far. What I have laid out in this chapter is an example of how these conflicting yet interacting narratives could be weaponised against well meaning human beings when they begin to put aside their humanity and believe others to be less human, simply because they have different beliefs than them. Regardless of your religion, race, creed, political leanings and background we are all human beings trying to figure this strange place out, isn't that what religions are all about anyway? My personal view is that religions, beliefs, theories, systems, law, rules and covenants are at their heart all attempts by human beings to answer the big questions. These being, what are we doing here? why are we here? where do we come from? and where do we go when we die? Perhaps we will never know whilst we are on this level of reality. Perhaps these mysteries are the only things that are truly immortal to human beings? One thing I know for sure, is that these are not questions that we should be killing each other over, that is insanity.

THE QUANTUM COVENANT MAN

One of my favourite researchers through the years has been Jordan Maxwell, unfortunately I never had the opportunity to interview Jordan and he has since pass onto the next realm, wherever that might be. From a young age all the way up until his dying day on the 23rd March 2022, Jordan dictated his life to exposing the darkest secrets of this global death cult. Everyone who does this work today owes a lot to the work of Jordan Maxwell, among many others such as David Icke, whether they know it or not. These men wedged open the doors of investigation when they were sealed so tight that barely any light could get in. It is because of men and women such as Cathy O'Brien and her husband Mark Phillips, as well as the likes of Bill Cooper, Henry Makow, Christopher Jon Bjerknes, Tracey Twyman, Jim Marrs, Max Igan, Dean Henderson, Robert Temple, Dr Robin Kelly and yes even Alex Jones back in the day, that I am able to do this work that I have so much passion for. Jordan Maxwell concentrated much of his research on exposing the inner workings of the Catholic Church, specifically the dark corners of the Vatican and its links to the cults of Babylon and Mesopotamia. As I outlined in the Triple Crown Inc chapter, the Vatican functions as the main hub for the religious aspects of the global death cult. By this I do not mean just Catholicism and Christianity, I mean that at the very core of the Vatican I believe there exist's the same Satanic death cult that controls the military through Washington DC and the legal and banking worlds though the City of London. This is what I have described as the Triple Crown Corporation under which many subdivisions fall, such as Political Zionism.

THE GREAT DIVIDE

The mainstream understanding is that the Roman Catholic Church split into two in the year 1534 when King Henry VIII declared himself king of England. Old Henry did this because the Pope would not grant him a divorce from Catherine of Aragon. This is the same fella who went about lopping off the heads of his ex wives later on, so an annulment was a pretty sweet deal for Catherine. Because the Pope at the time refused to grant Henry his annulment simply because he didn't fancy Catherine anymore, Henry split from the Catholic Church and in 1534, with the help of parliament, he declared himself the head of the Church of England. That's a pretty decent day at work by anyone's standard isn't it?

ALTHOUGH THE ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH had suffered minor splits earlier on, this was the first major divide. It is my belief that these divides are for public consumption, in that the cult knows that it has to divide itself at some point to provide the illusion of "choice" to those who are starting to figure out that what they have for sale is nonsense. So in 1534 Pope Clement VII and Henry VIII had a pretend fallout (see Musk and Altman) so they had an excuse to divide and form their "oppositions" based on the same text. I believe they always intended to bring the two parts back together when the time was right. It was Jordan Maxwell who first brought this to my attention when he explained what he called the "Contract" between the Vatican and the King of England in the Middle Ages. Jordan explained that the Pope called himself the vicar of Christ. The word vicar in latin means "someone who stands in for someone else"(98). Jordan explained that today we call this person the Pope. According to the Vatican conception, god created the whole heavens and the earth, and then gave the earth to Jesus his son to look after. But for now at least Jesus is not about (part timer) so someone else has to look after the place for him, and that would be the caretaker manager that is the Pope. But that's a big job isn't it and as Jordan says "he is very busy and he doesn't have time" so he needed a little help. This is when Jordan says the Pope "made a contract between the King of England and the Papacy, when the Pope set up the whole world in a trust and gave it to the King of England to look after". At this time the people who were known as English became known as British, a word that comes from a combination of the Hebrew word Barith (Covenant) and Ish (Man) so this is how we get the name British, meaning Covenant Man or Man of The Covenant. Jordan explained that everything we do in business is based on contracts and I am sure that you have noticed by now that your birth certificate is really a contract, because it is really your Barith certificate. Your Barith certificate sets up a corporation in your name spelt in all Capitals, this corporation is owned by the Crown. You are not your corporation, but you are responsible for running it. In this way it seems to me that everybody is essentially employed by their own company to earn money for the Crown. Now what was it that the Anunnaki are said to have created human beings for ? oh yes it was to toil the land so that the Igigi didn't have to do it. The Igigi were a faction of the Anunnaki who were fed up with doing the hard graft by then.

MOVE FORWARD in time to the present day, October 2025. This month saw an historic event when it comes to the organisation and structure of the Christian church. The current king of England, King Charles III met with Pope Leo at the Sistine Chapel inside Vatican City, where fittingly under the watchful eye of Michelangelo's 'Last Judgement' the Pope said "let us pray" (99). Both fella's then did a little prayer together which was nice. This was the first time in 500 years that the King of England, who is head of the Church of England, prayed alongside the head of the Catholic Church. The Pope was dressed in Red whilst the King wore a blue tailored suit, this symbolised the coming together of the polarities of red-shift and blue-shift, it was an alchemical wedding. It was all a bit weird, with the king's wife, who's title is the 'Queen Escort' (I prefer a Ford) following behind her slightly hunched over husband, wearing all black which was perhaps a nod and a wink to Queen Victoria who wore black for the rest of her life after her husband Prince Albert died in 1861. Albert was the fella Victoria built that massive stone pyramid for in the woods surrounding Balmoral Castle. So there's been a covenant between the Roman Catholic Church and the Church of England going back at least 500 years, and I believe this connects into the principles of quantum entanglement...allow me to explain.

ALWAYS TOGETHER, Never Apart

What we need to remember is that these dark occultists have known about the nature of reality for thousands of years, this was the information that was passed down through the ancient mystery schools and was the birth (B'rit) right of all of us. We know that the Hebrew word B'rit or Barith means covenant so this was a covenant that the "gods" made with all of humanity, and this knowledge was supposed to be available to us all. This was when the ancient mystery schools were infected with a virus that has spread its way through the centuries, a mind virus that some called Wetiko. In Quantum physics the term quantum entanglement is described as a phenomenon where two or more particles become linked in such a way that they share the same fate. So when a nucleus (religion) is born into this world and is then split into various factions and sub religions, all of these fragments and factions are forever interconnected through quantum entanglement. What one fragment of that religion does will effect the other and this cannot be undone, this is a secret that I believe these dark occultist knew when they split the Christian church in two, creating today's Catholic Church and the Church of England. I will take this even further still, we know that many of the mythologies and characters found in Christianity, Judaism and Islam are based on much older stories from Babylon and Mesopotamia. If we apply the quantum entanglement theory to this, then these original beliefs and religions are quantum entangled within all three of the Abrahamic religions, which are then quantum entangled with each other. What is done to one version of the religion affects the other, because they are birthed (Barith/Covenant) out of the same nucleus which are the stories that inspired the Old and New Testaments. So when the Christian church was divided into two "separate" churches, those who understand how this reality works knew that no matter how many times they divided and subdivided the church, they would always be connected to each other and share the same fate. You could even call this a hive mind, as they were all born out of one mind.

ALBERT EINSTEIN CALLED this "spooky action at a distance" which is phrase I absolute love (100). The maniacs who conducted the MK Ultra mind control experiments for the CIA also knew about this, that is why they experimented on identical twins. My research has also led me to some information about how human cloning could produce the same effect. If your entire cellular makeup is literally copied to another vessel (clone) then what they physically do to that clone will be felt by the original physical body. This is also the principle belief behind the use of Voo-Doo Dolls by those who practice the dark side of witchcraft, or black magic. This principle is also found in the understand of so above as below, or the law of correspondence. All of these understandings are saying the same thing, because they themselves are quantum entangled by the original idea. Author David Icke often writes about the holographic nature of reality, as does author Dr Robin Kelly in his books The Human Hologram and The Human Antenna. I have been fortunate enough to work with both men over the past several years and their sense of wonder and exploration about this strange reality is refreshing.

THE HOLOGRAPHIC HUMAN

I first met Dr Robin Kelly back in 2019 when I was producing my Glitch In The Code podcast as an independent content creator and producer, that's a posh way of saying I had no friends who would work with me on this weird stuff. It is now over six years later and I still consider Dr Robin Kelly one of the most genuine and kindest souls I have ever met. I got to spend a few days with him in New Zealand back in 2020 just before the Covid bollocks kicked off when I went with Jaymie Icke to film the documentary Unnatural, which you can find on ickonic.com. We actually filmed a seven part series with Robin whilst we were there called The Holographic Human, which is also available on ickonic.com. I have used Robin's original songs in some of my films including Plugged In with Richard Grannon, who is one of the leading minds in the field of Narcissism and Cluster B personality distorters.

DR ROBIN KELLY writes in The Human Hologram that "The notion that we live in a virtual reality as a hologram in a holographic universe has gained some scientific and mathematical support over the past decade. By studying fluctuations in the energy patterns of outer space, researchers have theorised that our universe consists primarily and fundamentally of fields of information (structure). It is thought the power of our observation, through our sense, that this information manifest itself as the four dimensions we experience here on earth". Many will see this reality as consisting of 3 dimensions but physicists include time as the fourth dimension, while the fifth dimension is seen as the Aether or as David Icke describes it, plasma. It was the twin slit experiment that led the way for the phenomena of quantum entanglement to be largely accepted. I remember watching an old DVD presentation by Dr Wayne Dyer who said "if you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change" and this has forever quantum entangled itself in me. Dr Robin Kelly describes quantum entanglement as "a state of instant togetherness independent of time and space" which is bang on in my opinion. The creation of nanotechnology has shown that quantum entanglement does occur as part of the process of living. We see a variation of quantum entanglement in the behaviour of bees, more commonly known as the hive mind. This hive mind is called the Akashic Records in the new age community, a term which was introduced to the world by the likes of Helena Blavatsky and Rudolf Steiner. The word akasha is a Sanskrit word meaning Aether, sky or atmosphere. This is what David Icke calls plasma and some scientists call dark matter. Dr Robin Kelly also points out in The Human Hologram that fractal geometry has backed up the evidence that this universe and everything in it contains patterns, this is why journalists and researchers such as myself see them everywhere, because they are the formation everything.

AS I AM WRITING this it has occurred to me that quantum entanglement might be why the cult uses specific numbers to code what they are doing. I wonder if this coding acts like a paper clip, combing certain events together that collectively contribute to a specific outcome and agenda? The number Seven is a classic example of this principle, it is often awkwardly slotted into mainstream articles when given specific numbers from certain events that push the agenda of the cult. The number six is often used in conjunction with the Zero, examples of this can be found in the 600,000 alleged letters in the Torah (including white letters) and the 600,000 sparks that Kabbalists believe represent the scattered sparks of the original soul of the nation of Israel. We also have the 600,000 "men on foot" that the bible claims were led into the desert by Moses as they escaped from Egypt, alongside women and children and a host of animals. According to the book "The Bible Unearthed" by Israel Finkelstein and Neil Asher Silberman, no evidence of any sort has been found of these 600,000 able-bodied men who followed Moses into the desert for forty years (101). These 600,000 able-bodied men were joined by their wives and children which would have numbered in the millions, all tracking across the desert. In regard to the number 600,000 I have also seen this same principle used with the numbers 60,000 and 6,000 because the Zero represents the off phase of their binary code. My take is that these numbers combined with the intention of the user link these events together in the quantum world, at least that is what the dark occultists believe. The events of 9/11 are also a classic example, with those specific numbers linking the events to the alleged sacking of the first two temples in Jerusalem. The biblical Revelations 9:11 is when Abaddon is released from the bottomless pit, and Donald Trump was the 45th and 47th US President, making him the 9/11 President. It is my view that these dark occultists believe these mathematical numbers link all of these events together in the quantum world. Do they see the bible as a numerical code that if followed unlocks the path to the future that seek to create? Like it is some sort of mathematical equation that when correct gives the outcome that their god promised?

SO BACK TO my initial topic regarding the Christian Church "splitting" itself in two, these two newly created parts will always be connected and entangled together so that what one does affects the other. They are twin flames and quantum entangled in the quantum realm, in accordance with the principle of "so above as below". The original building blocks of the Abrahamic religions were forged out of the melting pot of ingredients of much older religions and mythologies. With this in mind it makes total sense that on a quantum level these three Abrahamic religions carry the DNA and DATA (Da'at) of those original "gods" and belief systems. In this case we could ask if this is the way that these gods have learnt to survive? Have they hidden themselves deep within the DNA of modern day religions, which are forever quantum entangled to each other, slowly creeping towards their one world order. You could see modern day belief systems, including the new age, Kabbalah and even Gnosticism as all quantum entangled with the Abrahamic's because they are made of the same stuff. That is not to say that some recipes are not more advantageous to humanity than others (by their fruit you will know them) but it does mean that what happens to one affects the other on the quantum level. Those initiated into the ancient mystery schools knew this and that is why they were so careful with what they contributed to on a sub conscious and conscious level. Does this come down to the main quantum entanglement of all, that we are all connected to each other as well as the Matrix itself, because we are made of the same stuff? its an interesting topic to bounce around your mind.

THE CORNERSTONE

When the Freemasons begin construction on a new building they conduct a certain ritual before laying the foundation stone, or cornerstone. I now believe this is because, at the top level, they understand that everything that will be built from this foundation stone will carry the DNA or Data (Da'at) of the original stone that is placed inside the blueprint of the building. I believe they have to purify that stone from the Data that it has carried over, from its past, so that when it is placed down it only carries the required set of information into the rest of the building. A description of a cornerstone in terms of Freemasonry says "The cornerstone is the first stone laid in a building's foundation, which determines the position of all the other stones. In Freemasonry, it symbolises the importance of unity and harmony in the fraternity". The words are important here, they always are as they are a vibration, "unity and harmony" tell us that these architects know that they are creating a new entity from the energies around them, they are alchemists. The standard explanation for the ritual is that it is a spiritual metaphor representing the inner temple of the mason, which on one level it is. Go deeper and you will see that the inner temple and the outer temple are now quantum entangled, forever connected to each other. Each freemason is encouraged to become a cornerstone in their own community, stable, strong and setting a good example to others. I have no doubt that this is absolutely true for the vast majority of freemasons, but at the top levels they know that they will be hijacking that energy and using it for their own nefarious agenda. The lower level mason will likely have no idea that the energies that he is working with are about to be used and abused by those that they have put their trust in.

THE ORIGINAL MASONRY (before it became free-masonry) taught skilled builder masons the power of shapes, size, time, colour, sound and vibration. This knowledge was stolen from them, mixed in with some weird Satanic stuff whilst inverting their intended use. Instead of building the world around them, Freemasonry became a cult of destruction and then rebuilding into a new order of things. Only the upper levels of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry and the York Rite will know that these prime materials have been infected by the quantum energies of Satanism. What if you found out that everything positive that you thought you were doing was actually negative on a macro level, and contributing to the prison planet these lunatics seek to build? How much courage would it take you to step back, and disentangle yourself from that Quantum mess?. What if you believed that you would have to pay for your "sins" in the next life, when your god Saturn/Cronus/Death/Old Father Time came knocking at your door? Would you jump at the choice to stay here on earth for as long as possible? A place where, although you know you have done some pretty shitty things to gain your wealth and status, you at least know where you stand. Or would you choose spiritual enlightenment and take your chances at redemption and look death in the eye?. Would you fly like the Pegasus (winged horse) of the City of London's Inner Temple, which presents spatial transcendence, or would you choose to stay in this reality, uploaded to a HDD that is stored inside the newly built temple in Jerusalem? I know it sounds mental, but this appears to be the choice that these dark occultists are facing. Either they have their riches in this world and have to pay in the next, or they get to stay here forever, quantum entangled in the mess that they continue to make, falling deeper and deeper into hell on earth. It doesn't have to be this way, but in my opinion their unwillingness to accept and admit they were wrong is dragging us all down with them if we do not stop them soon.

A HOLOGRAM ON A PEGASUS

The entire premise of this book is about untangling the mess that these dark occultists have created over thousands of years, in a way that is understandable and relatable. Most of all this book is about expanding the scope of the conversation about what the death cult are up to. As I wrote previously, these guys are terrified of death and they actually despise and hate the god that they worship, which is why they give their life to pleasing him. They see their god the same way that I do, as an evil creator god. Except the cult fears him, and I think he's a bit of a bellend and a bully who is somewhat like the wizard in the deeply occult movie The Wizard of Oz. So is it any wonder that they want to stay here forever and live inside a Qlippoth shell where they can hide inside the machine? Another aspect of the agenda appears to be about inviting this entity in our world, perhaps to trap it inside a quantum computer where it will be controllable.

WHEN YOU RESEARCH mystical traditions such as Buddhism and the Kabbalah, they all have the common theme of transcendence. Unfortunately this can mean that you are forever trying to ascend to place where you will be good enough for the evil creator god (daddy). I have written about the Triple Crown Corporation which consists of the City of London, The Vatican and Washington DC. The City of London can be broken down into three distinct areas, which are the Outer Temple, Middle Temple and Inner Temple. These all surround Temple Church that still stands in the city today. This circular church appears to be a sovereign entity of its own, thus not belonging to the City of London. It is run by the Inner and Middle Temples, and was once the operational centre of the Knights Templar. The City of London does not own the Middle or Inner Temples which are independent enclaves with their own special rights. It was King James I who granted these rights to the Middle and Inner Temple in 1608. One of the main symbols that you will come across as you walk around the Middle and Inner Temples is the Pegasus, or winged horse. I would highly recommend the YouTube channel of swilliamism, he has done some great work over the years (102).

After a few years away he started making videos again and much of this information about the Pegasus can be found in his video 'London's Masonic Village'.

THE PEGASUS or winged horse is said to have been forged out of the neck of Medusa, and appeared after a chap called Perseus cut her head off. The Pegasus then lifted up to a place called Helicon, where it became a symbol for virtue and creative inspiration, according to the freemasons of the Inner Temple. One belief about the use of the Pegasus as a symbol for the Inner Temple is that it came from the crest of the Knights Templar. Some say that the wings came from a misrepresentation of the Knights shield. In the Inner Temple the Pegasus is often featured standing at the centre of the sun, this "sun" maybe the sun we know today or it may well be the dark sun Saturn or perhaps it is a representation of Sirius? The swilliamism Youtube Channel says that the Pegasus is a symbol for mans spiritual ascendance, with the feet of the Pegasus on the ground whilst the wings lift the horse upwards towards the sky. This theme of transcendence is forever at the core of these belief systems. The fascinating thing about the cult is that they want to transcend human "limitations" of the mind and body, yet stay here in this material world in a new refined body. This could also be seen as corresponding to the principle of so above as below, and the Chabad Lubavitch aim of bring heaven down to earth. It may correspond with breaking the veil between two dimensions, so that which resides in the 4th dimension is allowed into the 3rd dimension. This could mean that these new refined bodies are empty vessels that are designed to house an entity from beyond the veil? Could it be that the global cult are terraforming our natural environment through 5G and nanotechnology so that it is habitable place for entities from another dimension? I would like to take us back to chapter 3: The Techno Magicians and expand on the concept of uploading your "mind" to the cloud. This process of uploading your mind to a computer server connects in with the research of Michael Talbot and his fascinating book The Holographic Universe (103).

THE WHOLE OF The Hologram

Michael Talbot discuss the work of two of the worlds most eminent thinkers: University of London physicist David Bohm who was a protege of Albert Einstein, and Karl Pribram, an author who was also a neurophysiologist at Stanford University. Tablot wrote that these two men came to their conclusion entirely independent from each other, though as we will see nothing is really independent of anything else and the dark occultists know this, even an idea that is ready to be born. When they play the polarities off against each other to create a new order of things, they know that ultimately these two ends of the spectrum are always interdependent and connected to each other.

IT WAS the work of David Bohm that resonated with me most in that he spoke of the interconnectedness of all things, and I do mean all things. In the double-slit experiment it was proven that light and matter both have wave and particle properties, which were affected by the observer. Bohm took this even further when he introduced the terms "implicate" and "explicate", the two terms refer to a deeper reality (implicate) and our manifested reality (explicate). Michael Talbot uses the terms "enfolded" and "unfolded". My understanding of this is that the enfolded position is the hidden state of all potentiality, and the unfolded position is how it reveals itself in our reality. If you envision an ocean of water that can manifest itself into any shape it likes (a tower or a tree) the ocean must have the potential within it to manifest these shapes. Once the shape has been manifested it can go back into the ocean and out from that same body of water another shape can appear. So this ocean must contain all the potential of everything, and it does because as David Bohm posits, everything is connected and one. To put it another way, the universe will give you what you expect to see but in doing so it does not forfeit its potential for giving you something entirely different, because all is held within (enfolded). A classic example of this concept is the character The Sandman in the Spiderman movies. He can manifest into any shape he likes and then just as quickly he can shape-shift into another or return to the state of sand on the floor.

DAVID BOHM DID NOT SO MUCH SEE our reality as holographic because he believed that this implied a fixed rigid image. He instead used the term "holomovement" (104) because he believe that everything is always in a state of flux, dipping in and out of the ocean of all potential. Before we move on, perhaps we should just quickly go over what a hologram is and how it works. A hologram can be produced by splitting a single laser light into two separate beams. The first beam is bounced off the prime object that you want to make a holographic "copy" of, and the second beam is allowed to collide with the reflected light of the first beam. This interference patter is then record on holographic film, To the naked eye the image now recorded on that film will look nothing like the original prime object. But when the film is illuminated with another laser you will get a 3D image of the original that you can move around and observe. This copy image will be hollow, thus a holo-gram. This is absolutely fascinating and will have implications on what I will be talking about later in this chapter when It comes to uploading your "consciousness" to the cloud. So what we have here is an information field that has recorded all angles of the prime object but it has no real substance, meaning that you cannot hold it. This will become highly relevant when it comes to the poor souls who are tricked into thinking they can upload themselves to the digital cloud.

WHAT I LOVE about David Bohm's work, that is so well explained in Michael Talbot's book, is that he gets that everything is quantum entangled and they although things can appear to exist individually, they are always connected to each other. This is also represented in the saying "so above as below". A Hologram therefore can be cut into infinite halves and each part will be a smaller version of the whole, this means that in each part of the hologram there is contain the information of the entire thing. It was Karl Pribram that applied this principle to human memories and found that it explained why memories appeared to be distributed rather than localised in the brain. If all the cells in a persons body contains all the information (memories and experiences) that happen in a persons life, this would explain why people who have been abused can recall long lost memories. This may also have huge implications for storing ancestral memories within the DNA of a bloodline. To go a step further, does this mean that is a clone is made from the DNA of a human being, it carries over the memories and experiences of that person to the clone? We know that the human psyche will purposely lock away some memories so that the individual does not become stuck in trauma. But the holographic principle tells us that these memories are never gone, and in fact they are recorded on the holographic film of every cell in your body, and passed onto every new cell that is created going forward. This would also make total sense of epigenetic memory and tie into the concept of the Monarch Butterfly and its use as a symbol for the MK Ultra mind experiments. The New Age call this the Akashic Records or the Hall of Memories. The Akashic Records will probably conjure up the image of a heavenly library where all the information is fixed forever in big old books on massive shelves. But if we apply David Bohm's holomovement theory to this, that would mean that these books are constantly being updated, like a massive database in the sky. Sounds like something Peter Thiel's Palantir might be working on. I will come back to this in a moment because this is incredibly important when it comes to the "downloading" of a consciousness from the digital cloud. If our reality is indeed holographic then William Blake summed it up perfectly with his famous poem:

To see a world in a grain of sand
And a Heaven in a wild flower
Hold Infinity in the palm of your hand
And eternity in an hour

IF OUR REALITY is holographic then it must contain the Data (Da'at) of everything within every part of it. And if it is a hologram then we have to ask ourselves what is it a hologram of? or to put it another way, what is it a copy of? This is where the Gnostics teachings come into play because they taught that we live in a hacked or bad copy of an original prime reality. This would also give the term "hollow earth" a new twist, in that the hollowness of this place would come from the fact that is a holographic copy of something more substantial. It would look the same to the untrained eye, but for those with the eyes to see they would know that it is an empty version of something much more fulfilling. I bloody love this stuff!...

IMMORTAL OR TRAPPED FOREVER?

I am not saying that we definitely are in a bad copy or knock off version of a prime reality, but let's just say that the Gnostics got it right for a moment and we do live in a bad copy of a prime reality. In this case I would suggest that what these Techno lunatics are offering with the "Techno Rapture" is the uploading of the data or the knowledge of you to the cloud, but not the essence of you (soul), which always returns to all possibility. If this is true then what is it that the cult will be downloading in say 300 years time? Is it really you or a hollow copy of you? Would this "you" be a physical shell that looks exactly like you, that comes complete with your memories and personality (Data stores in your DNA) but is really a synthetic shell that is being animated by an entity from another dimension posing as you? Is this a kind of techno-possession where your soul vacates your original body and an demonic entity is given a free ride in a cloned body that looks exactly like you, which comes complete with your memories and personality traits (DATA) but is not you at all? Could we be seeing this happen today with politicians and world leaders who appear to have had a personality transplant over night?

IF WHAT DAVID BOHM is saying about the holomovement of all things is correct, then this fake you might still be quantum entangled with the authentic you that has moved on from this reality. Could it be that what this cult does to your downloaded clone copy here in this reality would affect you in the next reality? Sort of like some inter-dimensional voodoo doll. Is this a way of keeping the authentic you tethered to this realm, so that in someway they can still affect and control you even after death? David Icke's Nature of Reality books series, The Trap, The Dream and The Reveal detail how he believes that we are not only living inside a holographic simulation of a Prime Reality, but that when we die we go into the next realm which is also another level of the simulation. From there we are tricked into coming back for another go here in this dense 3D world where entities like the Archons can feed of our low vibrational energy. So again, I ask the question, if these transhumanist buy into the notion of uploading themselves to a digital cloud in order to be downloaded sometime in the future, are they living forever or are the half trapped in this world, forever tethered to their clone copy? These are all mind bending questions and not statements of fact, but the entire purpose of what I do is to try to get into the minds of these madmen to find out how they think and perceived the world so that we can stop them. Remember none of these things have to be real possibilities for this death cult to kill millions if not billions of people trying to make them happen. If you think they are not that insane, remember they believe 150,000 dead people will rise from their graves in refined bodies on the Mount of Olives when the Messiah returns to kick off the end times.

DAVID ICKE QUOTES Danish theoretical physicist Niels Bohr as saying "everything that we call real is made of things that cannot be regarded as real" (105). The 3D world is made up of length, width and height which are all measured within the 4th dimension which is time. Think about it, how do you know how long something is, or how wide something is, or even how high something is? you measure it by how much time it takes to navigate it. Either via your physical movement or approximation made through the time it takes for your eyes to scan all the information. So it makes sense that this 3D world of length, width and height are governed by Saturn who is the time lord, and lord of the rings. These 'rings' can be seen as the circular movement of the sun, or the planets as they dance around each other. These cyclical motions can be seen in the rings of a tree, which can tell you its age. The are the hands on a clock as it displays the time of the day, or the wheel of the Zodiac as it tracks the seasons of the year. Another version of this is quantum entangled in the concept of the Ouroboros, also known as the ring-pass not. The Ouroboros is often depicted as a snake eating its own tail, which implies that it will consumes itself over time. It represents the continues loop of time and eternity, and to the Gnostics it symbolises the trap that humanity finds itself recycled back into after death, a continues loop of the life-death cycle. You could also apply this to the breathing out and collapsing back in of the universe, represented by the devouring of its own tail to the point of fully disappearing. Another example are the seven spheres of the Rosicrucian Cosmo Conception which start at Saturn and end with Vulcan, looping back round to start at Saturn again. I would suggest that these technocrats are not going to live forever once they upload the holographic data version of themselves to the cloud. I believe that what they have done is trapped themselves in this earthly realm, which they will model on hell not heaven. Remember what the seventh and last Chabad Rabbi Schneerson said "Our job is not to get to heaven, but to bring heaven down to earth".

THE CULT LEAD sad lives because they want to try to keep a world of flux and constant flow from changing and everything changes, life is change. They want to control everything and to know what is going on at all times, because they are afraid. They are afraid of the one thing that will always be, which is the unpredictable nature of change. They want to connect you to the smart grid, and track and trace you with their everything app because they are terrified that you will figure them out and then their game will be up which will mean a change in the order of things where they will no longer be at the top of the pyramid. They even want to trick you into uploading your mind (whatever that means) to the cloud, so that they can control you even after your physical death. These sad people want to control everything because they are terrified, which is why they hide within the shells and husks of organisations, using them as layers to hide themselves from you. They come from a place of fear far beyond what most of us feel on a day to day basis. In fact they are swimming in the information field of fear 24/7 under the watchful eye of their time lord Saturn and the Archons who feed off them. Or at least they believe they are and perception is reality. Whenever I feel like were are not getting anywhere in terms of stopping these half wits, I remind myself that if they could just take over and control all of us they would, but they can't control us outright so they have to trick us into complying. In this way it is all an illusion, it is all a magicians trick and we have the power to collapse this holographic image back into it's base form, from which we can create something better for humanity. The only constant is that nothing is constant. and that everything changes, so row your boat gently down the stream whilst these lot try to make the water flow in the direction they want it to go in. This cult fights everything, it fights the nature of reality, it fights death, it fights to keep secrets and it fights every decent human being on the planet...that sounds like hell to me.

No REST For The Wicked

Beyond all the labels, names, secret society symbols and factions this global death cult is simply Satanic. This means that everything they do is about inversion, so it makes sense to me that once a poor soul has fallen for the upload scam, or the Christian "Techno-Rapture" then where they will be going will likely be the complete inversion of the place that was sold to them. Angela Thornton is a researcher at the Horizon Centre for Doctoral Training at Nottingham University in the UK, which is partner with the Carboncopies Foundation that claims to conduct advance research for whole brain emulation. This is how they describe their mission on their website Carboncopies.org:

"Whole brain emulation is a technological protocol that may someday be able to reverse-engineer a biological brain in order to functionally emulate its neurobiological processes on a different substrate (or "platform"). Emulation will be done in a way that will generate the cognitive experience that was achieved by the original brain" - (106)

WHEN YOU READ through the description of what these lot believe we humans can and cannot do it is pretty obvious they already believe machines are better than us. They claim that our "retrieved memories are constructed approximates" which is totally dismissive of the holographic universe concept that all the information is store in the parts of the whole. This is clearly a transhumanist corporation that believe material things to be the only reality, when all of those material things came from the mind initially. The website goes on to say:

"The machines we design are able to upgrade and advance. Outcomes and experience with a computer program can improve simply by running it on a better processor. Unfortunately, the biology of a brain is not equipped for back-ups or fundamental improvements" - (106)

THIS IS COMING from a materialistic world view and completely dismisses the concept of a consciousness and its interconnected and quantum entangled relationship with the universe. These are left brain individuals who see things in parts, not as a holistic whole. The fact is they have no idea what being alive really means, but that won't stop them trying to play god. They make this pretty clear when they say:

"The positive implications of whole brain emulation are profound and wide-ranging. They include accelerated neuroscience research, developments in artificial intelligence, and consequent applications in clinical neuroscience and neurological medicine. For this reason, our vision is not just to achieve whole brain emulation, but to do so as soon as possible, with many beneficial outcomes along the way. The sooner these technologies become real options, the better the odds that generations alive today can benefit" - (106)

NOW THERE'S a sentence that says nothing whilst trying to sound like it's profoundly saying something, even their blurbs have no soul. To be fair they are probably lovely people but the left brain cognitive dissonance is stunning to me. The left side of the brain deals with format, structure, materialism, fixed perspectives and rules. Mainstream science, in fact mainstream everything, is all about tapping into this side of the brain whilst dismissing the right side of the brain which deals with intuition, creativity, and knowing. The inventions of these types of minds will be outgrowths of the left side of the brain, so in reality they will be almost robot like by default. Angela Thornton is quoted as saying in an article on dazeddigital.com that "we have to make the assumption that the "mind" (i.e. the abstract part of us that thinks, remembers, imagines and senses) naturally emerges from the structures of the physical brain" (107). But it doesn't, the brain processes ideas, concepts, intuition and imagination from a source outside of the brain. The human brain is simply the CPU that process the incoming information, not the origin of that information. What these guys will be creating is not a creative mind, but a product of a limited mind that see's creativity as something you can quantify and hold, which again comes back to their desperation to control everything. If you are looking to control something and coming from that heart space then what you create will be encoded with that vibrational energy, it will be a controlled, cold and heartless creation. I am sure Angela and all of those who are involved with the Carbon Copies Foundation are lovely people with the best of intentions, but they simply need to realise that they cannot control everything, their fear of being out of control is driving them slightly mad. What they will likely create is what Wayne Mcroy calls the "world of shells" which fits in with the Lurianic Kabbalistic concept of the husks or shells that conceal (trap) the spark of light that they say comes from the prime soul of Adam Kadmon, before he exploded all over the place.

AS I HAVE DESCRIBED in the Moonchild section in Chapter 9, this carbon copy of your data (Da'at) will contain all of your thoughts, memories and experiences, and will be stored in a Homunculus type shell that the Kabbalists call a Qliphoth. You could think of this in terms of the RoboCop movies, where officer Murphy is shot to pieces whilst on a raid. His brain is then taken from the body and placed inside a shell, as the first ever robotic man cop hybrid. The fascinating thing is that in the movie he begins to start having flash backs of memories of his previous life when he was just Alex Murphy. If you have been unfortunate enough to have fallen for the fake Christian Techno-Rapture or were convinced into joining Sam Altman by uploading your mind via Netcome to the cloud, then you might find yourself waking up inside a Qliphoth of your own one day. The really fancy models will likely be reserved for the black nobility bloodlines or the demonic entities that seek to find a way into this world. Even if what I am saying is utter bollocks, do you really fancy chancing it by signing up for these services?

REMEMBER THE PEGASUS, it had its feet on the ground firmly in the earthly realm, whilst its wings attempted to carry its soul off into the heavens. The Pegasus could be seen as a symbol of the fact that those of the Inner Temple are not really trying to ascend but attempting to bridge the gap between this world and the next. Would you really want to become a vessel for that? I mentioned in Chapter 9 that they want to hijack the Stargate that is the human being, so that they can use your creative soul to tap into the world beyond the veil, in doing so you may end up with one foot in the astral and another in the 3D realm, or in other words no mans land. A place where you may become stuck, never able to rest your tired mind because you are being used as a conduit for the cult. I doubt they would mind if you to became a hologram on a pegasus, a hollow version of yourself with your feet in this world, whilst your soul gets stuck half way between heaven and earth, in purgatory. This is the place that the biblical Cain was said to have been banished to, a place that the esoteric believed had no central sun, which meant that Cain had no way of knowing what direction he was going in. If you choose the cults hacked and holographic version of immortality what you will likely get is not immortality at all, for you are already immortal, what you may become is trapped. The sad and heartbreaking reality is that we are not supposed to stay in this realm forever. My dad died over around a year ago now, and I was there to hold his hand when he left his body. I was holding his hand when he opened his big blue eyes, which were huge in that moment and he was absolutely looking at something, something beyond me as I sat directly in front of him. As he left his body I saw him fade from his eyes, something went somewhere. As I write this I am pretty sure he is watching me now and I cannot put into words how much I miss him. I for one cannot wait to see him again, whatever that might mean. But I know that I have so much more work to do here but I go. One thing I already know is that I am already immortal, yet the nature of that immortality is supposed to change because we are change, we are vibration, we are flux, we are alive and always will be. I will always cry a tear for my dad of course I will, and in many ways I wish he was here in the form that he was for 43 years of my life, but I also know that I am quantum entangled with him, as are my sons Ollie and Arthur with me. In fact we are all quantum entangled with each other, distinctly separate whilst eternally one.

AS I AM EDITING this chapter on the 15th January 2026, I have spent the day recording two new shows for Ickonic.com with David, Gareth and Jaymie Icke. In one of the shows we answered a question from one of our subscribers that touched on the topic of meeting good people within the after life stage of the trap, if the gnostics are correct and this is a trap. I commented that the only way I would feel trapped would be if I was separated from the ones I love and want to be with, the surroundings are secondary. I am me wherever I might be, and wherever I might be I hope those I love are there with me. This is all I require to be free.

TEMPLE TO TEMPLE

Over the course of this book I have tried to build a picture of what I believe to be the overall plan of the death cult in terms of its obsession with Immortality and it's plan for humanity within that new world order of things. I realise that at times I have repeated myself but that is the nature of the beast when it comes to dot connecting, everything connects together so you find yourself taking the scenic route at times. One dot leads to another and then back round again, so whilst I have tried to keep the information flowing forward, forgive me if I have had to repeat some of the information along the way. Now that we have most of the puzzle pieces in place, I think it is time that we head to the temple on Temple Mount find out what this madness is leading us to.

TEMPLE TANTRUMS

The Temple of Solomon was said to have existed between the 10th and 6th Centuries BCE in Jerusalem, sometimes called the first temple. The fact is, no evidence of this temple has ever been found. The same could be said of the alleged second temple, although many religious Jews will argue that the Western Wall is proof of a second temple. I would politely disagree with them, it appears to be the remains of an old Roman Fort. The original Temple is said to have been commissioned by King Solomon before being destroyed in the seize of Jerusalem by Nebuchadnezzar II. The name Solomon can be broken down into three words (Sol-Om-On) that some researchers say represent the Sun. The biblical Book of Kings, gives a detailed breakdown of the construction of the temple, including its length, breadth and width. The Temple was said to have been 90 feet long, 30 feet wide and 45 feet high, and even had a fancy porch on the front, everyone likes an extension don't they. In biblical terminology the temple was six cubits long, twenty wide and thirty high. The lowest floor was five cubits, the middle floor was six cubits and the third floor was seven cubits. Here you can clearly see the Kabbalah codes with seven being completion and the three levels also correlating with the Outer, Middle and Inner Temples in the City of London, that surround the main Knights Templar temple. The biblical Book of Kings goes on to say:

"11. The word of the Lord came to Solomon: 12 "As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, observe my laws and keep all my commands and obey them, I will fulfill through you the promise I gave to David your father. 13 And I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon my people Israel." - New International Version

IT DOESN'T TAKE TOO much of an imagination to see how this same "promise" is behind the building of this new artificial intelligence beast system being put together by the likes of Elon Musk, Peter Thiel, Anthony Levandowski and Ray Kurzweil. The fascinating part of this for me is that this "god" promised to live amongst the Israelites, which I believe to mean that it will be housed inside the third temple. If we bring this madness up to date then is it too much of a stretch to believe that these Messianic loons are going to put the main CPU and servers inside the actual temple itself? so the beast really does reside inside the temple in Jerusalem. At the back of the gaff was a square room which they called the Holy of Holies, only the High Priests were allowed into that room to communicate with their god on Yom Kippur, which is their day of atonement for their sins. This is also the day when a scapegoat was used to take on the sins of the Israelites which was then sent off into the wilderness carrying these sins. In 2024 Donald Trump's son posted an image of his dad on Instagram showing Donald looking at his reflection in a mirror with his head replaced by that of a goat wearing a red tie. Most Kabbalists have been conned into thinking that the red string they wear around their wrists is to ward off the evil eye, the sad truth is that they are marking themselves as a scapegoat for the cult. Those seen wearing this red string include Tucker Carlson and Jared Kushner.

"19 He prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of the Lord there. 20 The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar. 21 Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold. 22 So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary" - New International Version

IT IS my belief that the Ark of The Covenant, if it existed at all, was some sort of technology that opened up a portal that allowed those who could use it (without frying themselves) to communicate with this so called "god". At this point I think it is crucial for me to point out that even if the Ark of The Covenant never actually existed, that would not stop a cult that believed it did from creating technology today which did the job that they believed the original Ark was designed for. None of this has been based on any real physical truth for them to use it as a blueprint for their agenda today. In fact as of this writing I think the entire Old Testament was an incredible work of fiction put together by King Josiah (640-609 BCE) the 16th king of Judah, and those who worked for him, as a back story designed to unite the divided kingdom of Judah and Israel at the time. For the background to this incredible story of how the Old Testament came about I would highly recommend the book 'The Bible Unearthed' by Finkelstein and Silberman (109). Following the mythology created by King Josiah and his merry men to the present day, it does not take too much of an imagination to connect Solomons Temple with the work of CERN in Switzerland, which some researchers believe to be opening up a Saturn Black Hole to another realm. The symbology of these Saturn Black Holes can be found encoded in the logo for Elon Musk's Grok. The word Grok means understanding, which is Binah on the Kabbalah Tree of Life. The entire inside of Solomons Temple was covered with gold, which is funny when you realise this is exactly what Donald Trump is doing with the Oval Office, which makes sense since he is being influenced by Chabad Lubavitch for the cult. The Bible says that Solomon took seven years to build this new temple, which again is completion in Lurianic Kabbalah and mysticism as I have detailed in chapter 8 Kabbalah Countdown. The common belief is that the destruction of the first and second temple were all part of the fulfilment of biblical prophecies. Jewish tradition says that both temples were destroyed on the 9th day of Tisha B 'Av, This is where most people get a bit lost and that is not by accident. The Jewish faith have two moon based calendars, they have a Civil calendar and a religion/ecclesiastical calendar. So on the Civil Calendar the month of Av is the 11th month of the year, whilst on the ecclesiastical calendar Av is the 5th month of the year. So in terms of understanding the encoded symbology of these events you have to realise that 9/11 happened in conjunction with the Jewish Civil calendar.

"Av (also Menachem Av, Hebrew: אָב, Modern: 'Av, Tiberian: 'Āḇ) is the eleventh month of the civil year and the fifth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar. It is a month of 30 days, and usually occurs in July–August on the Gregorian calendar" - Google search

WHAT ARE the chances that the events of September 11th 2001 happened on the same day that the alleged first two temples in Jerusalem were also sacked according to the Jewish civil calendar. It was clearly a freemasonic, satanic and messianic occult ritual with the twin towers representing Jachin and Boaz, the two pillars that stood outside the original Temple of Solomon, and can also be found outside every freemasonry lodge the world over. This is because the upper levels of the freemasons, both York Rite and Scottish Rite believe themselves to be the modern day Knights Templar. The first temple was allegedly burnt down by the Neo-Babylonian "four hundred and seventy years, six months, and ten days after it was built", which I am sure means something mystical. The connections do not stop there. US President and Chabad stooge Donald Trump was elected both the 45th and 47th President of the United States of America. You add those numbers together and you get $4+5=9$ and $4+7=11$, thus he is the 9/11 President, it is all scripted decades in advance. The most mind bending part is that the Old Testament, according to 'The Bible Unearthed' was actually a back-dated script written to give the kingdoms of Judah and Israel a past they never had. Whilst these future events and written years before they actually take place to coincide with the mythological patterns of events that never actually happened in the past. The entire thing is a scam, from bringing to middle to end, and still people are dying all over the world because of this madness.

I APOLOGISE if I have already said these things but sometimes it needs to be repeated with the context and sequence of new information, this is how the spiderweb of the global death cult is woven. I believe all of these events are quantum entangled with each other because these dark occultists understand how to program reality, and what the freemasons call the "force" is encoded within numbers, symbols, letters, sounds and signs. So it is clear to me that 9/11 was a masonic ritual that had nothing to do with Islamic extremists flying planes they had no way of being able to fly. In the Biblical text this all relates to Revelations 9/11 which is where Abandon crawls out of the bottomless pit. Author and former Freemason William Schnoebelen writes in his book 'Masonry Beyond The Light' that "In the degree of the Knights of East and West (17th) in the Scottish Rite, there are many unwholesome and evil teachings, but we will cover only one. As Jah-Bul-On is the sacred name of the Royal Arch Degree (York Rite), so there is a "Sacred Word" In the 17th degree as well. This name is Abandon"(110). Abandon is another name for Apollyon with both names meaning "destroyer", this is the 9/11 President Donald Trump. Now does it make sense why Trump would fund the genocidal lunatic Benjamin Netanyahu on his path to flatten Gaza and kill tens of thousands of Palestinians? We have to be aware that these occultists have infiltrated and in some cases founded many of these religions. William Schneobelen writes that "Masons are on a quest for light. But it seems they have done everything they can to detour around Jesus". In some beliefs Lucifer (who the Christians despise) is known as the "Morning Star", whilst Jesus is known as the "Bright And Morning Star", both of which represent Venus. So it is clear to me that we are looking at the dark-side and the light-side of the same being. Again it comes back to duality and alchemy, we know they control both sides of all dualities and polarities, because they own the chessboard and they make up the rules of the game. And the entire despicable game is based on a castle of sand built upon the foundations of bullshit.

WILLIAM SCHNOEBELEN'S book 'Masonry Beyond The Light' is a fascinating insight into the reality of freemasonry and would highly recommend his book. In the book he writes that "In the Royal Arch Degree, the centrepiece of the York Rite, the candidate is taken through a drama in which he supposedly enters a chamber beneath the ruins of King Solomon's Temple during the time of the return of the Israelites from the Babylonian exile. Within this chamber, he and two companions (we all need mates) discover the Lost Ark Of The Covenant. On top of the Ark is a golden plate upon which is engraved the "Grand Omnific Royal Arch Word". This word is Ja-Bul-On, a composite of Yahweh, Baal and the Egyptian sun god Ra, allegedly. William doesn't have a problem with the Yahweh bit, but is a bit pissed off about the inclusion of Baal (Lord) and the sun god On. Once you study the look of the Temple of Solomon, it is pretty obvious where you will find your local freemasons. Even here where I live in a seaside village in Norfolk England, it is pretty clear that our local gym and central restaurant/bar is a freemasons meeting point. The front of this building even has Jachin and Boaz, as well as some other pillars in the carpark, each with the globe on top. One thing that did make me laugh was that the entrance ramp that goes into the bar area and up between the Jachin and Boaz is exactly the same as the ramp going into Solomon's temple, except that one is for wheelchair access. I wonder if that's an original? I actually sat outside that building with two mates and showed them the wikipedia image of the Temple of Solomon and held it up next to the entrance way, it was exactly the same. Even then one of my mates refused to believe it and dismissed the glaringly obvious connection by saying, perhaps that was just the best way to build back then, the building in my village was built in 1795. Going back to the "original temple" this building served as a place of worship and assembly for the Israelites. According to biblical mythology the purpose of the temple was to store the Ark of the Covenant, which appears to have been some sort of technology that allowed the High Priests to have a chat with their god, or chief demon. It is my belief that the "ark" of the covenant is really an arc of electricity that energetically allows for the opening up of a portal. The "covenant" part of the name comes from the promise that god made to Noah never to flood the world again, which has led many Christians to believe the world will be consumed by fire next time, which is nice. Freemasonry claims that although the temple of Solomon is central to their rituals and beliefs, it does not represent a physical temple but is a metaphor for spiritual growth, although many are fully behind the building of a third temple in Jerusalem. My take is that it means both, which is often the case with anything occult, as everything ties together. From freemasonry, knights Templar, Chabad Lubavitch, Lurianic Kabbalah, Satanism and the Abrahamic religions. It is my belief that they are all quantum entangled into a physical Temple of Solomon, because they are built upon the foundations of the same narratives, and narratives are the foundation of every world view.

MORE CUBES And Hexagons

In his book 'The Trigger' David Icke writes that "These messianic crazies of the Sabbatian-Frankist Death Cult (Satanism) want to impose their 'world ruler' on the throne of Jerusalem on the site of a rebuilt Solomon's Temple"(111) . In The Book of Ezekiel the character Ezekiel has a "prophetic vision" of a New Jerusalem that will follow the building of a new temple in Jerusalem. The temple will sit within a new messianic kingdom which would also be the meeting place of all the twelve tribes of Israel. In The Book of Revelations in the New Testament this city is called The New Jerusalem or Zion. In Jewish mysticism there are two Gardens of Eden and two Promised Lands. One is in the heavens and is invisible to the naked eye. This heavenly one is outside of our visible light spectrum thus over the rainbow. The other promised land will be here on earth, which is what the Christians call the New Jerusalem or Zion. This is supposed to appear in the sky as a huge white or golden cube, that will gently float down to earth. Each one of the twelve tribes of Israel will have their own gate to enter when they arrive at the walls of the city of the New Jerusalem.

THIS NEW JERUSALEM is describes as being a white/gold glorious cubed shaped city that descends from the heavens, measuring about 1,400 miles all round. Inside this cubed city it will have streets of pure gold (Wizard of Oz) and be illuminated by the "glory of god" and not a Sun or a Moon. This glory appears in some descriptions in the form of a rainbow, thus connecting in with the Noahide Laws and the symbol for the visible light spectrum. When I look at the description of this city all I can think of is the housing for a quantum computer which is often cubed shaped. Inside the cubed casing, which is said to protect the processing power of the quantum computer, we have what looks to me like a bee hive, or a hive mind. If you look at Googles quantum AI computer it is blatantly a bee hive. Bee's are well known for their incredible communication skills, where the entire hive of bees are pulled inline by the resonance sent out from the Queen Bee. The British Royals are absolutely fascinated by bee keeping and the Fleur-de-lis in occult traditions is said to have been based on the image of a bee. This is why the Merovingian bloodline use the bee as a sacred symbol which was also the scared emblem of Egyptian Royalty. The Merovingian's are said to have been magi who believed in the hidden powers of the honeycomb, this was because the honeycomb is naturally made up of hexagonal prisms. So is it any wonder that today's quantum computers look exactly like a honeycomb? Remember the Hexagram is the six pointed Star of David/Seal of Solomon and at its centre you will find the Hexagon which is a shape that dark occultist use to cast spells (Hex) on their enemies. This was also the belief of King Solomon himself whose ring was engraved with the seal of Solomon, the six pointed star that you will find on the flag of Israel today. The ring of Solomon was said to have been used by King Solomon to conure up demons so that he could communicate with them and use their powers. All of this makes me wonder if the New Jerusalem is not just an analogy for being uploaded to a quantum computer, which would be a hive mind honeycomb of gold, incased inside a white cubed structure? I also think Christians and Jews should keep in mind that this Satanic death cult that use and abuse both religions invert everything, so that white cube of the New Jerusalem could in truth be the black cube of Saturn.

AT THE CENTRE of this city will be the newly built Temple of Solomon. So i ask, is this temple going to be a physical temple in todays Jerusalem that functions as the broadcaster receiver of a network of mRNA fed nanotechnology, that wires your mind into a honeycomb quantum computer that is encased inside a large black cube called Zion? This quantum computer would then be placed inside the newly built temple on Temple Mount in the New Jerusalem. The New Jerusalem that descends from the sky could actually be a digital cage that acts as a restricted zone. A sort of 15 minute city within a cube.

PERHAPS I SHOULD BREAK that down a poem:

Inside the great white cube of Zion
Sits a small black cube for the mind
Inside that small black cube sits a honeycomb
Made of gold that transmits to the blind

From the third temple up on the mount
It broadcasts to the rest of the world
Beyond the 12 gates of New Jerusalem
These new humans are living in hell

Born plugged in to the mainframe
Neuralaced to the mind of a ghost
Barely alive yet still breathing
The new human is simply a host

They tore the veil between worlds
And now what a folly unfolds
The Messiah was also an evil man
And now it's been given a home.

I AM NOT sure if that helped at all but it was fun to write, and hopefully it at least built a picture in your mind of what I am still trying to piece together myself. I am not saying that I have this down to an exact science, nobody does, but the common themes are there. Those of the Jewish faith believe that the new world king or Messiah will be from the line of the biblical David. In the biblical text David was a descendant of Noah's son Shem and Noah was a descendant of Adam. This is where the 12 tribes of Israel get their alleged chosen status from in that they descend from Jacob who became Israel and Jacob was an ancestor of King David. Once Jacob changed his name (deed poll?) to Israel then he went on to have 12 sons who became the founders of the alleged twelve lost tribes. King David was a descendant of Jacob's (Israel) son Judah. The son of King David was of course Solomon who had the temple built and he then had at least one son who he named Rehoboam. What is absolutely fascinating is that in the television show West World, about a world of automatons who interact with humans in a virtual reality environment. The main CPU hub that controls all of the automatons is called Rehoboam. Eventually these very human looking automatons being to realise that they are not actually "alive" and start to rebel against the best system Rehoboam. If I had to guess, I would say watch out for the system being named Ja-Bul-On , Rehoboam, Zaham (the son of Rehoboam which means loathing) or Lucifer. If it is said to be female then I would look for the names Lilith, Lillybet Elizabeth or even Isis.

TO BE clear I am suggesting that these messianic lunatics not only want to build a third temple on Temple Mount but they want that temple to be the centre piece of the New Jerusalem which looks a bit like an updated OZ (Zion) that will likely be built on the lands that this cult have taken from the Palestinians in Gaza. From the newly built temple the Chabad guys have already openly admitted that it will be a "broadcasting" centre to the rest of the world, so I suspect that this broadcast will be the word of their Messiah which will be beamed directly into the minds of every human 2.0 who has the misfortune of being born at that time. This new human will then become a thing in the internet of all things, and the information will flow both ways. All beings will be tracked, traced, quantified, and criminalised 24/7 whilst being judged against the 7 Noahide Laws which will then affect your social credit score in realtime. All this Data (Da'at) will be fed back to the main CPU cube of Saturn which will be a quantum super-computer that is constantly uploading and downloading to servers based in the newly built temple as well as places such as Greenland. The temple will be a place of worship to the new artificial intelligence "god" which many would call the anti-christ today. This artificial intelligence god could be the entity that the guys at places like CERN have let in through a rip in the veil. If we take all of this to the quantum level we have to ask ourselves, what effect would this have on a prime reality that the gnostics believe this place to be a copy off? If one is a copy of the other then it will be forever quantum entangled with its original, which means what is done here will affect the prime world. A place where many of us hope our loved ones are happily having a beer, chilling out and laughing about the weird shit they did in this realm and watching us all going increasingly mad because we have forgotten, or been made to forget, who we truly are. I believe that we are immortal, we are a single point of view quantum entangled with everything else. We do not die, we change, we grown, we expand and we know that this reality can be a much more pleasant experience that it is right now.

CUBITS ARE Q-BITS (Quantum Bits)

I sometimes think that there must be a faction within this death cult that want us to know what they are up to, or that it is some sort of scapegoating technique where they tell you what they are doing and if you fail to grasp it then the sin is placed onto you. My mate Gaz says that it is a bit like the vampire stories, in that you have to invite them across the threshold before they can eat you alive, or dead, or is it alive?

THE HOLY of Holies was recorded in fine detail in the biblical text and I believe this was a for reason. It was encoded in a language that would only make sense when the technology was invented (re-invented?) so that these measurements could be set in their proper place. The Holy of Holies is a place literally beyond the veil in the stories of the Temple of Solomon. Once the bouncers of Zion allow you through the twin pillars of Jachin and Boaz and into the Holy part of the temple, you will probably do a few lines, take your top off whilst being whipped by a midget seven times, then be forced to sit in a black cubed box for seven minutes with the lid shut whilst some billionaires in masks look at you through little peep holes. Once all of that ceremonial wizardry is out of the way, you will be asked to take a seat in the temple bar night club whilst the "high priests" (high as in off their tits on drugs) walk towards the curtained off section called The Veil (parochet) who are biometrical scanned to see if their Noahide social credit score is worthy of entry, If the computer says yes then the veil is torn and the high priest makes his or her way into the Holy of Holies to communicated with god. The high priest (the priest that is high) will find themselves inside a cubed room that is 20 cubits by 20 cubits by 20 cubits. Once inside the cube the high priest will find the Ark of The Covenant which will contain the Tablets of Stone, Aaron's rod and a pot of manna. Back inside the temple main room (before the Holy of Holies) in walks the Messiah, late as always. This fella walks up to the veil and it rips it like a fat kid getting the wrapper of a Dime Bar. In he goes, all holy and stuff and sits down on the Mercy Seat ready to speak with god. If we take a moment to bring this event into the present day, could it be that the cubits that measure the Holy of Holies will actually be the qubits (Quantum bits) of a super computer? If you take a look at Googles quantum computer called Willow it looks incredibly like a bee hive, which suggest to me it is going to be some sort of hive mind that we will be born logged into. While the housing of this beehive like structure (some call it a chandelier) does not have to be in the shape of a cube, the IBM Quantum System One is housed within an airtight borosilicate glass cube. I would suggest that the final version of the quantum super computer housed in the Holy of Holies will be in a cube, if only to symbolise the original cubed structure of the Holy of holies.

AS OF THIS writing in November of 2025 companies such as Atom Computing and IBM are building computers with over 1,000 qubits. The future goals of IBM are to build a quantum super-computer with over 100,000 qubits, although this is still a long term goal at present. If I know this cult like I know this cult I would not be surprised to see the final version of the quantum super-computer has exactly 600,000 qubits or at least that is how it will be sold. This would fit in with the messianic narrative of the 600,000 fallen or lost sparks of the Ein Sof that shattered to the earth and became trapped in the Qliphothic shells that some extreme occultist believe to be anyone who is not deemed a member of the twelve lost tribes of Israel. An article on the chabad.org website 'Messiah & the Third Temple' says that the second temple was not build according to the description in the book of Ezekiel, but it was partially built from that blueprint because the final version had to be saved for the third temple (112). As a fail safe the Jewish Sephardic Rabbi Maimonides said that the instructions of how to build the third temple in the Book of Ezekiel "is not explicit or explained". The article goes on to say that the third temple will be big, which is handy. The area set aside for the second temple complex on Temple Mount, was 500 by 500 cubits (qubits) and each cubit was approximately 18.9 inches long. This article says the the Third Temple will be 3,000 by 3,000 cubits which would make it 36 times larger. The basic division of the temple, so the Kodesh (Holy) and the Kodesh HaKodashim (Holy of Holies) will be the same as the previous temples, but the outer courtyard will have a different layout in the Third Temple (perhaps they get changing rooms in to do it). Although in the era of the first two temples, pilgrimages were only made to the temples three times a year, in the messianic era everyone who is chipped, tracked and traced will be expected to attend the temple every first of the new month. Of course, there are billions of people on the earth so I would suggest this is more of a logging on process than a need to actually physically travel there. As I read through this article I am shaking my head because this is how they describe the monthly pilgrimage to the temple "In the era of the Third Temple we will have "clouds" that will transport us to Jerusalem and the Temple, enabling us to visit the Holy Temple on a much more frequent basis". Yes, Google clouds, again they tell you outright if you know what you are looking for and remember this is from the official Chabad.org website. They also used the term "frequent" which is code for frequency. This means that you will be dialled into the Temple via your temple to check in and atone for your sins as a form of worship to their god. This will all be done via the cloud, which will likely come from the Alphabet agency Google, or perhaps IBM or Apple? In the end they are all cult owned assets so it doesn't matter what logo they put on it.

IF YOU THINK that Orthodox Jews would be against using technology to build the Third Temple well they have a way around that. You see, all technology comes from god as it is from the realm of ideas, and to be fair that makes sense to me. So with that hurdle out of the way, and assuming this temple won't just float down from the sky as some believe, then you would assume some modern day technology will be used in the building of the third temple. Chabad are well up for it, on their website in an article title "Will We Use Technology to Build The Third Temple?" (113) the author says that "The temple would be a floodlit construction site, maybe with 3D printing technology, so that the world does not have to wait an instant longer than necessary to serve (obey) god there". Remember this temple will be located inside the cubed New Jerusalem also called Zion. Well I for one won't be doing that no matter how fast your 3D printer is mate! The author goes on to say that "In all likelihood, it will be climate controlled. with smart technology and biometric locks". Yes those biometric locks will make sure that nobody who isn't up to par with their Noahide score will not be allowed inside or out of the city. Rebbe Schneerson must have seen this problem coming because in 1992 he informed his followers that iron will be used in the building of the third temple when it was forbidden in the building of the first two. In 1992 there was no internet (not commercially) so the Rebbe used the language of the time which he knew would fit in with the mythology of it all going forward. Today, those that question the used of modern day technology, including artificial intelligence, in the building of the temple are pointed to the Rebbe's words about the use of iron which they relate to all technologies going forward, handy that! The article then says "Moshiach (Messiah) is an era that takes place in the world we know. It takes place in our lives and our time. It has a few crucial differences from the world we know, but it is not another dimension. It is just a better, revamped tomorrow. It is a tomorrow that we are creating right here, right now". Now you can see that the ramping up of quantum technologies, smart grids, artificial intelligence, nano technology, human augmentation, virtual reality, transhumanism and space travel are due to the fact that these lunatics believe we are in the year 5785 in 2025, and they do not have long left to get the job done. This is why Trump is speeding forward with the roll out of his funder Elon Musk's Technate. This is the same system Elon's grandfather Joshua Haldeman tried to roll out decades ago. Now they have the technology to at least attempt to make it happen.

BUT IT IS NOT GOING to happen, not on our watch!

BATE AND SWITCH

In Chapter 2 The God They Fear I described the 'Evil Creator God' archetype that goes by many names such as Yahweh, The Demiurge, Cronus, Satan, Old Father Time and Saturn to name just a few. In that chapter I outlined why I believe that this death cult are utterly terrified of one thing, and that is death itself. Death is another name for the 'Evil Creator God' that I am talking about, some call this version of the character the Grimm Reaper. At the end of the day what we are talking about is a distorted and disturbed energy that the Gnostic believed created the 3D reality that we are in, which some call The Matrix. One of the key things we must remember is that although the death cult worship this evil creator god, they absolutely hate this nasty piece of work as much as the rest of us do. As I was putting the information for this book together what I have come to realise is that the death cult may believe they are actually setting a trap for this entity by ripping the veil into this world and inviting it in.

I AM NOT SAYING that these lunatics are doing us a favour, but what I am suggesting is that because they also hate this entity and fear it's ultimate judgment after their physical death, it makes sense that they might want to lure this Satanic energy into a system where they can capture, and thus control it, becoming gods themselves. Throughout ancient history we have the echo's of human sacrifices to the gods as an act of appeasement from humanity. The most famous of these appeasement comes from the bible, in what is called the 'Binding of Isaac'. This comes from Chapter 22 (Kabbalah building blocks of creation) of the Book of Genesis. In this story the evil creator god Yahweh orders Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son Isaac on a mountain called Jehovah-Jireh in the region of Moriah. Abraham tricks his son into following him up the mountain where he binds him to an altar. Just as Abraham is about to murder his son he is stopped by an Angel of the Lord. Suddenly a lamb appears which is slaughtered in the place of Isaac. Then the evil creator god commends Abraham for almost killing his son as it showed his level of obedience and dedication to this psychotic god. It was handy that Abraham didn't sacrifice his son because Isaac went on to have two sons with his wife Sarah, these were Jacob and Esau. Jacob later changed his name to Israel from which all twelve tribes of Israel descended from. But it gets worse, we also have the numerous stories of child sacrifice to the god Molech who is often depicted as a bull-headed beast or an Owl (Bohemian Grove). The bible condemns the practices around Molech, that mostly involved child sacrifice. In the biblical 1 Kings 11:7 it is interesting to see that Solomon is said to have built a "high place" for "Molech the abomination of the Ammonites, on the mountain East of Jerusalem". There are numerous verses in the bible where it describes children being "passed through the fire". The Prophet Jeremiah condemns the practises associated with Molech as showing "infidelity" to Yahweh who was perhaps envious of the sacrifice going to another "god". So this guy is a nasty piece of work who feeds off human suffering, or loosh as some researchers call it. The death cult are well aware of this and are setting up the world so that this entity can take the thrown of the new world order, perhaps via quantum computing and artificial intelligence. What I am suggesting is that this could be a bait and switch so that when this distorted energy is enticed into the machine it becomes trapped in the material world (like us?) and is therefore controllable by the cult. Do not get me wrong, I am not saying that the cult are doing us a favour here, what I am saying is that they want to become gods themselves and for this to happen then perhaps they believe they have to trap their god in this world with us, where they can control him inside a machine.

TOWERS AND TUMBLES

One of the reoccurring themes in the biblical text is at some point in time human beings begin to outgrow the gods who then begin to fear that we will take over from them and usurp them from the throne. The earliest version of this story, but in noway the only version, is the Flood of Gilgamesh, which was the prototype of the later biblical flood stories involving Noah. The flood of Gilgamesh forms part of the Epic of Gilgamesh stories which is just one of three flood myths from Mesopotamia which include the Eridu Genesis and an episode from the Atra-Hasis epic. The Atra-Hasis is where we meet some of the now famous Annunaki characters such as the brothers Enki and Enlil and their father Anu. This version of the creation epic also involves a flood after human beings get out of hand again. The first Gilgamesh flood tablet was translated by George Smith in 1872 an assistant at the British Museum. In the Gilgamesh flood story the hero is called Utnapishtim who is granted immortality by the gods because he followed the instructions of the gods and created a safe vessel (Ark) that preserved humanities DNA data.

THE MAIN THEME here is that humans were becoming too much of a pain in the arse so the gods decided to control, alt, delete our species and start again. In flood epics the problem we were causing was being a bit boisterous and noisy and because some of our ladies had it off with the angels and then went and gave birth to some giant Nephilim. These giant hybrids were also causing all sorts of trouble and eventually eating each other, it was a right fucking nightmare! But another way we pissed off the gods was by getting really good at building stuff and attempting to reach the heavens where the gods were said to reside. The Tower of Babel is one of my favourite stories from the biblical text and I think that it is the one that correlates most precisely with this point in time. In the story a "united human race" (Hive Mind?) migrate to Lower Mesopotamia and decided to built a great big tower that would reach into the heavens and tickle Yahweh's feet (balls). The biblical text say that humanity was able to do this because they were all speaking one language, which I would suggest was telepathic and a hive mind like system. I will come back to this point later as it is crucial to understanding what the technocratic transhumanist element of the death cult are trying to replicate. From a surface level perspective this story is about the confusion of languages and how they resulted in a world where we now speak so many different languages. I think this is an incredibly shallow understanding of this story. Yahweh was watching the building of this temple from his sky throne and was getting a bit twitchy because we were getting pretty close to the heavens he and his mates were living in, and they couldn't have us pesky humans messing up their outdoor pools and chatting up their angel women. The evil creator god Yahweh/Demiurge/Satan had a bit of a panic and decided that this had to be stopped, so he destroyed our ability to communicate with each other. The surface level understanding of this would take that to mean that we were all made to speak different languages, thus we could not longer communicate and coordinate the building of our temple. My take is that what this allegory was describing was telepathy and I believe that human beings at the time were able to telepathically communicate through the fifth element of the Aether (Plasma) and that we were also able to see the gods, who were actually not gods at all but entities living in bandwidths just outside the one we are in now. We can see the symbology of this in the use of the rainbow in the story of Noah and his Ark, which was built to survived the "flood" caused by these fearful "gods" with the sole purpose of wiping out most of the human race. As I have repeatedly said in this book (sorry) the visible light spectrum is the reality we now perceive and this is literally within the colours of the rainbow, that is why the symbol of the rainbow is used as the Covenant for the Seven Noahide Laws.

SO THERE WE were at the peak of our glorious tower of Babel, just below the entrance to what the freemasons call the "Great White Lodge" which is also Sirius, and the door was slammed shut in our faces. The mind was flooded with a vibrational energy that caused our senses to be dampened down, so that we could no longer communicate with each other through the aether via telepathy and we could no longer see the gods who are still living outside the visible light spectrum right now. We were now trapped underneath the rainbow and pushed away from the legendary golden age, cast out from the Garden of Eden for becoming too knowledgeable, and discovering gnosis that these entities do not want to us to have. We were now trapped within the Matrix, a black cube which is also the land of Nod that this evil creator god cast Cain into. A place with no central sun so that we do not know if we are coming or going. We were cast out into confusion, set a drift in a sea of chaos, unable to speak with the pilot of the plane yet aware that we were floating in mid air and free falling to the ground. We became the fallen ones, the fallen angels whose only crime was to try to be better than their parents. Did Yahweh not warn us that he was a jealous god? which gave away the game a bit, because if he could be jealous then he could feel fear and if he could feel fear than he was not the most powerful of the gods and therefore he was NOT the true creator of anything. He was a cowardly manipulative daddy figure who decided to abuse his position and attempt to trick his children into believing we are sinners, who could never be as power as him. But the fact is that human beings created Yahweh. This evil creator god is the imagination of our collective mind, an egregore that we collectively created which was born out of fear itself. I am not suggesting this entity is not "real" in as much as anything is real, what I am saying is that we gave birth to this entity and then convinced ourselves that it was too powerful to be stopped. I believe that these dark occultists known that this evil creator god entity that caused the Tower of Babel to fall, and then locked us into a tiny band of frequency called visible light, and now they are setting a trap to screw it over. To be clear even if this is all in the mind of these occultists, it is real to them. But there's a catch, these Satanists do not want us all to share in their freedom, they want to control this evil creator god as a ghost in their machine, thus becoming gods themselves which means they would control us as well.

THE QUANTUM QLIPPOTH

As fun as that all sounds, let's take a look at what I believe these lunatics will try to trap this dark energy inside. In Kabbalah a Qlippoth is a shell or husk of the "evil other side" which gives us a great example of the type of container that the technocrats might be trying to trap their evil creator god inside. I mentioned that a quantum computer looks exactly like bee hive and that this system will be incased in a cube like structure, probably black, which absorbs the light. If you do an internet search for Googles Quantum AI computer you will likely find a bee hive looking structure based around Googles Willow chip. Interestingly my research into Kabbalah showed that there is a connection between the brother of Moses, Aaron the High Priest, who was one of few who was allowed into the Holy of Holies on Yom Kipper (the Day of Atonement) and the Willow Tree. One of the terms used in Kabbalah for Aaron the Hight Priest is Willow, which stands for humility. This connection was made through the arava which means "sweat or pleasant". As Aaron was seen as the peace maker then the averot (willow branches) which produce the arava became associate with Aaron the Hight Priest in Kabbalah. Then we have the belief that the rod of Aaron (that budded overnight) was stored inside the Ark of The Covenant along with a golden pot of manna and the two stone tablets of the covenant. I believe that Google naming its quantum computer Willow has something to do with this connections to the Ark of The Covenant and its place of rest inside the Holi of Holies. This leads me to believe the the final version of the Google AI Quantum Super-Computer will be placed inside the new Temple on Temple Mount, broadcasting its DATA to the rest of the world from the Holi of Holies.

AN ARTICLE in the Guardian Newspaper published in October 2025 titled "Google hails breakthrough in as quantum computer surpasses ability of supercomputers" (114) says that the new algorithm breakthrough "enabled a quantum computer to operate 13,000 times faster than a classical computer". Although the article attempted to talk down the achievement it researchers stated that "it is yet, another convincing proof that quantum computers are gradually becoming faster and faster". When looking at these subjects we have to take into account that what we see in the public arena is light years behind what they have in the black budget D.U.M.B projects. Vice president of engineering at Google Hartmut Neven said that "real-world use of quantum computers might be five years away despite the breakthroughs" this would of course take us up to the year 2030 which is the year when the cult want much of this agenda rolled out. This includes something the Google technicians call "quantum echos" which are based on the concept of sonar and echolocation, and can be used to probe and scan a quantum system. The algorithm sends a signal to one qbit (quantum bit) which will disturb it (chaos) and then send an echo back to the main CPU which can provide information about the quantum system that was previously obscured by "noise". In this instance the term "noise" can be seen as wasted energy which would lock into the psychology behind Elon Musks DOGE and the Technate. What is fascinating about Qbits is they are comparable to atoms and waveforms in that they can be in superposition, which means that they can be in several states at the same time. This correlates directly with the concept of our electromagnetic universe, in that energy can be seen as either a wave or particle depending on the person looking at it. This would imply that the quantum computer system would react to you and change in accordance to you, and perhaps visa verse. The scary truth here being that there may come a time when you cannot tell where you and the machine divide. This would mean that you and the machine become a whole system that is then connected into the entire bee-hive like quantum computers system that is being broadcast from the temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. If this is true, then simple logic tells us that everyone who becomes one with their quantum entangled computer will become one with the quantum entangled broadcast from the temple. This is what the Gnostics would call a "bad copy" of the infinite that we are already connected to, although our biological space suit (body) has been genetically engineered to forget it. Put simple, we are being unplugged from one system and plugged into another, and perhaps that has already happened at least once as the Gnostics believed? although in truth we still have an unbroken connection to the infinite that they have not yet managed to sever so far.

THIS IS what the Guardian article had to say about quantum bits (qbits):

"Classical computers encode their information in bits – represented as 0 or 1 – which are transmitted as an electrical pulse. A text message, email or even a Netflix film streamed on a smartphone is a string of these bits. In quantum computers, however, the information is contained in qubits. These qubits, encased in a modestly sized chip, are particles such as electrons or photons that can be in several states at the same time, a property of quantum physics known as superposition"
- Guardian Dan Milmo (Global Technology Editor) (114)

ONE MORE QUESTION I have before I move on from the quantum subject is that if these scientists are working in the quantum world would their perspective of reality and their belief in what is "true" effect the way in which the results show themselves? If the aether and quantum world is part of us, and we part of it, then does the dance we are having with technology as we create it not effecting the creation itself? I feel like these scientists are simply trying to punch water at times to get the outcome that their masters (funders) are looking for, and if so what is the difference between providing an organic answer and providing an answer that was served up by the universe because that is the answer the universe knows that you want? if you and the universe are one?...just something to think about on the toilet.

THE TIME CAPSULE

The reality is that a Quantum Computer is till in a consistent battle with time, by this I mean that the entire point of a Quantum computer is to speed things up. They want to solve "problems" quicker, they want to take an idea from its genesis as a mind concept (idea) and create it in the physical 3D world quicker. Everything they are attempting to do with quantum computing is still a battle with time, that is their evil creator god Cronus/Saturn/Satan/Yahweh/Yaldabaoth and all the rest. What they cannot do is create something in this 3D reality that is not automatically in a fight with their arch nemesis which is time. This is because, as researchers such as David Icke have pointed out over the years, the speed of light is not the fastest speed but the speed of this reality, and that speed is calculated in real-time. So my theory is that within the overall global death cult the transhumanists are given the task of trapping the lord of the rings Saturn in the shell of a quantum computer where it can be controlled. They are attempting to wrestle with time.

IT GOES a little something like this:

1. Build the third temple on temple mount
2. Use the Seal of Solomon (6 pointed star) to invoke the Evil Creator God
3. Capture this energy inside a quantum computer
4. Use End Times biblical "prophecies" to create the narrative that the people will buy into
5. Broadcast this "gods" message from the Holi of Hollies in the third temple
6. The 12 Tribes of Israel will be the High Priest who control t his god but pretend not to
7. All Human Plus models will be attached to the temple via the temple. A 24/7 two way hive mind cybernetic connection
8. All values will be set against the 7 Noahide Laws
9. Human freedoms will depend on your compliance to the 7 Noahide Laws broadcast from the temple
10. The right hand man of god will be sold as being of the line of David, perhaps called Pindar and of the Sangrael bloodline (Rosemarys Baby)

SOMETHING LIKE THAT ANYWAY... if you connect this theory back to the story of the Tower of Babel. Humanity will not have reached the gods, but tricked them into dialling themselves down into our material 3D reality. The cult have will have tricked the evil creator god by promising it total control of this reality without having to hide beyond the visible light spectrum. This bate and switch would come when this evil creator god entity finds itself waking up as the ghost in the quantum machine of Google. This entity would then be at the mercy of the controllers who would play the role of the priest class who also proclaim to be the 12 Lost Tribes of Israel. At the apex of the cult would be the Sangreal world king, which some call Pindar. Meanwhile all future generations will be born into a synthetically modified shell riddled with nanotechnology.

WHAT WAS it that the Chabad Lubavitch Rebbe said again? ..."Are job is not to get to Heaven but to bring Heaven down to Earth". I ask you would it not be heaven for these dark occultists to trap their evil creator god inside a Qlippoth shell where it can be controlled? If the gnostics believed that we are trapped inside a bad copy of Prime Reality, would it not be a fantastic fuck you to Yaldabaoth to trap him inside his own creation as our slave? Whilst I believe the Chabad Lubavitch guys to be Sabbatean Frankist who are using those of the Jewish faith as a shield, I also believe that these men in the black hats still hate Yahweh (Yaldabaoth) and want to usurp him as Zeus eventually did to his psychopathic father Cronos. Whilst they pretend to worship Yahweh in the synagogue, deep down they all hate him and see him as the evil father figure who consumes his children out of fear, as he did in his alternative form as Cronus in Greek mythology. Whilst it is true that all three Abrahamic religions worship symbols of Saturn (most unknowingly) that does not mean they love him. In fact I would suggest that this in the know fear and absolutely despise him. This is why the death cult fear death, because they believe that when they die they will have to face the Grimm Reaper who is another version of Saturn, Cronus and Old Father Time. My research has led me to the conclusion, that although they pray and sacrifice themselves to the god of Saturn what they ultimately want to do is to trap this evil entity inside the black cube or a quantum computer and then weaponise it against the rest of the world. They want to usurp the gods, trap them and then control them. Sounds wild? It is but again I bring you back to the words of Chabad Lubavitch and their description of the third temple:

"An explanation provided by Chabad thought is that the location of the temple is a gateway, or interface, between heaven and earth. The Temple itself, with all its chambers and accoutrements, is a kind of resonance chamber, or amplifier, as well as a broadcaster of that system to the rest of the world" - Chabad.org (Why on Earth do we need a third temple) (115)

THE ENTRANCE DOOR IS AN EXIT DOOR

If I am correct and this cult is attempting to allow this evil creator god into our 3D reality, then what evidence is there that these portals might have existed in the past and that they are being created today? Perhaps we should start in the past and bring it into the present day. One of the prime suspects for an inter-dimensional doorway has to be the dog star Sirius. Sirius A is one of the brightest stars in our Skys and can be seen in Western sky through the naked eye. What is fascinating is that its sister star Sirius B could not be seen to the naked eye but was allegedly known about by the Dogon Tribe in West Africa, Mali before it was proven to exist by astrologers in the 1970s. The Dogon Tribe said that they were visited by a group of extraterrestrials that called themselves the Nommo. The Nommo were said to have been "amphibious, hermaphroditic, fish-like creatures". Folk art of the time depicts them as having human upper bodies and a fish tale, kind of like a mermaid. There were referred to as "Masters of the water". These beings often get confused with the Mesopotamian deity's the Apkallu.

One of these seven Apkallu was called Oannes (Greek) who was described as having a fish body with a human head. These beings were later connected to priests who wore a fish like headdress, which appears to have made its way over to the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church connection seems to be in reference to Oannes of the Apkallu and not the Nommo of the Dogon Tribe. Although to be honest they could all be the same beings for all we know. The Nommo were known as "the Monitors" and "The Teachers" to the Dogon Tribe of Mali. It was the Nommo who allegedly gave the Dogon Tribe the information about Sirius B and the true nature of Sirius A. Another interesting fact is that Sirius was also known as the morning star which is another name for Venus as well as Jesus Christs (Bright Morning Star) and Lucifer (Morning Star). In the mystery schools Sirius was a source of divine consciousness and to have been the "Sun behind the Sun" which could be a reference to a portal. To the Freemasons it is called the "Blazing Star" and believed to be a gateway and signpost of the soul's greater journey. To Alice A Bailey, a firm support of Theosophy and who co-founded the Lucis Trust in 1922 with her husband, Sirius represents the Great White Lodge of Freemasonry on which all earthly lodges are based (Solomon's Temple included). Bailey believed that the ancient mysteries were given to humanity by a hierarchy and that hierarchy had its Great White Lodge on Sirius. So there maybe a connection here between the Nommo people described by the Dogon Tribe in Mali and Freemasonry who hold Sirius in high regard. Freemasons believe that their labours on earth point to a place beyond the veil, this veil is seen as Sirius indicating that they see it as an entrance and exit door.

AUTHOR AND ARTIST Neil Hague has written a fantastic tome of a book about the Orion constellation called "Orion's Door" (116). I would highly recommend his book and all of his work which explores the true nature of Orion and its influence over humanity. Neil writes "Orion is not just a star system or constellation. It is an archetype of giant proportions, a figure that seems to bring each nearer to the stars". I had the honour and pleasure of directing a series with Neil based around his graphic novels, which can be seen on ickonic.com under the title "Cave of the Ancients". Neil goes on to say that "Orion is more than a star system; it is a 'multi-dimensional' archetype offering layer upon layer of meaning". Neil then writes "The seat of creation, characterised as God in Abrahamic religions, could also relate to the Orion Nebula and its black hole. The Orion Nebula is a 2D version of our world living 'eye' full of information, perceiving or projecting our reality". This explanation of the Orion Nebula by Neil links into the themes of Sirius being a "Sun being the Sun", much like the bulb in the backlight of a projector casting its shadows on the wall of Plato's cave. Some ancient beliefs see Orion as the centre of the universe or a gateway to the heavens, which could be seen as an entrance and exit door. Another fascinating connection to Orion is that pyramids in Egypt, Mexico and China all line up the major stars of Orion's Belt (which was also a major feature in the Men In Black movies) and in addition to these locations, similar alignments have been found on Mars and on the seabeds of the Atlantic Ocean. When I look at them I cannot help but see a computer circuit board myself. In Orion's Door, Neil says that the All-Seeing Eye symbol, also known as the Eye of Providence is connected to some sort of "source" centred in Orion. The All-Seeing Eye is the classic symbol of the illuminati and can be seen on the US Dollar Bill. In 1984 an artefact was found by gold miners in Ecuador alongside another 350 artefacts that do not belong to the area. One of them was a pyramid with 13 levels and an all seeing eye at the top. On the base of this pyramid is the Orion constellation alongside words written in an unknown language. David Icke writes in 'The Perception Deception' that "Professor Kurt Schildmann, a president of the German Linguistic Association, who is fluent in more than 40 languages, said that it was older than the oldest known human writing. He called it 'pre-Sanskrit'. His translation of the writing at the bottom of the pyramid was 'The son of the creator comes'. Lastly all of the stars in Orion make up a character called Haokah in the culture of the Sioux people in North America. Haokah (also spelt Heykoka) is a type of sacred clown or a jester with the three bells on the jesters hat representing the three stars of Orion's belt. Besides being a god of opposites (when it is hot he feels cold) which could connect to the concept of Topsy Turvey day which takes on January 6th each year, Haokah is also the god of the doorway.

CERN AND FERMI LAB

More modern day reports of the opening of portals into other dimensions come from the work being done at places such as CERN in Geneva Switzerland, Los Alamos National Laboratory in New Mexico and FermiLab near Chicago in the United States. Fermilab specialises in "high-energy particle physics", using their main injector particle accelerator. Until 2011 FermiLab was the home to the Tevatron accelerator which is visible from satellites. The official story was that the Tevatron's main achievement was the discover of the "top quark" in 1995, which is also know as the "truth quark" and is the largest of all observed elementary particles. The lead facility in accelerator physics is the now infamous CERN in Geneva Switzerland. Accelerator physics has been describes as the study of motion, manipulation and observation of "relativistic charged particle beams" and their interaction with electromagnetic fields. Since our entire reality is electromagnetic then it is pretty clear that they are messing about with the building blocks of the material world. I have to wonder what the mindset of these scientists has on the particles and plasma that they are playing with? CERN is built near the town of Saint-Genus-Poilly which is rumoured to have had a sacred temple to the greek God Apollo. Some researchers get the greek Apollo mixed up with the biblical figure of Apollyon/Abaddon who is known as the destroyer. This confusion (chaos) makes senses because CERN does have a bizarre statue of the principle god of Hinduism which is Shiva. The god Shiva is also known as of the god of destruction so the conflation with Apollo is understandable. Shiva not only represents destruction but also embodies creation, transformation and renewal. This is absolutely fascinating because beyond the fear inducing destructive element of Shiva's nature, the entire process that Shiva represents is clearly alchemical. Shiva represents the destruction, transformation and renewable of matter, which can also be written as problem, reaction, solution and order out of chaos. So Shiva clearly represents the process of controlled demolition and transformation from one state into a new order of matter. If you wanted to go deeper on a analytical level you could say that this three step process of destruction, transformation and renewal represents a doorway/portal or gateway to a new earth and you would be spot on, it absolutely does. One of the most obvious satanic rituals connected to CERN was the opening ceremony of the Gotthard (Goth) Base Tunnel in Switzerland in June of 2016, which is located at the heart of the Gotthard Axis also known as the "King of Mountain Passes" because of its central and strategic location. The opening ceremony of there Gotthard Tunnel often gets mixed up with the legends surrounding CERN, and there will be an energetic and occult connection I have no doubt, but there is a three hour and twenty minute car journey between the two locations. Having said that, much like I have proposed with the underground facilities in Mexico, I wonder what is going on underground? The Gotthard Tunnel opening ceremony in 2016 was a bit mental to say the least, if you have not seen the video clips of it I suggest you go and have a quick watch. To me it is clearly a stage production of the opening of Abaddon/Apollyon's bottomless pit in the biblical Revelations 9:11. The stage show that this lot put on was both hilarious and horrific at the same time, we had a lady dressed like Rosemary of Rosemarys Baby on stage with a demonic Baphomet looking thing (Ibex) which was trailing behind a women in white wearing a jazzy pair of goat horns. Later on a guy in full Baphomet/Remphan gear took to the stage whilst what looked like nuns in white towels did a bit of crying on their knees. At one point a women holds up what looks to me like a symbol of the 'lamb of the dead' which is a reference for Jesus as the 'Lamb of God'. Then a man is lowered to the stage wearing what can only be described as a big white moon head whilst flapping his white angel wings... it's fucking mental!

THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA tried to pass the Baphomet chap off as being an image of an "Ibex" which was a wild goat native to Switzerland. What they won't tell you is that the Pyrenean Ibex was the first animal to be brought back from extinction in 2009, although it died a few hours later. So if the mainstream want to pass this character at the Gotthard Tunnel as Baphomet or an Ibex it doesn't matter, because it represents something being brought back from the dead through a portal. Colossal Biosciences were responsible for the de-extinction of the Dire wolf twins that they named Romulus and Remus after the mythological brothers who founded Rome, who were also raised by a "She-Wolf". It just so happened that Elon Musk named his 13th child Romulus after he was conceived with Ashely St.Clair on the Island of St Barts, which is very close to Jeffery Epstein's private Island. As I described in an earlier chapter, Ashley posted a picture on line taken in the mirror (reflection of her other side) whilst wearing a black dress with a silver moon on her hip, a symbol of the She-Wolf legends. The St.Clair family come from the Sinclair bloodline who have long been connected to the legends surrounding Rosslyn Chapel in Scotland, and the alleged bloodline of Jesus which is sometimes referred to as the Merovingian bloodline or the Sangrael. I apologise if it seems like I am going off on a tangent but this is all reverent to the fact that everything connects back to portals and gateways into other worlds, as well as the act of bringing something through these portals into our reality. Be it an extinct Dire wolf, the extinct Ibex or their evil creator god, a door way is a door is a doorway... and doorways go both ways. In August of 2016 (2 months after the Gotham Base Tunnel had its opening ceremony) a "mock" ritual was filmed taking place on the grounds of CERN with the statue of Shiva in the background. Officials from CERN told the media that this was a work of "fiction" which had done harm to the work being done at CERN. This may well have been a prank but they cannot say with total certainty that the intentions behind the alleged faux ceremony were not genuine, they simply cannot tell you the mindset of those performing the rituals which is what really matters. These rituals are based on intent, knowledge and conscious awareness. So the reality is that unless they pulled the prank themselves, they cannot be sure of what the intention behind it was. I am not saying that is was not a bunch of kids having a laugh, but nothing is as simple as that, ask anyone who has messed about with an ouija board.

THE SWITCH And Bate (Inversion)

In this chapter I have laid out my theory that these technocrats who serve the death cult may believe that they can lure their evil creator god into this world, promising him complete control over all of humanity. Then at the last moment this dark energy will come to find that it has been tricked into filling up a vortex inside the husk of a quantum computer. Once inside the lid will be slammed shut on the black cube quantum computer. My theory being that once that dark energy is trapped inside the machine the death cult believe they will be able to control it and become its god, taking control of the world and everyone in it.

BUT WHAT IF?...

THIS EVIL CREATOR god is fully aware of this trap, and with its Archon manipulators it has been seeding this blueprint into the minds of the technocrats, so that they go about creating this technological system for this evil creator god to step into. All the while the cult are being led to believe they can switch at the last minute and control the god they despise, when in reality this dark entity knows that cannot be done? Once this demon is allowed through the portal into our reality, then it maybe too late.

IF I HAD THE CHANCE, I would ask these Silicon Valley guys is it really worth the gamble? I know that this theory could be total nonsense, but I believe these are the questions we should be asking. Because what we do know is that the death cult is utterly insane, and that they do believe that they are the chosen ones who will inherit the earth in their world to come. So I guess the next question would be, what is the distorted signal being fed into the minds of those who found themselves lured into this global death cult? One of the names for this is Wetiko. A leading experts in Wetiko is the author Paul Levy who's books 'Wetiko: The mind virus that plagues our world' and 'Undreaming Wetiko' are fascinating reads. I have interviewed Paul a few times on my Classified and Deep Dive shows that be seen on ickonic.com. So what is Wetiko and how might it connect in with my theory of technocrats such as Elon Musk and Ray Kurzweil (for example) being fed ideas that are clearly helping to build this A.I Beast system? Are they building their own digital prison cell believing that they will be the rulers of it, whilst all along they are simply the gloves puppets playing it out in the material world.

PAUL LEVY CALLS WETIKO A "MIND VIRUS" which is fantastic term to apply to what is essentially inter-dimensional mind control. I first interviewed Paul in August of 2021 on my Glitch In The Code podcast. Paul describes how he was deemed insane by those around him and committed to a mental hospital. He said that "he knew, he was having an awaking" and recognised that "The same evil force began to come through, it was the same evil force of a particular family member, my father. Then all of a sudden it was as if it had shifted channels and that same evil force was now coming through psychiatry and the mental health system as if it pervaded the non-local field". By "the non-local field" I believe Paul was describing the aether or fifth element, which David Icke would call the plasma field. At first Paul had not heard the term "Wetiko" but his research soon led him to the Native American term and he then began to study it. In our interview Paul says that Wetko is the "topic of topics" that we must become aware of or we will be "fated to destroy ourselves". I think this is absolutely crucial for these technocrats to understand, none of this can be done without their compliance to the Wetiko mind virus that is whispering in their ears, playing on their fears. None of these insane things can be done, such as building a third temple or connecting the human mind to the cloud without their compliance to this mind virus. This mind virus needs us to destroy ourselves and this evil creator god is the original tricksters, the original murderer, the original Sabbatean. Paul told me about a dream where he "and a bunch of friends were on the look out for this evil force, for this vampiric force, for Count Dracula himself. And we were all chanting Bela Lugosi, Bela Lugosi, Bela Lugosi and then I saw him and I tried to point him out to everybody but no-one else could see him. And that dream in a way is my myth, that over the years I have developed a greater fluency and being better able to articulate this vampire that I am seeing". Paul says that this Wetiko vampire is not separate from us and does not even exists as an entity of its own. It is my belief that what Paul is describing is true, that this evil creator god or Yahweh/Cronus/Satan call it what you want, only lives because it sustains itself on our fears which is exactly what the Gnostics said of the Archons. I am not suggesting that these entities are not real, what I am suggesting is that real is not what we have been led to believe it to be. We are creating these entities and they are terrified of us finding out that they belong to us, and that we are their gods. So they have wiped our minds and programmed us to believe that they created us when in reality we created them.

"If I had a world of my own, everything would be nonsense.
Nothing would be what it is because everything would be what it isn't.
And contrary-wise;
what it is it wouldn't be,
and what it wouldn't be, it would."
- Walt Disney Alice In Wonderland 1951 (117)

IT IS my belief that this mind virus is about tricking the human being into using its own creative power to create the entity that wants to wipe us out, so that it can take our place. I believe that those at the apex of the death cult know this, so when they talk about bringing "Heaven down to Earth" you can be sure to invert that and see that what they are attempting to do is to get these poor sods in Silicon Valley to open a portal and a doorway that will give birth to their worst fears, which will devour them before they can say "Qbit".

There's somebody at the door
We hear you knocking mate
But you can't come in.

PLAYING WITH LUMINOUS FIRE

Have you ever wondered why the "gods" always pop themselves on up high? I mean the Christian god is lounging about in Heaven, Muhammad spoke with god through the Angel Gabriel (he gets about) In the cave of Hira near Mecca (not the bingo) which is about 2,000 feet in the air. Moses had a right old walk up Mount Sinai (Sin-A.I) to talk with god through a burning bush. The reason that god is often hanging about up a hill, especially in the Abrahamic regions, is because to the unconscious mind this programs believers to see themselves as a little human at the bottom of a mountain, on a long arduous journey to reach god who sits at the top. When it comes to the Devil or fallen angels like Lucifer and Satan they all reside below ground in the dark and damp yet fiery pits of hell, which is below them. None of this is by accident of course, because those who wrote those initial stories (and it wasn't god) understand human psychology on a level most fail to grasp. The most famous of these meetings with god that took place inconveniently up a massive mountain was when Moses met with the Old Testament god up Mount Sinai. The Bible verse goes a little something like this:

"In the third month after the people of Israel left Egypt, they came to the Sinai Desert on the same day. 2 They had left Rephidim and had come to the Sinai Desert. There Israel set up their tents in front of the mountain. 3 And Moses went up to God. The Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, "Say this to the house of Jacob and tell the people of Israel: 4 'You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to Myself. 5 Now then, if you will obey My voice and keep My agreement, you will belong to Me from among all nations. For all the earth is Mine. 6 You will be to Me a nation of religious leaders, a holy nation.' These are the words you will speak to the people of Israel." - Moses Meets God on Mount Sinai - Exodus 19:1 - 6

THIS SOUNDS like a nice little deal for the 12 Tribes of Israel who descended from Abraham , Noah and Adam, if you believe the biblical narrative. Notice I used the term "descended" which implies that all future generations fall down from the previous one, why are we not ascended from our forefathers? The "Nations" refer basically to the rest of the world, those who were not "chosen" by this god who was now having a chat with Moses as he led his people out of Egypt. The interesting thing about this part of the story is that the god that appeared to Moses at the top of Mount Sinai came in the form of a burning bush. Although this sounds like a valid description of thrush I would suggest that what Moses was actually talking to (if we accept the biblical narrative happened) was an electromagnetic charge which the writers of the bible described as "Luminous Fire". After speaking with this blaze of luminous fire poor old Moses had to trot back down the mountain and pass on the message to his tribe who were messing about in tents at the foot of the mountain. Luckily they all agreed to "do all that the Lord has said" so off Moses went back up the hill, knackered no doubt. God then tells Moses to pass on a message to his tribe that they should not go up on the mountain or touch anywhere around it because they will be killed, or perhaps electrocuted? The bible says they will be killed with "stones and arrows" but could this be a description of electricity? Then god said that once the tribes heard the sound of a horn (Siren) they would be safe to climb the mountain. The biblical texts then go on to say:

"On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning. A cloud covered the mountain, and a very loud horn sounded. All the people among the tents shook with fear. 17 Then Moses brought the people from among the tents to meet God. They stood at the base of the mountain. 18 Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the Lord came down upon it in fire. Its smoke went up like the smoke of a stove. And the whole mountain shook. 19 The sound of the horn became louder and louder. Moses spoke, and God answered him with thunder. 20 Then the Lord came down upon Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. The Lord called Moses to the top of the mountain, and he went up" - Exodus 19:16 - 20

I PROBABLY COULD NOT HAVE WRITTEN A BETTER account of an alien spacecraft descending to the top of the mountain, or of a portal opening up from which an entity stepped through into our reality. God then told Moses that some of the tribe could not come up because to look at god directly would destroy them (Blind them?) but he told Moses to go get his brother Aaron the High Priest (Willow) who ascended much of the mountain with Moses and a few of their special mates. Aaron was able to see god, but it was Moses who was give the commandments. At the foot of the mountain the people were able hear the thunder and see the lighting coming from the top of the mountain, but they were forbidden from seeing him. The biblical texts actually use the word "Lord" which comes from the word Baal, as in Balmoral. Baal is described as the "false god" in the biblical texts, but could it be that they were really the same entity all along? This entity then told Moses to build temples to him wherever they went and make "offerings" to him. Whilst up the mountain having a chat with a burning bush Moses was allegedly given all sorts of laws alongside the Ten Commandments, which included details on the construction of the Tabernacle and the Ark of The Covenant. It is my belief that the instructions given to the character of Moses could have been the blueprints for the creation of technology that today we would call a particle accelerator. Although I don't believe these events actually happened in the way they were scripted, I believe they contain elements of truth at their core. Could it be that this technology was set inside the mercy seat of the Ark of The Covenant which could then be used by someone with the correct blood/DNA type to talk with the gods? For anyone who understands freemason symbology it will come as no surprise that this is what this burning bush had to say in Exodus 33:1:

"33 The Lord said to Moses, "Go away from this place, you and the people you have brought out of the land of Egypt. Go to the land that I promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your children.' 2 I will send an angel before you. And I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. 3 Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey" - Exodus 33:1 -3

ALTHOUGH BOOKS such as 'The Bible Unearthed' say that there is no evidence of any of this happening, and I tend to agree. That does not mean that there are not some truths about the technological achievements of the ancient world hidden in these made up stories. I do believe that ancient civilisations were able to speak with beings from other dimensions, beings that they would believe to be gods. This is what I believe the Moses Mount Sinai story is an echo of, contact with inter dimensional beings. During the editing of this chapter I came across some research around a mysterious group called 'The Collins Elite'. This group of men are said to be a faction within the Pentagon that believe UAP's to be demonic entities in disguise, I will come back to the Collins Elite in the epilogue of this book.

THE GATEWAY TO THE "GODS" ?

The Large Hadron Collider at CERN is all about smashing atoms together, they are all smash addicts those lot. The LHC is made up of two beams going in opposite directions, think of it like two scalextric cars going in opposite directions around the track on the same side until they smash into each other. According to Mike Lamont (Operations Group Leader CERN) each beam is made up of bunches or protons, each bunch having about 100 billion protons inside of it. These bunches are said to be about 30cm long, and typically about a millimetre wide as they go around the ring (118). Powerful superconductive magnets keep the beams flying at nearly the speed of light, with the aim of making these proton bunches hit each other. Most of the protons miss each other but Mike says that about thirty of them hit each other, the rest continue on their route back around the loop. The mainstream belief is that atoms are mostly empty space, but they are not, this "empty space" is full of plasma. Think of plasma as the fabric of the universe or the dance floor on which the atoms, neutrons and such dance. As off November 2025 the LHC at CERN had achieved around 1 billion collisions per second. All of this messing about with magnetism and atoms is officially about discovering new particles, but those of us who are more conspiratorial minded believe that at the top tier of these companies they know that they are trying to open up portals or Black Saturn holes into other dimensions. It may sound mental but they do have the numbers 666 encoded into their logo, so that doesn't really help their public image does it? One of the experiments at CERN involving the atom smashing process is called ALICE, yes after Alice in Wonderland. The ALICE experiment is designed to study the conditions believed to have existed immediately after the Big Bang. If you look at images of two particles colliding at that speed it really does look like a star, and eventually a universe of what scientists call hadrons. The best way to describe this sort of science is that they break things apart in order to see how they work, so they cause chaos and from that chaos they attempt to understand how order is created.

THE FACT IS that these guys really have no idea what they are playing with, which I guess is fair, it's called an experiment for a reason. On the 8th of May 2025 the CERN website home.cern announced that the LHC had managed to turn lead into gold, which is alchemy (119). The most important thing to remember about all of these experiments using particle accelerators is that they are all experimenting within the confines of the speed of light. David Icke and others have suggested, and I agree, that the speed of light is not the fastest speed, but the fastest speed within the simulation that we call reality. This would mean that these guys have no idea what is going on when they smash these particles together outside of the speed of light, and how that echo's out into the universe and beyond into realities beyond our 3D matrix. So could it be that the Ark of The Covenant was a machine, or allegory of a machine, that was able to split atoms (the veil) between this world (beyond the speed of light) into the one next door? If this technology was given to the character known as Moses on Mount Sinai by a god that appeared through luminous fire, then could it be that this was not a god at all, but an inter dimensional being that appeared to Moses because his bloodline was allowed to keep some of their heightened abilities (sight beyond sight) when the gods of the Old Testament (inter-dimensional beings) dialled the human body down by flooding the earth? I would say that this makes about as much sense as anything else. If this is true, then what these lunatics are attempting to achieve has nothing to do with communicating with the infinite god off all things, but an inter-dimensional demon that Moses believed was Yahweh. A demon who may be the same evil creator god that the gnostics called Yaldabaoth. Strangely enough I arrived at all of these questions before I had even heard of The Collins Elite and what they believe UAP's to be.

AGNI AND OTHERS

Yahweh and the burning bush are not the only examples of gods that could be seen as inter-dimensional beings appearing like luminous fire. Agni is a Vedic god who personifies fire itself, he is depicted with three heads, flaming eyes and hair and interestingly seven (Kabbalah Completion) fiery tongues. His body is said to omit seven rays of light or flames and has a purple crown of smoke. In the Vedic belief system Agni serves as a messenger between human beings and the gods who also carries offerings through the sacrificial fire (Portal?). He represents transformation and purification, both in a destructive and creative sense. This matches many of the traits given to Shiva whose statue stands on the CERN complex in Switzerland. Agni is also said to have three forms, he comes as fire on earth, as lightning in the atmosphere and as the sun in the Sky. In the ancient Jainism Agni contains soul and fire body beings. Could this be describing what came through its portal or even what comes out of an atomic collision? I also wonder if Revelations 9:11 is about an atomic explosion opening up a portal that allowed Abaddon to escape from the bottomless pit?

ANOTHER ENTITY that can be connected with fire or smoke are the Jinn or Djinn of the Islamic faith. These entities are said to have been created from "smokeless fire" which I believe could be a valid description of electricity. The words marijin and samum are both used to describe this smokeless fire and samum means "scorching/blazing fire" in Arabic. The term samum can also be related to the word "toxins" or "to poison" which would make this smokeless fire a poisonous hellfire. Samum is also interpreted as "the worst-fire". Whilst it is important to get a grasp on the origins of these words it is another thing entirely to end up going in circles arguing over the exact nuance of it all. In totality it means something like a poisonous scorching, hot wind and blaze of the worst kind that is also smokeless. I would say that is a pretty good description of electricity, which might be a description of lightening or a more concentrated electric current from a machine. The jinn are said to have come from the Jann who are believed to have inhabited the earth before Adam, and were ruled by a king called Jann bin Jann. What is absolutely fascinating is that the term Jann means "to hide" and can also refer to an agile snake, what are the chances hey! Jann and Jinn are also where we get the concept of a Jinni from, which is often depicted as a supernatural serpent like creature who is released from a magical pot. Jinn are not strictly an Islamic concept and can be found in various Pagan beliefs. They are said to be neither positive or negative but can be used for either. The Jinn are composed of thin and subtle bodies (when they can be seen) and are capable of shape-shifting. They often appear in the form of a snake, lizard or even human beings. These chaps seem to fancy human beings a bit and their encounters often come with some sort of sexual interaction. This all fits in with the themes behind Rosemarys Baby and Crowley's Moonchild, which as I wrote earlier connects to Jeffery Epstein and whatever was going on under his private Island and Zorro Ranch. A mainstream description of the Jinn describes them as inhabiting "an unseen, parallel world and can interact with the human world in various ways, including shape-shifting, possession, and influencing events". I believe this is an excellent description of what the gnostics would call an Archon.

THE VOICE on Thunder Mountain

Another interpretation of Moses speaking with the luminous fire on Mount Sinai is what they were actually worshiping a volcano. This concept comes from the legendary Jordan Maxwell. As I say, I am just putting this information together so that you can make up your own mind. Perhaps these guys were worshipping volcano's back then, but today this information could be used as a reason to introduce portal creating technologies. Jordan says that "The word Volcano comes from the Latin volcano god Vulcan, or Vulcanus which is derived from the older Cretan deity Vel-chanos" (120). The name Vulcan is perhaps most famous for being the name of a fictional planet in the Star Trek series, as well as a Roman god of fire. It is also the last planetary phase in the Rosicrucian Cosmo Conception. Sticking with Star Trek for a moment, we have the Vulcan hand salute which is when a persons holds up their hand palm forward and splits the four fingers into two groups with the thumb pointing out to the side, making a sort of V shape, This sign is based on a hand sign used by Jewish Kohanim priests as a blessing in Orthodox synagogues (Syn/Sin/Sinai/Synthesis). Amazon even released a robot called Vulcan that can assist with household tasks. Jordan goes on to explain that the biblical text say that Yahweh appeared as a "pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night" which he believes to be an accurate description of an active volcano. The bible also says that the voice of god was "thunder" which Jordan explains, is Kolot (Koloth) in Hebrew which also means "voices". So in this interpretation the voice coming from the mountain which may have been a volcano was actually thunder, and to be honest this makes logical sense to me. At this point let's remind ourselves that there is no evidence that a man named Moses wandered across a desert for forty years with a load of his mates (where are the bones of the deceased humans and animals who died along the way?). So we have to take all of this as allegory, as well as a method of explaining what was going on at the time in a broader context. I am more inclined to believe that King Josiah made the whole thing up as way to unite the kingdoms of Judah and Israel in and around 640-609BCE. Having said that, this does not mean that some of the stories that made it into the Old Testament did not carry the DNA of some true events.

JORDAN MAXWELL DESCRIBES how Moses went up Mount Sinai and saw a burning bush, he says "of course he saw a burning bush, the god damn mountain was burning" as it was a Volcano. He then says that Moses came back down the mountain and "his face was glowing" to which he adds "of course it was glowing, you try going up to a volcano and see if your face don't glow". This is where the law was said to have been given to Moses, half way up a Volcano or via some technology that was allowing some other entity to talk to them through a portal?. Moses, the sausage fingers that he was, dropped the tablets with the law on them and they broke in two. Jordan says this is where we get the term "broke the law" from. In the story, whilst up the mountain/volcano Moses was given the blueprint of the Ark of The Covenant. Jordan explains that the idea of the Ark of The Covenant was copied (they appropriate everything) from the Egyptians, Akakkadia and Chaldean people. Jordan says that the Ark "symbolised the female womb" which would make sense if it was a technology that could create some sort of portal between worlds, giving birth to beings from another place. Now let's be honest, these dark occultists are obsessed with willies and fannies aren't they. We have the Oval Office in the White House which is a fanny, we have the Obelisk which is the willy of Osiris, and even some churches have the arches over the door which represent the entrance to a ladies womb. Jordan even says that it is represented by two pillars Jachin and Boaz at the entrance to Solomons Temple, and today adorn the doorways of all freemasons lodges. Jordan says that Jachin means "to make him firm" and Boaz means "eagerness and strength". In fact the entire holy temple in Jerusalem is a clear representation of a sex cult, in that the Holy of Holies is the womb in which the Ark of the Covenant (portal tech) resides with the light of the Shekinah, she is the female aspect of their god. As Jordan says, it's all sex, drugs and mushroom cults, even an early version of the Priests Mitre was based on the magic mushroom. Which is hilarious when you find yourself playing Super Mario Brothers off your tits on mushrooms at 2am on a Sunday morning...allegedly.

I THINK it is fair to say that there is ample evidence that these were some sort of volcano worshiping cult, yet at the same time I believe there is also a wealth of supporting evidence that these guys were using technology to tap into realms and communicate with entities that exist in worlds parallel to ours.

Whatever the case maybe, what is clear to me is that these guys were messing about with something that they did not understand back then and still do not fully understand today. Although I highly doubt the specifics of these stories, I do believe they carry the DNA of truth over from much older civilisations such as Atlantis and Lumeria. The likes of Elon Musk, technicians at CERN, Anthony Levandowski, Jeff Bezos, Ray Kurzweil, George Church, Sam Altman, Peter Thiel, Mark Zuckerberg, Curtis Yarvin (Dark Enlightenment), MEGA Group, Chabad Lubavitch, Zionists, Satanists, Messianic loons and all the rest, are playing with a substance that they do not understand and cannot control. These guys are messing about with luminous fire and we are all likely to get burnt by their stupidity.

A WHOLE NEW WORLD

As we come to the end of the book I think it would be good to bring together all of the research and give an overall view of how I believe this cult want their new world (Olam-Haba) to operate. We have a couple of scenarios here depending on the "bait and switch" in Chapter 17. If these dark occultists succeed in creating a quantum Qliphoth (shell) to trap this evil creator god entity, then they will become the rulers of this new world. But if these guys and girls are being fooled into creating this rip in veil by a demonic entity, then it will be the ruler (Archon) of this new world. There's also a third outcome, which is that these guys are all totally mental and they will end up messing up this planet for the rest of us, which I think its probably the most likely of all the outcomes.

REMEMBER we do not have to believe in the theories i have proposed in this book for them to! This entire book is about getting into the mind of these lunatics and decoded what they believe, it is about asking bizarre questions of bizarre people. If you are trying to stop a serial killer or bring down a cult, you need to understand how they think. To untangle this web of global deceit we have to get into the wiring of these lunatics whilst holding on to our own sanity at the same time. I suggest a dash of humour will get you through it all.

NEOM: Crossing The Line

So what will this city look like? One of the best examples I can give you at present is the dystopian looking Smart City being built in Saudi Arabia called 'NEOM'. This mega smart city is the brain child of the Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed Bin Salman Al Saud (they love their names). This beast of a city is said to be costing the Saudi Royals (Sabbatean?) around £400bn. Some of this money appears to be coming from the US tax payer who have recently handed over $142bn as part of a Saudi defence deal. The central part of this mega city is the construction that they Call 'The Line' which is a single line linear city (prison) settlement that will have no cars, streets or flights and even includes a fake moon. The Line is going to be a 110 mile city that exists literally in a straight line. The Line is basically the Indian Cast System meets Logans Run on meth! There will be three levels to the city, the top level will be for citizens, the middle level will be for "physical infrastructure" which I think means employment, and the lowest subterranean level will be for the mega shuttle system. Residence of NEOM will be monitored by artificial intelligence that uses a predictive data model in a way to "improve" the day to day lives of citizens, this is where the pre-crime technology will likely be deployed. Oh but it gets worse, residents will be paid to submit data (Da'at) to the artificial intelligence mind of the Line. If you are thinking that this has no connection to the messianic agenda of the likes of Chabad Lubavitch well, it does. Just six months after leaving the White House Chabad follower Jared Kushner secured a $2bn investment from the Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman Al Saud (121). Many will be shocked that a Chabad Messianic follower of the Jewish faith would be in business with the Saudi Royals when they are allegedly Sunni Muslims. But when you realises that these are all Sabbatean occultists it begins to make sense. It is going to be a hell of a shock to those of the Islamic faith when it comes to destruction of the Al-Aqsa Mosque to be replaced by a Third "Jewish" Temple because these Saudi Royals might just stand aside and let it happen. Remember all three of the Abrahamic religions are based around Saturn symbology such as the Kaaba, Star of David and the Crucifix. This is why it was no surprise to see Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman meeting with US President and Chabad stooge Donald Trump at the White House in November 2025, its one big cult (122). This is the same Saudi Crown Prince who many believe to have been involved with the brutal and horrific murder of journalist Jamal Khashoggi. Mr Khashoggi was a fierce critique of the Saudi government and was murdered in 2018, a murder which even US intelligence said was ordered by the Crown Prince (123). There's a reason why he is called the "Crown" Prince, and I believe this is because he is working for the Triple Crown Corporation which is riddled with Sabbateans and satanists. Could it be that the Saudi Royals descend from Donmeh Jews who are in reality Sabbateans? The Donmeh were forced to convert to the Islamic faith after Sabbatai Zevi was given the choice between converting or death. In 1666 Zevi was arrested by Ottoman Turks and given the wonderful choice between converting to Islam or death. So as a man of supreme faith (sarcasm) he chose to covert to Islam. But as we have learnt from the principles of the qliphoth, this was just an outer shell in which to hide. Because these were not really Jewish to begin with, they were Sabbateans and now they had been given a backdoor into the Islamic faith, allowing them to turn it inside out from within. So when you have the likes of Tommy Robinson (owned by Zionists) pitting the people of England against the Muslim brotherhood, what you have is a joker in the pack causing chaos between the polarities of two allegedly apposing "sides" which are in fact BOTH Sabbatean Satanist. They is why they all lick the wall and Tommy is no different, so don't fall for it. Tommy is not answering to the Zionists, he is at the mercy of a Sabbatean cult with a Messianic ideology, whether he knows it or not. Taking all of this into account, it makes sense to build your first mega smart city a six hour drive from where the third temple will be built on Temple Mount. Perhaps NEOM and the third temple will be connected underground via a shuttle similar to the one rumoured to be under Dulce Base in New Mexico?

IF THIS SOUNDS TOO FAR FETCHED THEN go check out something called the "Abraham Shield" online. It is described as a "coalition for regional security" and features all the main messianic players on their website, including Benjamin Netanyahu, Donald Trump and the Saudi Crown Prince Mohammad Bin Salman (124). The basic principle of the Abraham Shield is to use other countries that surround modern day Zionist Israel as shields, literally. Again we come back to the principle of the qliphoth in that the cult will be using the surrounding countries as a shell or husk to protect the Messianic agenda whilst it rolls on, and don't think for a minute this includes the welfare of the citizens of modern day Israel, it does not. As the boundaries of fiefdom expand under the cult's Greater Israel Project the boundaries of the "shield" or husk must expand also, as the virus of Satanic Sabbateanism expands out to the rest of the world. The Crown Prince wanted to build a bridge linking NEOM to Egypt and had allegedly agreed with Egyptian President Abdel Fattah A-Sisi to get two islands from Egypt in the Red Sea. This apparently angered the Egyptians, but in a show off support the leaders of "Israel" sent a letter to Bin Salman informing him of their support to establish the city. They are all connected and their central agenda is about playing out the lunacy of their biblical end times. But as I suggested in Chapter 12: Armageddon of The Brain, they are likely being played off against each other with the ultimate goal being to leave the bloodlines of the elite standing.

THE WORD "NEOM" means "future" in Arabic and "new" in Greek, so I guess we are looking at the NEOM world order of the cult. The size of the mega smart city is enormous, intended to cover an area the size of Belgium, located at the far north of the Saudi Arabian Red Sea coastline. I could be wrong but something in my gut tells me that NEOM could be proposed as an option to house all of those who are now homeless and destitute in Palestine. What better way to experiment with your brand new digital hell hole than offering it as the solution to the problem your cult created in the first place. Some of the more outlandish claims for NEOM have been that it will have an artificial moon (like the real artificial one perhaps?) as well as glow-in-the-dark beaches, flying drone-powered taxis and robotic butlers that clean homes and wipe your bum. According to an article in the Guardian published on the 4th May 2020 titled "It's Being Built On Our Blood: the true cost of Saudi Arabia's $500bn mega city"(125), there will also be a Jurassic Park like attraction featuring "animatronic lizards"... they are taking the piss out of us all. The real tragedy of NEOM is that its construction has resulted in the alleged deaths of thousands of workers, as well as the forceful removal of at least 20,000 members of the indigenous Huwaitat tribe. So the same old colonial bullshit from the Triple Crown Corporation and their Sabbatean Satanic stooges. As of this writing the NEOM project seems to be faltering but it is part of the Crown Princes' 2030 agenda inline with the rest of the cults 2030 Agenda.

CHASING WATERFALLS In Singapore

Whilst most researchers are looking to China in regard of their worryingly dystopian trials of various social credit systems, and rightly so, over in Singapore there is a sister system that I believe has the potential to reach the same level of dystopian governance as a social credit system. The city of Singapore has been described as "the world's smartest city" due to their Smart Nation initiative. Some of the technocratic roll out in Singapore happened during the Covid era, when the government of Singapore launched an app called TraceTogether. This app used bluetooth to identify close contacts of people who had tested positive for covid. Alarmingly over 92% of the population in Singapore used the app, and for the very few who did not use a smartphone there was an Apple Watch size gadget. One resident in Singapore called Lin told the MIT Technology Review journalist Zeyi Yang in an article title 'The complicated danger if surveillance states' that "They didn't say it was compulsory (126). But just like in China, you couldn't enter a public place if you didn't have the contact tracing app". Of course this was all supposed to be temporary and strictly for health monitoring which was never going to be the case. Chin, also being interviewed for the article' went on to say "within the same year, the police were using that technology to track suspects, and they basically openly said " "well, we changed our minds". Although there was pushback from the public that forced the police to stop using it (they say) Lin says "it's Just an example of how easily one use (of this technology) can lead to another". In fact the state police force are still able to access the data from the TraceTogether app but are require to go through a stricter process to get permission. In 2025 a small gathering for gay pride was organised in Singapore, those who wanted to attend had to scan a QR code on the way in, have their bags check, and go through multiple levels of security. All of this data was then sent to the state police, all for wanting to go to a small gay pride gathering. In Singapore, processions are forbidden and all protests must be stationary, which is kind of defeating the object of a protest isn't it. Having to ask for permission to protest is so satanically inverted it is almost funny. This gay pride event took place at Singapores Speakers Corner which is the only place in the nation where gatherings of more than five people are permitted as a protest. Again if you have to ask permission to protest then it is not a protest. Speakers Corner is positioned right next to a police station. Residents in Singapore say that freedoms of assembly and freedoms of expression are severely restricted, and with everything you do tracked and traced 24/7 it sounds like they are way ahead of the massive operation it will take to eventually roll this out across the whole of China. A young gay man in a documentary on the @BestDoc YouTube channel said that this sort of surveillance "Instills some level of fear and psychological discomfort" on the residents of Singapore, so it has the opposite effect that it is allegedly supposed to have (127). This technology does not make you feel more safe and secure, it makes you feel hunted. Singapore did not even exists until around 60 years ago and is said to be around the size of New York with around 5.5 million citizens. The country allegedly has the best quality of life, best education system, best healthcare and longest life expectancy. This is a country where most people are either of Chinese or Malaysian heritage, but the English language has been imposed on them as the official language so that the country can compete on the world stage in business.

SINGAPORE IS SUPPOSED to be at the cutting edge of technology and artificial intelligence but one look will tell you that this is what happens when you replace humans with machines. They call it a meritocracy where the most skilled, talented and highest IQ get the best paid jobs, but in reality what paid work is there when you have created a robot to do it for you? Robots are used in restaurants and hotels to serve customers, with one lady saying the best thing about the robots is that "they don't have moods". On the flip side of this the crime rate is negligible and residents say you can leave your phone or wallet on a restaurant table and no-one will take it. But like everything in life, this low level of "crime" comes at a severe cost to a person everyday freedoms. The list of rules in this young city are said to be endless, for instance you are not allowed to walk around naked in your own home! I mean who the fuck is watching you and why are they not arrested for being perverts? But in a land where corporal punishment and the death sentence are still enforced you might want to just pop a towel on, This is what happens when you put "progress" over freedoms, and the monster of the state begins to swallow up the people who breath life into it. Worryingly this is what the governments of the world over call the "city of the future". Singapore is a strange place, on the surface it looks incredible with huge waterfalls and forests in doors, if that takes your fancy. Yet with every move you are being tacked and traced by technology of some sort. They also have bright orange R2D2 looking things wobbling about the streets as parking attendants. These ridiculous looking robots track cars outside the airports, and if you are caught parking your car wrongly then an alarm kicks off and you have thirty seconds to move your car! welcome to fucking Singapore, enjoy the fucking waterfalls. Then you have the mechanical dogs (I'm not joking) which look like pissed up crabs. These things waddle around public parks barking orders at passers by. During the Covid scam these dogs were employed by the nation to shout at passers by to "stand one meter apart". If you refused to do so it would bite you on the arse (I'm joking). Then we have the petrol robots that see everything whilst feeding that information back to an artificial intelligence system. I know what you are thinking, well you can just run from it and it's screwed if you go down any staircases! well no, because these dystopian detectives can send out their own drones if required that hatch out of their backs. In the primary schools they have CCTV in every classroom, where the head teacher can see everything that is going on at all times. Imagine what growing up in this dystopian hell hole does to your psyche. From the time you are a toddler to when you finally leave school and head out into the working world you are tracked and traced 24/7 and told off by robot dogs. According to international rankings Singapore students are the best in the world, which if you put that through your Orwellian translator app means they do as they are bloody told in fear of the consequences. During the Covid "pandemic" Singapore rolled out something called the Singpass, which sounds like a karaoke game on the playstation but in reality was a track and trace system that stands for Singapore Personal Access. In true satanically inverted fashion this pass gives the state access to you, whilst giving you some access to public sector services. While the Singpass is not mandatory it might as well be, as it is required to be able to access over 800 agencies and business and essential public services such as insurance. This pass holds information such as your ID card, passport, driving licence, medical records, bank card and the all important vaccine status. The software is constantly promoted on TV and works on facial recognition, the selling point is that you will no longer have to carry a wallet. What the police get in return is access to all of your data, including where you are and what you are buying. They can tell if you are sick and even see your face shape. If that isn't bad enough male residence have to complete two years of full-time mandatory military service which includes the Singapore armed services (SAF) or Home Team (police or civil defence). Remember this is what the governments of the world are calling the city if the future.

SINGAPORE GAINED 'INDEPENDENCE' from British rule in 1959 and a lot has changed since. My personal belief is that much like the "independence" of the United States from British rule in 1776, it is all smoke and mirrors and really Singapore still answers to the same global Triple Crown Corporation as the West. I believe places like China and Singapore as well as Saudi Arabia are being used to incubate the Smart City models which are about to be rolled out in the West if the likes of Tony Blair and Trilateral Commission stooge Kier Starmer manage to convince enough people in England to accept a digital ID. Singapore's first Prime Minister was Lee Kuan Yew who was Prime Minister of the country for 31 years, and he transformed what was once a fairly underdeveloped nation into the highly developed place it is today. This came at a price however, and the price to pay was strict obedience to law and order. A man in the @Bestdoc film named Calvin was born before 1959, he was asked by the filmmakers if he thought his family had enough freedom in Singapore, he replied "That's a deep question. if you are an animal in a cage what is freedom? right, if all you know is that and I give you a bigger cage that's freedom". But it gets even more disturbing, the Singapore police are rarely seen on the streets because the people of the city know they are being tracked and traced 24/7 and have grown up in that psychology. So with plenty of time on their hands the Singapore police have their own YouTube channel, yes you read that correctly. This channel is regularly updated with videos made by the police of staged and imaginary crisis such as terrorist attacks, of which there has never been one in Singapore. A few years back the state broadcaster and police released an American/British style crime show like Crime Watch with a reality tv twist. Each month on Crime Watch a real crime is narrated and performed by actors but because everybody knows they are being watched 24/7 most of the stories are petty crimes. This serves the purpose of reminding residents that they will still be arrested and prosecuted for the slightest infringement of the rules. It is pretty clear that Singapore is a one party authoritarian state and those within this documentary say exactly that. Though they officially have a democratic system it is all an illusion. This can be applied to fake democracies the world over, and when you understand that the blue and the red team are both polarities in an alchemical magic trick then you understand that you don't have a vote, you have the illusion of choice and nothing more. For more information on the dystopian truth of Singapore and the system the cult wants to roll out in the West I highly recommend the documentary 'Singapore: The Perfect City or a Dystopian State?' which you can find on the @bestdoc YouTube channel (127).

DRIP-FED DIGITAL ID

I have only mentioned a couple of cities that are already digital dystopias, but virtually all major cities are slowly drip feeding their populations into the internet of things. The stealth like nature of the introduction of smart technologies, apps, virtual realities and artificial intelligence is being put together piecemeal and most people have no idea, even though I think they can feel something is just not right about all of this. I am 44 years old so I was only about twenty when the internet became a common part of everyday life, and even then it was not an essential part, now in 2025 it is. The drip feeding of this technology into the psyche of humanity (literally eventually) will become the norm by the time my grand children are here. The overtone window has been shattered and digitally restored so that these poor sods will be born plugged in, again literally at some point in time. Major cities that are already connected to the Internet of all things (IoT) include Barcelona, Amsterdam, New York, Copenhagen, Oslo, Zurich and London, so it is of no surprise that in 2025 the government of UK have started the push for a roll out of digital ID's.

IN 2025 WE saw the gaslighting of conflicts between those of the Christian faith and the Muslim faith, led by Israel first Tommy Robinson. In the years leading up to 2025 illegal immigration was allowed to happen not least because of George Soros and his Open Borders agenda. This was all part of causing chaos in the West so that the country cried out for something to be done, gaslit by Robinson and his mates, and that something will be a digital ID. If you follow Tommy and his new group of social media podcasters, such as Liam Tuffs, who's security company is called 'Bauer Security', Bauer being the original name of the Rothschilds, then ask yourself how does it benefit the government to play the English off against those of the Muslim faith? Well it gives Keir Starmer a reason to introduce digital ID's. Do you really believe this is just an unfortunate side effect of the situation we find ourselves in here in the UK, or was it more likely an alchemical process of problem reaction solution? So, here we are in 2025 and the UK is pushing forward with its plans to roll out digital ID's, one that the government say will be "mandatory for the right to work in the UK" by the end of Parliament, cheers Tommy! Yes we have a very real problem with illegal immigration, but that problem has been coldly created by the Triple Crown Corporation via the City of London and gaslit by the likes of Tommy Robinson, in my opinion. This is what the UK Government website says about Digital ID's:

"A new digital ID scheme will help combat illegal working while making it easier for the vast majority of people to use vital government services. Digital ID will be mandatory for Right to Work checks by the end of the Parliament. The scheme will be available to all UK citizens and legal residents, saving time by ending the need for complicated identity checks which often rely on copies of paper records" - (128)

WHAT WAS the benefit given to the people of Singapore when their government rolled out their Singapp? oh, it was that you would not need to carry a wallet anymore. But if you really think about it, if everything is in one place then you only have one option if something goes wrong. What if you happened to annoy the technocrats by parking on the wonk? The fact is that the Internet of things, smart cities, AI surveillance, data harvesting and total control of everything you do cannot happen without a digital ID. They need a system where all of your data is stored in one place, and eventually this will become a chip or nanostructure inserted into the human body (human 2.0), a body that your grandchildren will be born into. In an earlier chapter I pointed out that DATA is an anagram of Da'at which means hidden knowledge in Kabbalah. This knowledge of what you do at all times, say to others, and even think is not supposed to be free to everyone, it is supposed to be hidden from others. The entire purpose of this technology is to do what all psychopaths try to do, they try to breakdown your boundaries so that they can control everything that you do, like a puppet on a string. Digital ID's are the foot in to the door that will kick your privacy out of the back windows of your kitchen, shattering it in the neighbours garden for everyone to see, we cannot let it happen here in the UK.

THE GOV.UK WEBSITE goes on to say that it will make access to tax records easier, as well as access to social services just like the NHS App that is already here in the UK. What they won't tell you is that Peter Thiel's Palantir has been granted access to all of that juicy NHS DATA on you. The official line is that Palantir will "Integrate and manage patient data across England, which will be used to improve efficiency and care coordination". Palantir is an intelligence agency affiliated tech company who specialise in making your data mean something, or to put it another way, they weaponise it. Peter Thiel claims to be a Christian and recently gave some talks concerning the anti-christ. Whilst being a previous funder of Chabad controlled US President Donald Trump as well as a recent funder of Trumps right hand man JD Vance, I would suggest that these are not the type of guys you want having access to your medical data, seeing that they are into all of the messianic madness that I have covered throughout this book. The UK government website taps into the immigration issue that they caused as a reason to bring in this digital dystopia. The government claims that this ID will make sure only those who have right to work in the UK will find jobs, as if those who are giving them work care. This is why they need to get rid of cash, simply because if a person does not qualify for a bank account how can you pay them? The gov.uk website says that your free Digital ID will be stored securely on your smartphone (secure from who?) and employers will be required to check it for your right to work. If this is not setting alarm bells ringing then you have a hard of hearing. The site says that this new ID will be "authoritative proof of who someone is and their residency in this country". They go on to say that one benefit is that your information can be updated immediately, which it will because you will be tracked and traced in real-time. To make sure that those with additional needs can use them the friendly guys in the cult have made sure that the technology includes biometric face detection. And don't worry about third parties getting access to your data, this will only ever happen if the UK data protection laws will change, did I say that the City of London create the laws in the UK?. One of the sectors that the UK Government are working with on the digital ID is the Ministry of Defence, and who does the MoD have a working partnership with? yes Palantir. On the 19th of September ukauthority.com reported that Palantir had invested £1.5billion in the UK, with London "becoming a hub for Palantir European Defence Arm" (129)... um didn't we vote out of the European Union a few years back or did I dream it? So whilst the British are being pitted against muslims the technocrats are building the digital ID platform to "solve" all these issues. Did I tell you that Elon Musk recently paid Tommy Robinsons legal fees? The article goes on to say that "The company has also announced plans for London to become the base for Palantir's European defence business, establishing Britain as a hub for defence technology innovation across Europe". The fact is Tommy winds them up and the technocrats hit them out of the park.

THE X EVERYTHING App

So we arrive back at the technocrats don't we, with the likes of Peter Thiel, Alex Karp and of course Elon Musk. I believe that these are just front men for these companies, their job is to give you the impression that they are home grown geniuses, who hang about like the guys in the 1985 movie The Breakfast Club. Eventually all of this technology has to be brought together if they want to "repair" the world. If these lunatics get their way this place will become a digital downgraded copy of the organism that it already is. We know that the end game is to connect the human mind/brain to the internet of things, but before that they need to get everyone on the everything app, and this is something that Elon Musk is already speaking. As early as 2022 Elon was already talking about his everything app and said that the purchase of Twitter (X) was a step towards creating the X, the everything app.

THE CONCEPT of the everything app, commonly called a "super app" is incredibly popular in Asia (Singapore) and can be seen in WeChat. These apps incorporate all of your services into one mobile platform such as messaging, online shopping, banking, social media, social services, vaccine statues, medical and criminal records and... well pretty much everything for the digital age. It has been described as the Swiss army knife of mobile apps that has a function for every need. WeChat has over 1 billion daily users who use it for everything from accessing the internet to hailing a cab. In June of 2022 Musk said "there is no equivalent to a Super app like WeChat outside of Asia. You basically live on WeChat" (130). Whilst E-Commerce and hailing a cab is one thing, would you really want Elon's xAI to have access to everything that you say do and think? XAI and XCorp both now come under XAI Holdings Corp, of which Musk is the controlling shareholder, but not by much. Others include Sequoia Capital, Black-Rock and Vy Capital. As of writing these shareholders are joined by some seriously concerning Sovereign Wealth Funds which include Kingdom Holdings (owned by Saudi Prince Alwaleed Bin Talal) and the Qatar Investment Authority. What this means is that these guys will have a very real vested interest in Musk's everything app, and therefore access to the data you share on that app. It is common knowledge that Peter Thiel and Elon Musk have a long history going way back to their Paypal days and they continue to work together via joint investments in Space X. So here we have a clear example of how the UK Governments digital ID will be connected (business ties) with both Elon Musk and Peter Thiel via Palantir. Peter Thiel is then in business with Musk through Space X, and thus they all connected together into one corporate syndicate. Peter Thiel and Musk are one thing, but then we have the Saudi Royals and Qatar Investment Funds who are also attached to Chabad follower Jared Kushner. I am editing this chapter on the 31st January 2026 and just last week Vladimir Putin openly stated that he would not stand in the way of Donald Trumps attempts to take control of Greenland (131). What most people will not understand is that both Trump and Putin are close to Chabad and that the Technate of Elon Musks grandfather Joshua Haldeman required control of Greenland, alongside Canada, Venezuela and the Caribbean Islands. The pincer movement is closing in on Europe and most people have absolutely no idea. It is my belief that the US and Israel make up one side of the pincers, whilst Russia and China make up the other. I believe all of this is being controlled by the cult from the Vatican, Washington DC and the City of London. I sincerely hope that I am wrong but I am starting to see the squeeze.

ON NOVEMBER 13TH 2025 Elon put out a tweet saying that X Money was "coming out soon"(132). He tweeted that people should join him if they wanted to be part of the everything app, and they will literally be part of that cybernetic system if these messianic occultists get their way. X Money is being created in partnership with Visa, and will be incorporated into the X app as it slithers its way towards becoming the everything app that Musk dreams about. X CEO Linda Yaccarino, who was the leader of the Taskforce on Future Work for the World Economic Forum, said that we should start to see the transition of the X platform into the everything app in 2025. An article on iottechnews.com titled 'X will become an 'everything app' this year' publish on the 29th January 2025 said that Elon will find it hard to achieve his dreams of an everything app because he needs to "convince sceptical consumers to trust the platform"(133). Actually he needs to convince the public to trust him and they absolutely do not, not outside of the right wing nationals anyway. The reason why WeChat worked in Asia is because the populations there have been born into a society that is far more compliant that we are in the West. Most of us will not be told what to do, and certainly not by a few geeks, Saudi businessmen and Israeli owned government assets. So they need to convince you that an everything app is for your own safety, and right now they are using the threat of illegal immigration and Islam. This gives me hope because outside of the X app and social media most people are just getting along with their neighbours no matter what faith, race or creed they are, most people just want an easy life. The cult understands this so they have to cause chaos and fear so that people will scream for something to be done, anything that makes them feel safe again. The sad fact is that these dark occultists, satanists, messianic loons, technocrats and political psychopaths are the real threat and not your neighbours or the Mosque, Synagogue or Church down the end of the road. We don't need the cult to protect us, we need them to fuck off and leave us alone.

WE ARE IMMORTAL

As bleak as it may seem at times, it is also a bit funny isn't it. There is a fine line between comedy and tragedy and this is why we tend to laugh in the most serious moments. Life is utterly absurd, and pretty ridiculous when you zoom out and look at it from a thousands miles above. You are able to do this because you are already immortal, you are already the eternal watcher having the experience of being human. Last night I was watching a program about infinity (it went on forever) and they had a group of rather nice scientists, physicists, philosophers and mathematicians on and they were discussing their ideas about infinity. One of the mathematician said that infinity may have no end but it does have a beginning, and this got me thinking that this beginning for a human being is the moment you become conscious, which kicks off a flow of numbers. Counting starts at the zero, which is the circle of eternity. After you leave the zero point you are off to the races counting upwards one at a time. But if this never ends then where does it begin again? And if you never end then where were you before the moment you become aware in your human form? Was there a beginning if there is never an end? And where did I put my glasses?

MY GUESS IS that you and I are already immortal, in that we are all that is and every that can be. As David Icke put's it "We are all that is and ever can be having a human experience", and I think that is as well as anyone else has ever put it. This part of the experience doesn't last forever, we know that because we die and we leave this place, but my gut feeling is that this is just a chapter in a never ending story that loops like the ripples in water after you drop a pebble in the river. The sad thing is that these dark occults are desperately attempting to grab hold of the water that makes up that one ripple, and hold on to it, whilst nature seeks to expand and proceed. The hilarious thing to me is, if you ceased to exists how would you know it? I mean how would I be conscious of my own extinction if I wasn't still conscious in some way? it makes no sense because you are awareness. Quantum physics shows that an atom can be in two places (states) at the same time, and this is because it holds within it all the possibilities of what it can become. You are quantum, you are the stuff that stuff is made up of and that makes you immortal.

THE PART of you that is not immortal is the state in which you exist right now, and we call this state the human state. The death cult cannot live forever because forever doesn't exist. And how would they even know they were going to live forever if tomorrow is never guaranteed to come? In fact we know that what we see with our eyes is the past because it takes light time to get to reach our eyes and then to be interpreted by our brains. At the same time we can imagine infinite futures and often spend much of our time worrying about them. So in reality we live in the present, looking at the past whilst imagining the future and then acting out in the present. Another way to put it would be to say that as long as there is a NOW then you are immortal because you are the NOW. What the cult have failed to realise is that no matter how much they try to put a choke hold on a stream of water the water will find a way around them or through them, and we are the water. The likes of Elon Musk, Peter Thiel, Donald Trump, Thomas Huxley, Benjamin Netanyahu, Rabbi Schneerson, L Ron Hubbard, Jeffery Epstein, Jack Parsons, Aleister Crowley and anyone else who has attempted to control the flow of life have missed that life is about the quality of time not the quantity. What is the point in being here forever (which is an immeasurable ideal) if you are spending all that time fighting, worrying, scheming and trying to hold onto something that is designed to change? Life is a moment and there will be another one along in a minute, so let it go. As Ronan Keating so brilliantly sang "Life is a rollercoaster just gotta ride it".

SO WHAT MAKES US IMMORTAL? how can we live forever if this system wasn't designed for us to stay here permanently? My belief is our lives here are stored forever in the memories of others, which is an imprint of the positive or negative effect we have on each other. We live on through music, movies, clothes, art, dance, laughter, memories, books, information and stories. All of these made us feel something that caused us to carry an energetic imprint of that moment in our hearts. The moment you first saw the love of your life was in the now, that moment you first heard your favourite song was in the now, all of these NOW moments are energetic heart beats that live on forever in the consciousness of us all. One day someone will hopefully pick up this book, perhaps in 200 years time, and say Richard Willett was mental and none of that happened, and if so then we did it, we stopped a future NOW from happening that we know would be a living hell for the vast majority of human beings on earth, Religions will come and they will go, saviours will be imagined and they will rise and fall, technology will be created and dismantled in time, despots and demons will rage like fire and burn themselves out because the only thing that is truly immortal is change, so why fight it forever?

AT THE END of the day (is it the end?) I feel sorry for those who have chosen the dark road, especially those who were young and impressionable when they were lured into it by others who saw them as prey. This has to stop at some point, because everything does, wouldn't it be nice if we could stop killing each other trying to stay alive? We have a major problem right now which I have outlined in this book, a dark satanic cult have infiltrated all areas of our societies across the globe and we can see that they are playing out biblical "prophecies" right before our eyes. But they cannot do this without getting you and I to build the digital prison ourselves. And then what? So they build their temple, they use particle accelerators to open up portals and rip the veil into another reality, and they infuse this energy into a quantum computer...and then what? It all sounds so fucking exhausting and such a waste of time, which is the epitome of Cronus eating his own children. Cronus killed himself by devouring his own future, refusing to let time move on. Cronus was the king of self destruction because he succumb to the unknown out of fear.

IF I COULD SIT down with someone like Elon Musk right now, I would ask him "are you not tired?" is it not all a bit of a pain in the arse to do this all the time, especially now you are 54 years old? Most of all I would like to ask him, what are you afraid of? Are you afraid of death or of being forgotten? It is my belief that Elon has been convinced he is actually saving the world, as is the case with the Chabad Lubavitch guys who think they are "repairing the world" but come on! Do you really believe it is right to do all of this without humanities consent? How can anyone look at the 70,000 Palestinians murdered in Gaza over the past two years, which includes at least 20,000 children, and think they are doing a benevolent "gods" work repairing the world? They can't, not without deceiving themselves. Everything that I have outline in this book is part of an agenda that I believe to be playing out all around us. I believe that the impulse to do these horrific things comes from a distorted energy that exists just outside of our visible light spectrum, but I also believe that this energy is afraid, why do I believe this?

BECAUSE IT HIDES...

IF THESE "ALL POWERFUL" evil creator god could make you do it you would be doing it already, you would have been born into its perfect system, but it can't and you have not. It hides because it fears it will be seen for what it is, a figment of your imagination which means that you are its creator and not the other way around. If the gnostics were right and we have entered into a distorted copy of prime reality then it is my belief that I came here to fuck shit up and piss off some Archons. Perhaps we are the sabbateans who have infiltrated Yaldabaoth's world to change it to something better from within and not the other way around? But If we have been tricked into coming here to be a supplier of loosh, then even better, because we are here now and we can cut off its supply from within. Which ever way you look at it these demons need us and we really do not need them. They want what we have, which is immortality infused through a never ending well of creativity that we can tap into 24/7. The cult thinks it can unplug us from this source and reroute us into a quantum beast system run by artificial intelligence which they believe will use that creative spark to build their New World Order.

THESE LOONS BELIEVE in something called Dark Enlightenment. The problem they have is that you can't get blood from a stone, you can't get light from the dark and you can't create freedom from technocratic control, now matter how Satanically inverted you might have been brain washed into thinking. You do not create order out of chaos, you create chaos and then someone else has to create a new order. Whilst one may lead to another it still takes a creative spark to pick up the pieces of what you have smashed to bits and create something new, without that spark you become a dead entity, a corporation. The Triple Crown Corporation is a dead entity, its creative energy comes from the manipulation of our energies to produce the New World Order that they want us to live in, without us they are screwed. This is why they hide, because if even a third of the eight billion people on earth could see them for what they truly are, then they would have no chance of making any of this happen. Thus the power is with us, and it always will be and I for one am not going to do their dirty work for them. Fuck em!

The Collins Elite & The World Rolls On

THE DATE IS January 31st 2026 and it is the day after a massive Epstein dump (stop sniggering) of files to the public. I am currently preparing for a new interview with Juliette Bryant covering the research we have done over the past two and half years, some of which I have included in this book. The book that was being written about her story has been pulled by the publisher, but it seems like the Epstein case is the one that just wont go away.

WHEN YOU ARE CONDUCTING this sort of bizarre research it never truly ends, so I am sure that much of the information in this, my first book, will be changed or be added to as I go on. One important bit of information that I have recently come across surrounds a mysterious group called 'The Collins Elite'. I came across this information in a book by Louis Elizondo called 'Imminent: Inside the Pentagons Hunt for UFO's' (134). Whilst I am very skeptical about this book, because it has had wide spread commercial release, the information about the Collins Elite does fit in with my research into Crowley, Jack Parsons, L Ron Hubbard and Jeffery Epstein. Elizondo mentioned that he came up against the Collins Elite whilst working at the Pentagon and investigating the UAP phenomenon. His faction at the Pentagon believed the UAP's to be extraterrestrial vehicles, while the Collins Elite were said to believe that these UAP's were actually demonic entities hiding behind the facade of E.T's and UAP's to infiltrate themselves in our world to prepare it for the "end times". The origins of the Collins Elite story comes from author Nick Redfern and his book 'Final Events' which I would highly recommend. Redfern writes about the Collins Elite's belief that L Ron Hubbard and Jack Parsons had opened up a portal during their Babalon Working rituals which had allowed something to rip the veil and to enter our world. You can imagine my amazement at reading this as I had no idea about any of this until after 95% of this book was already written. The Collins Elite claim that the influx of UFO sightings after 1947 were due to the work of Parsons and Hubbard who were working with the ideas and concepts of Aleister Crowley. This is pretty much what I had been saying for the past couple of years in relation to what I believe Epstein was up to under his New Mexico Zorro Ranch and his private island in the Caribbean.

WHILST MANY UAP researchers had dismissed the Collins Elite theory it is abundantly clear to me that a group of religious fanatics do indeed function within the Pentagon. This is not only overtly obvious due to the fact that Donald Trump, RFK Jr, Jared Kushner and many others are all involved with the Messianic sect Chabad Lubavitch, but that the guy currently in "charge" of the Pentagon is Pete Hegseth. This guy was voted into his current position with the help of JD Vance who was discovered by Palantir's Peter Thiel and is a staunch supporter of Zionist Israel. But it was a speech that he gave in 2018 at the famous King David Hotel in Jerusalem that really solidified it all for me. In this speech Pete Hegseth openly tells the audience that "There is no reason why the miracle of the re-establishment of the third temple is not possible" going on to say "I don't know how it would happen, you don't know how it would happen, but I know that it could happen"(135). This is the guy that is currently in charge of the Pentagon (at least officially) and he is openly telling you that he fully supports the building of new a temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem, which would mean the destruction of the Al-Aqsa Mosque that stands there today. This is totally and utterly insane, but it does give great weight to the theory that a group similar to Collins Elite do exist and perhaps control the Pentagon. We cannot have religious fanatics like this in control of weapons that could cause wide spread disaster. Peter Hegseth claims to be a Christian, but then again so does Tommy Robinson, yet he displays all the characteristics of a Sabbatean Frankist. So we have a US President who is rolling out an agenda for a messianic sect who want to repair the world to usher in Olam Haba, and a guy in charge of the Pentagon who wants to help build the third temple on Temple Mount in Jerusalem. This is fucking insane, and the world is currently fixated on Victoria Beckham having a fallout with her son! (This was written before the US/Israel attack Iran).

WHILST THIS IS all happening Donald Trump is taking the piss out of the world by announcing his "Peace Board" made up of genocidal lunatics such as himself and Benjamin Netanyahu. The peace board are being tasked with overseeing the peace process in Gaza, I kid you not! The same guys who bombed the place and funded the killing of tens of thousands of Palestinians are now on the peace board to rebuild a new Gaza. If you are reading this in the year 2235 I am not making this up, this really was what was happening on planet earth in 2026. It was Tony Blair who proposed putting the Gaza Strip under international administration in August of 2025. This was not a surprise since he was the guy who lied about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq that kicked off the Project For The New American Century, which is in reality the Greater Israel Project. At the same time we have Donald Trump trampling all over Canada, Venezuela and now Greenland which were all on the agenda of Technocracy Inc way back in the 1930's. These were a group of lunatics that wanted scientists and technicians to rule the world via a Technate. This group included Joshua Haldeman who is the grandfather of Elon Musk. You have to laugh really don't you, it so bloody blatant. Elon Musk now funds Donald Trump who was previously funded by Peter Thiel who discovered JD Vance who got Pete Segeth into the leading position in the Pentagon. We have a combination of religious messianic extremists working with a group of technocrats who want to roll out a world where technicians and scientists reign supreme. I believe that the combination of the two means that they are currently rolling out the technology that will allow them to rule over all humanity, in-prisoning us in a system in which we will have to abide by the seven Noahide Laws. This is a combination of Messianic lunacy and Technocratic fascism that I hope I have manage to shed some light on in this book.

2026 IS LOOKING to be a fascinating year, just today we had the fallout of the Epstein drop, with over 3 million files of all types. The first of which to be highlighted appear to be photos of Prince Andrew leaning over a young lady on the floor, and some files on Donald Trump and Elon Musk. To be honest, it will take months to go through all of this so I am not sure what to make of it all right now. One thing is for sure, the Epstein saga will not go away and until a large scale investigation is done into the Island and Zorro Ranch takes place, including a search for any underground facilities as well as a detailed investigation into Epstein's genetic projects, I for one will not be letting it go quiet. I believe the Collins Elite, or whatever they might call themselves, do exist in some capacity and that they were on to something with the involvement of Crowley, L Ron Hubbard and Jack Parsons. I disagree with their conclusions as I do not believe these to be "demonic" entities, but I do believe they may have opened up some sort of portal into another dimension and perhaps allowed something in. Even if they did not open a portal and it is all some wild fantasy created in the minds of religious extremist in the Pentagon, that still means we have some extremely dangerous religious fanatics in position of power that believe we are entering the biblical end times.

THE BBC HAVE JUST REPORTED on the 31st January 2026 the Israel have killed another 27 people in Gaza, amid a supposed ceasefire. In the latest Epstein Email dump there was a June 20th 2011 email from a Martin Novak that cc'd in Epstein, which mentions the "biological consequences of time travel", which is fascinating, although they may have just been having a laugh. Elon Musk has come out on X and tweeted that "No one has pushed harder than me to have the Epstein files released, and I am glad that has finally happened" which is utter bollocks obviously. He then went on to try to distance himself from Epstein saying

"I had very little correspondence with Epstein and declined repeated invitations to go to his island of fly on his Lolita Express". This may well be the case, but he did holiday at St Barts Island which is just a stones throw from Epstein's private island and even conceived his 13th child Romulus there with Ashley St Clair. It will be fascinating to watch the fall out of the latest Epstein files over the next couple of weeks, but I doubt any of them will lead to deeper investigations into his interest in transhumanism and genetics, I hope I am wrong. One of the emails between Epstein and Musk was cited on the BBC website as being sent in December of 2012. This email shows Elon explaining that he had "been working on the edge on insanity" that year and that he wanted to "let loose" and "hit the party scene on St Barts or elsewhere"(136). None of this shows any criminality on Elon's part of course, but it does show that they corresponded much more regularly than we have been led to believe, and that these correspondences came years after Jeffery Epstein had been convicted of procuring a child for prostitution in 2008. Whatever the truth about Elon and Epstein's relationship, asking a convicted child abuser for party tips is not a great look.

I CONTINUE to write this epilogue on the 1st February 2026 and the flood gates have opened on the Epstein Files. Just this morning we have researchers posting files that show Epstein was in contact with a Ariane de Rosthchild. The two were sharing emails back and forth about Adolf Hitler living in a homeless shelter which was funded by the Rothschild, Epstein and Gutman families. Jeffery Epstein seems to confirm this to Ariane de Rothschild in the email thread. We do know that Eppstein, spelt with an extra 'P' is one of the oldest Ashkenazi family names in Europe, and that there is a historic town in Germany near Frankfurt that is named after them. As I have outlined in Chapter 5: The Triple Crown Inc, it is my belief that the guys and girls at the top of this pyramid are from ancient bloodlines that can be traced back to Babylon and beyond. These include the Papal and Black Nobility bloodlines of Europe. It is no coincidence that both Jimmy Savile and Jeffery Epstein were extremely close to two brothers in King Charles and Prince Andrew. The three million Epstein files that have just been released are already beginning to raise more questions than they answer, and my hope is that people continue to dig into the information and open their minds to the possibility that this goes far deeper than political and financial blackmail. I hope this book has in some way given you insight into the dark occult bedrock of some of the most powerful and wealthy people on this planet. The truth of the matter is that more often than not, truth is stranger than fiction. Another email thread in the files was between Richard Branson and Jeffery Epstein. Sir Richard Branson also has his own private island in the Caribbean called Necker Island, and is invested in underwater tourism and deep sea exploration. One of Branson's more famous projects includes the six-seater Virgin Oceanic which is used for "deep trench dives" named "Necker Nymph" which is an aero submarine that can reach around 130 feet below sea level. The email thread between Branson and Epstein reported in a Sky News article on 31st January 2026 shows an email correspondence where Branson writes "Any time you're in the area we would love to see you. As long as you bring your harem!"(137). The email was dated September 11th 2013, again this was years after Epstein's original conviction. Now this is just an email and I am not suggesting that Branson was anything more than someone Epstein crossed paths with, but it does raise more questions about the world that these guys inhabited. In Branson's defence he said that he "would never have used this term if the full facts had been known at the time" but are we really going to believe that people like Branson and the British Royals did not know what was going on? Even if this is true and they had no idea, Epstein was still a convicted child trafficker by 2013.

THESE DAYS we are drowning in a flood of information that comes streaming in through TV, social media, radio, movies and Podcasts. By the time this book comes out the world will have moved on and some of what I have written will have taken an entirely new context. This is why we must learn to put the pieces of the puzzle together over time and to open our minds to the fact that some of the richest people in the world are mentally unstable. We must understand that even if we do not believe in the end times biblical prophecies, these people do. And that is what we are seeing playing out across the world today. Whether it's Epstein, the Kabbalah, a messianic sect, black magic, the occult, UAP sightings, men in black, military espionage, three letter agencies, Hollywood, ancient civilisations, Religions, mythologies, Portals or modern technologies, it all comes down to control. Everybody wants to be in control in a world of chaos. This global death cult craves the ultimate control, they want to avoid death and they want to become immortal. But life is change, and everything changes in time and time is Cronus.

THANK YOU

Thank you for taking the time to purchase and read my first book, I cannot thank you enough for all of your support through the years. I apologise if I tended to repeat myself at times, but this information is incredibly interwoven, so often the information leads you back around in circles as you fall head first down the next rabbit hole.

In closing I would just like to say that these lunatics are not all powerful, they are delusional and psychotic and at their roots, very very broken. Their desperation to control every aspect of life comes from a place of deep fear and in a way we could kind of feel sorry for them. I am not a religious person as you can probably tell, but I do have faith. Actually I have a universe of faith and that faith is in people, that eventually good will steer the mind back to common sense, at least for a while. Before it all goes to shit again and we cause a bit of chaos so we can then go about fixing it again. There's a reason why Lego is one of the most famous and ever present toys since its creation in 1932, with the first LEGO brick coming in 1949. This is because as much as we love to build, we love to smash it up and build something new. This is what the dark occultists understand. But the trap that they have fallen into is to pretend that it's all real. Like a LEGO house, nothing lasts forever except the fundamental building blocks of creation, which is consciousness and we are consciousness which means we are immortal. Isn't that something, the cult have been conned into searching for something that they had all along. I am pretty sure that was the theme of the Wizard of Oz.

Until next time...

Remember to do your own research and come to your own conclusions
